Life:

The fact that the names of these Minneapolis and Minnesota men are announced in this list of those aboard the troop transport does not mean that they were among those lost. The number of men rescued is nearly 40 times those missing, and as no complete casualty list has been obtained, there is no present information on their fate.

The following Minneapolis men were on board the transport torpedoed:

Rudolph E. Anderson, 3423 Elliot avenue.

John Dogherty, 2301 Irving avenue north.

Emil F. Belvin, Lyndale avenue.

List continues – "Minneapolis Star Tribune" Friday 8 Feb 1918 p 1
