The American people, men, women and children will be filled with a patriotic determination to fight to death the murderers of our brave boys who went down with the Tuscania. Never before in history was the Star Spangled Banner sung by a braver, more heroic bunch of American boys than those as they saw death staring them in the face, but saw, also, the enemy defeated rather than triumphant, who could sing as with one voice, "Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just, and this be our motto in God is our trust"—and conquered.

Only a strong hearted, home-loving patriotic American boy could face death, with his head held high as proudly he sang the National Anthem of this great and glorious country, America. And every heart should be thrilled with love for these our noblemen.

Among the passengers of this ill rated vessel were three Harmon county boys: Olank Anderson of Vinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Anderson, O. C. Atchley of Gould and Frank T. Allen of Independence. Anderson and Atchley survived, Allen has not been heard from.

Details of heroism of Oklahoma soldiers during the war would fill volumes. Many received decorations during or soon after the war, while others from time to time were accorded the recognition they deserved.

Two Oklahomans, who afterward gained considerable more prominence in peace times, and who received Distinguished Service Medals, are Patrick J. Hurley and Hugh S. Johnson. Hurley became Oklahoma's only cabinet member as secretary of war under President Hoover. Gen. Johnson is President Roosevelt's administrator of the NRA (National Recovery Administration).

Gus' Cafe and Beer Garden is one of the most up-to-date businesses of its kind in the Southwest. Since opening in its present location on the south side of the court house square in Mangum on January 1, 1933, many improvements have been made to give better service to the public. The decorations, booths, leather-bottomed counter seats and extra good equipment of all kinds makes it a most inviting and comfortable place to enjoy their extra good and reasonably priced foods and drinks.

Gus' Cafe and Beer Garden is owned and operated by Rufus William (Gus) Morton, born in the City of Mangum several years ago and received his first experience in his present line of endeavor in the old Mangum Restaurant that used to be located on the northwest corner of the square.

Leaving Mangum in 1916 "Gus" worked in Oklahoma City for some time, then going to Wichita, Kansas, where he enlisted in the U. S. Marines and received his training in Paris Island, South Carolina, Quantico, Norfolk, Jamestown and Portsmouth and was a machine gun instructor during nine months of overseas service.

Returning at the end of the World War he served his government two years more as a plainclothes man in criminal investigations and thereafter was on the Wichita Falls, Texas, police force under their present Chief of Police. He then spent four years in the restaurant business in California before coming to Mangum to again continue in his favorite business.

Gus Says: If you can tell me what to do to better serve the public, I'll do that very thing. For there's nothing I love to do better than to please.
