Hunt Fatal to Youth, 19

Dayton Anderson, 1378 E. Seventh street, St. Paul, was fatally injured late yesterday while celebrating his nineteenth birthday on a hunting trip with three friends.

He was struck by a charge from a .22 caliber rifle, which one of the friends, Harold Cartier, 18, 916 Clarence street, St. Paul, was dismantling in Anderson's car after having shot a squirrel. The bullet struck Anderson in the chest.

Anderson was placed in the car of Roland Dufresne, 23, 1331 Stillwater avenue, St. Paul, and taken to a physician at Hugo, Minn., who advised them to rush him to Bethesda hospital.

At St. Paul city limits the car was stopped for speeding, but the police car then escorted the other machine.

Anderson was dead, however, on arrival at the hospital. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson, and one sister, Lois.

Howard Proulx, 23, 1326 Stillwater avenue, St. Paul, was another member of the hunting party.
