Truck Driver Hurt in Four Vehicle Crash

A Missouri truck driver was injured Tuesday in a four-vehicle accident on I-70 at the Ind. 63 overpass as he successfully avoided hitting three cars involved in a pileup in front of his semi, according to state police and sheriff's deputies investigating.

James D. Neuhaus, 30, of St. Charles, Mo., driving for General Cable Co. of St. Louis, was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital with a fractured right arm and laceration on the left side of his head, officers reported. The report stated there were no injuries to any of the other drivers.

Investigators blamed the accident on ice, reporting that Viola Couture, 59, of RR 1, West Terre Haute, lost control of her car which then was involved in collisions with two other cars while the truck driver crashed into the overpass structure three times in his effort to avoid the autos.

Drivers of the other cars were identified as David E. Wyrick, 22, of RR 5, Marshall, Ill., and Clarence C. Andree, 73, of RR 1, West Terre Haute.
