Tries to Gain Possession of Children.

Alleging that his children, Dean, aged 13, and LeVerne, aged 11, are being unlawfully detained by Mrs. Josephine Ewing at No. 49 Grand-ave., Highland Park, William C. Anderson petitioned the circuit court Thursday morning for a writ of habeas corpus directing that the boys be produced in court, and given into his charge.

The petitioner alleges that the children were left with Mrs. Ewing and abandoned by his wife six months ago, before she went to Toledo.

William C. Anderson, of the Royal Crown White Lead Co., has been sued in the circuit court for $1,500 of permanent alimony which was ordered paid to his former wife, Mabel E. Anderson, when she got a divorce in Toledo recently. Anderson at one time tried to get possession of his children by habeas corpus proceedings instituted here, but the wife went to Ohio before the papers could be served on her.

Wolverines in Air Corps.

Telegraph wires between the fort and Michigan are sagging under the weight of messages of candidates who are anxious to know if their numbers were drawn in the draft lottery. It has been announced that all who are rejected as officers will be compelled to serve as privates, if drawn. Most of those who do not draw commissions here soon will be non-commissioned officers in the new army, if they enter.

These Michigan men were designated today for entry in the aviation corps at Urbana, Ill.: Kenneth Matheson, Stanley D. Anderson, John H. Young, Jr., Oliver P. Gottellin and George S. Clark.

The following Detroiters registered today at Hotel Moraine, Highland Park: Mr. and Mrs. Sidney T. Miller, Miss Elizabeth Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hodges, H. A. Mendelson, Mr. and Mrs. William M. A plea to permit tavern keepers and other retailers of beer and liquor by the glass to sell it also by the bottle for consumption off the premises was made to the commission Wednesday by several outstate beer dealers associations.

Wendel A. Milanowski, of Grand Rapids, counsel for the Wolverine State Beer Dealers Association, and Deane Anderson, secretary of the Saginaw Retail Beer Dealers' Association, acted as spokesmen.

They also asked for a return to the former closing hour of 2 a. m., which was changed to 1 a. m. outside of the Detroit area during the Fitzgerald administration.

Beer Dealers Urge License Restriction

IONIA, Feb. 3 (AP)—Delegates representing beer and liquor licensees in 17 Michigan counties advocated limitation of licenses to one for each 1,000 population at a meeting here Wednesday. Edward W. McFarland, chairman of the state liquor control commission, and State Police Sgt. Leon Hopkins addressed the 150 delegates.

A resolution proposing limitation of licenses said it would remedy "undesirable conditions." It also advocated enlargement of the state police liquor enforcement division to permit monthly inspection of licensees. Harold E. Storrs of Portland and Deane Anderson of Saginaw were chosen to represent the group in matters pertaining to liquor regulations.

in the liquor problem.

For instance, Saginaw is credited with having excellent conditions in many phases of the business. This can be attributed in part to an especially active retail liquor dealers organization, directed by Deane Anderson, a former newspaperman, as secretary. This association sponsored local ordinances to restrict tavern (beer and wine by the glass) and class C (spirits by the glass) to 103 until the city's population exceeds 100,000 and then no more than one to each 1,000 population. It provides that of these 103 licenses, not more than 33 shall be class C.

Obituary: Erhard (John) Adolph Zeile

By Door County Pulse, Peninsula Pulse – September 28th, 2017

Erhard (John) Adolph Zeile died peacefully on September 19, at Hearthside in Sister Bay, Wisconsin. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 11 at 1pm at Shepherd of the Bay Church in Ellison Bay, Wisconsin. John's nephew, Reverend Carl Voges, will co-officiate with Reverend James Honig.

John was born on February 4, 1925, in Saginaw Michigan and was the youngest of six children born to Andrew and Hilda Zeile. He was married to Jean Lenore Anderson for 64 years until her passing in 2012. He attended Concordia Lutheran Seminary and served as an ordained minister for over 65 years in several Michigan churches, and he served as pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Mt. Prospect, Illinois for 28 years prior to his retirement. After retirement John and Jean moved to Door County and he served as an interim/guest pastor and teacher in several congregations on the peninsula.

John is survived by his sons Andrew of Wauconda, Illinois, Mark of West Bend, Wisconsin, and his daughter, Kris Zeile, of Barrington Illinois. His passing was preceded by the loss of his eldest daughter, Martha, in 2009. He is also survived by three granddaughters and two great-granddaughters as well as his beloved brother, Louis Zeile, of Saginaw, Michigan.

John's joy was found in the nearly 30 years he spent on the Door County Peninsula, where he continued to serve and minister and, along with Jean, enjoy the beauty and wonder of his Lake Michigan shore and his beloved collies over the years.

Memorials in John Zeile's memory are appreciated for Shepherd of the Bay Lutheran Church's designated fund devoted to ministry and care for elders in the community.

PIONEER DETROIT

WOMAN DIES AT 81

Mrs. Josephine Ewing Had Lived Here 53 Years.

Ending a residence of 53 years in Detroit, Mrs. Josephine Ewing, widow of Henry Ewing, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hubert H. Johnson, 674 Robinwood avenue west, early yesterday morning. She was 81 years old.

Mrs. Ewing's death, her son-in-law, Dr. Hubert H. Johnson, said, resulted from injuries received five weeks ago when she was struck by a street car at Avalon and Woodward avenues while on the way to church.

Born in Hamilton, Ont., December 9, 1845, she received her early education in the Dominion, and was married to Henry Ewing in Wicklow, Ont., when she was 16 years old. They moved to Detroit in 1874. For a number of years Ewing was engaged in the wholesale fruit business here, and later became connected with the Michigan Drug company, a connection he held until his death in 1905.

In the 1880 census of Detroit, Wayne MI, William Anderson (6 MI) lived at 56 – 23rd St. with his parents Charles (34 Sweden) & Elizabeth (28 England) & sister Clara (2 MI).

In 1908, when he tried to regain custody of his two children, he was employed by the Royal Crown White Lead Co., a paint company.

On his WWI draft registration, if he was born 7 Apr 1847, he resided at 424 Ellis St., San Francisco CA, was married to Elizabeth of the same address. He was branch manager of California Paint Co., 11th & 12th streets, Oakland CA.

On 3 Feb 1920, William C. Anderson applied for a US passport in San Francisco CA. He said he was born 7 Apr 1874 in Detroit MI. His father was Charles Anderson, born Sweden, who had resided in Finland since 1915. He planned to sail on the "Colusa" on 19 Feb 1920 for commercial business in India, Ceylon, Austria, Santa Cruz Islands, Fiji Island, British Sounds (spelling?), New Zealand, French Indo China & Egypt.

In Sep 1908, William petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus in Detroit, Wayne MI, so his two children can be brought to court & put in his custody. He said

Dean and Laverne were in the household of his mother-in-law Mrs. Josephine Ewing in Highland Park MI. William said his wife had gone to Toledo, Lucas OH. Instead, he is ordered to pay $1,500 in permanent alimony to his wife Mabel, who had obtained a divorce in Toledo OH “recently.”

Notes:

There are a lot of records online which do not appear to be true. It is unlikely that Stanley’s father lived until he was 110. It is unlikely he was fathering children with another wife when he was not yet divorced. It is questionable if Stanley had a sister named Rita Hazel Anderson, who was born ca. 1900 in MI as she is not listed in the 1900 census.

A cryptic online note says Mabel, spouse named William C. Anderson – or William C., spouse named Mabel – has an obituary published in Monroe Co. MI, date not stated
