Longtime Victor Couple Honored On Anniversary

A reception honoring Elizabeth and Everett Babbitt of Victor, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary, was held Saturday in the Victor Community Church annex. Over 150 guests attended.

Elizabeth Rose and Everett Babbitt were married Sept. 16, 1924, in Missoula at the home of Rev. Livingston, who was supplying the Victor pulpit at that time. Their attendants were Louise Schweitzer McClung and Guy McClung, who were honor guests at the reception.

Mrs. Babbitt was born west of Hamilton, moving to Victor when she was seven. Babbitt was born in Victor. Both attended Victor schools, graduating from Victor High School in 1919 and 1915, respectively.

They have made their home in Victor following their marriage in 1924. Mrs. Babbitt taught school before her marriage and for several years during the marriage. Babbitt retired as Victor postmaster in 1961 and they now spend their winters in Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt have 3 children and 9 grandchildren.

Decorating the church annex were gifts of garden flowers and Everett Babbitt and his wife Suzie of Bellingham, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. James (Betty) McGillen of Yakima, Washington; and Mr. and Mrs. James (Jeannie) Hansard, Joe and Jeff of Bellingham, Washington.

Unable to attend were the McGillen children, Ensign and Mrs. Jon (Marilynn) Sting, Corpus Christi, Texas, and Matthew of Yakima, Washington.

The celebration was observed this month rather than in September, to allow family members to attend.

Serving and in charge of the guest book were Mrs. Warren (Minnie) Fulton, Butte, sister of Mr. Babbitt; Mrs. Elgy (Mary Louise) Stewart, Two Dot, niece of Mr. Babbitt; Mrs. Ralph (Merle) Cecil, Page, Arizona and Mrs. Chester (Helen)

Fischer, Fresno, Calif., nieces of Mrs. Babbitt; Mrs. Guy (Louise) McClung; Mrs. W.P. (Louise) Robb; Mrs. Gary (Donalee) Dawson; and the grandchildren present.

Following the reception 30 family members attended a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt at Fort Owen Inn.

Mrs. Babbitt was dressed in a pink and white floor length gown, accented with a pearl and gold necklace made for the occasion by her cousin, Sarah Jones Rowher of Hamil, S.D. Gold spiral candles flanked the tiered wedding cake, which was topped by the bride and groom decoration used on their daughter's wedding cake 25 years ago.

Scroll mementos were presented to the guests.

Hosting the reception were the Babbitt's three children and their families. In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon (Sally) Babbitt, Judy, Nancy and Toni of Tulsa, Okla., and their children Paula Roberts and

Babbitts honored at reunion

Elizabeth and Everett Babbitt have shared each other's lives for 60 years.

From July 26 - 30, their family and friends gathered in Victor for a family reunion and celebration of the couple's 60th wedding anniversary.

According to the Babbitt's grandson, Matt McGillen of Yakima, the Babbitts were honored at a dinner July 28 at Fort Owen Inn near Stevensville. More than 40 people attended, including guests Louise and Guy McClung.

The McClungs, who will mark their own 60th anniversary in 1985, were attendants at the Babbitt wedding Sept. 16, 1924.

Other guests at the dinner were Everett's sister, Minnie Fulton, Butte; Everett's niece, Mary Louise Stewart, Two Dot; Elizabeth's niece, Merle Cecil, Dutch John, Utah; the Babbitt's three children, Gordon, Houston, Texas; Betty Babbitt McGillen and Donna Jean Babbitt Hansard, both from Yakima, Wash.

Also attending were Gordon's wife (Sally) Celestine and four of their five children, Paula Mc-Grath, Bellingham, Wash.; Judy Kirkwood, Nancy Babbitt and Toni Babbitt, all from Port Naches, Texas; Paula's husband, Jim McGillen and their children, Matt, McGillen, Yakima; Marilyn Sting, Jacksonville, Fla., Matt's wife, Sue and their daughter Andrea; Marilyn's two daughters Ashley and Shannon, and Donna Jean's son, Jeff.

Family members unable to attend were Gordon's son Everett, wife Suzie and children Heather, Bryan and David, Bellingham, Wash.; Betty's son-in-law John Sting, and Donna Jean's son, Joe, Phoenix, Ariz.

Reunion activities included a hike to Sweat House Falls, a trip to Sleeping Child Hot Springs, horseback riding at the Crick ranch west of Victor, attending the Chief Victor Days celebration and the pancake breakfast.

James "Everett" Babbitt

James "Everett" Babbitt, 95, of Yakima, Wash., a native of Victor, died Sunday at Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital.

Born Jan. 10, 1896 in Victor, he was the son of the late Homer F. and Emma (Alford) Babbitt. He was reared and educated in Victor. In 1917 he enlisted in the Army and served until his discharge in 1919. He was one of the few survivors of the sinking of the troop ship "Tuscania" off the coast of Ireland during World War I.

On Sept. 16, 1924 in Missoula, he married the former Elizabeth

M. Rose who survives. For 25 years Everett was postmaster of Victor, until his retirement in 1961. He was a 70-year member of the Victor Masonic Lodge #42 A.F. & A.M. and a member of the Eastern Star and Shriners. He was a charter member of VFW Post #1430 of Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt moved to Yakima in 1987.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth M. Babbitt of Yakima; two daughters and a son-in-law, Betty and Jim McGillen and Jean Hansard, all of Yakima; a son and daughter-in-law, Gordon and Sally Babbitt of Port Arthur, Texas; a stepbrother and sister-in-law, Guy and Louise McClung of Hamilton; nine grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a sister, Minnie Fulton, who died in 1990, and a grandson, Dwight Babbitt.

Graveside services will be Friday at 2 p.m. in Victor Cemetery, with officers and members of Masonic Lodge #43 A.F. & A.M. and VFW Post #1430 officiating. In case of inclement weather, the service will be held in the Victor Masonic Lodge.

Of the 2,179 soldiers aboard, there were 215 casualties. Therefore, he was not "one of the few survivors" of Tuscania - "Ravalli (MT) Republic" Wednesday 17 Apr 1991 p 3

Victor's history is in the works - Bitterroot Trails

PAT RHODES

FOR THE RAVALLI REPUBLIC

Certain members of the Victor community are working on a Victor edition of Bitterroot Trails and one of the early-day families to be documented in the book is the Babbitts.

The valley natives - Everett and Elizabeth Rose Babbitt - were born in 1896 and 1898, respectively. Everett was the son of Homer Freeman Babbitt who arrived in Victor with his brother James in about 1880 from Ohio, driving a team of mules and a wagon. Homer first ranched in Ross's Hole near Sula then moved northward to the Victor/Corvallis/Stevensville area. He owned and operated a slaughterhouse and butcher business and contracted and supplied meat for the workmen on the Big Ditch project.

Homer also was involved in other business activities including a coal distribution business and the first automobile garage in the Victor area. He served as Ravalli County Assessor from 1911-1912 and was an original organizer, stockholder and director of Farmer's State Bank in Victor. He continued as a director until his death in 1943, according to a family history written by Betty Babbitt McGillan, daughter of Everett and Elizabeth.

The family story says that Homer owned one of the motorized school buses for the Victor School District. He had a flatbed truck topped with a wooden structure that was removable. "Using pulleys, he could raise the structure up away from the truck and then lower it back down and insert benches when he wanted to use the 'school bus.' It also doubled as a camper on a trip to Yellowstone National Park taken by Homer and his second wife Maude. Later on, Homer's son, Everett, and grandson, Gordon, made use of it for hunting trips."

Homer's first wife was Emma S. Alford, born on Sept. 4, 1866, in Rodgersville, Miss. She died Aug. 7, 1909, at Victor, only 10 years after moving to Montana. Homer and Emma's children were Emmett, who died at age three after falling on a picket fence, Florence, who died of diarrhea at the age of eight months, James Everett, who died in 1991 at the age of 95, and Eleanor, who died in 1990 at the age of 94.

Homer's second marriage in 1914 was to Maude Hare McClung. She was born in 1881 in Allrin, Neb. She had one son, Guy McClung, who subsequently married Louise Schweitzer in 1925.

Everett's wife, Elizabeth Marie Rose was born Oct. 30, 1898 in Hamilton to Theodore and Mary Jane. Theodore was born in Sweden in 1854 and he came to America in 1858. Theodore and Mary Jane were married in Illinois in 1881 and moved to Montana in 1889. They moved to Victor in 1906.

The Rose family moved to Victor when Elizabeth was eight years old. She died Dec. 18, 1999. Both Everett and Elizabeth attended Victor schools and were graduates of Victor High School. Everett, a veteran of World War I, survived the sinking of the troop ship Tuscania and served in France.

Elizabeth graduated from the Normal College at Dillon in 1919 and taught school before her marriage and again during World War II. She was a pioneer woman automobile driver and owned her own car prior to her marriage.

Everett and Elizabeth's children are Gordon Everett, Betty Jane, and Donna Jean (Jeanie).

Babbitt family is rooted in Victor town history

PAT RHODES
FOR THE RAVALLI REPUBLIC

The Babbitts – one of the Victor community's early-day families – date back to the 19th century Bitterroot and members of the family have contributed to the Bitterroot Trails book being written by Victor residents.

Everett Babbitt and his wife Elizabeth Rose lived out their lives, for the most part, in Victor and contributed to the community in many ways. Elizabeth was a teacher, homemaker and mother and Everett, after serving in the U.S. Army in World War I, returned to Victor to marry Elizabeth. They ranched until 1935 when they moved to town to live in the former home of Elizabeth's parents.

When Everett was a young man, he drove a tour bus in Yellowstone Park and is remembered as an outstanding athlete and sportsman who enjoyed hunting and fishing. He also was a member of the Victor Rifle Club. After moving to town, he became Victor's postmaster and served in that position for 26 years until his retirement in 1961.

His daughter, Betty Babbitt McGillen, remembers that when her father worked for the postal service, baby chickens were sent by parcel post and, at times, "There would be cheeping from the cardboard boxes when he was ready to lock up the office for the night so he would deliver them to the recipients before going home."

Before his job as postmaster, Everett was self-employed as a rancher, a truck driver, garage operator, butcher, contract mail hauler and other various activities. He also was a shareholder and director of Farmers State Bank. Among his most notable experiences dated back to the first war when, on Jan. 22, 1918, he boarded the troop ship Tuscania en route to fight in France. According to Betty's account, "on Feb. 5, 1918 at 5:45 p.m., off the coast of Scotland, a torpedo fired from German U-boat 77 hit the Tuscania."

Everett happened to be standing in chow line waiting for his supper at that moment. "The commanding officer was Captain Hall. There was one loud blast, with no prior warning. For the most part, the troops (reportedly) remained calm," she said.

The troops were ordered into lifeboats but Everett did not make it into a lifeboat and he went, instead, to the port side of the ship. The torpedo had hit the Tuscania's starboard side and the men had no knowledge of the extent of the injuries or deaths. No one told them what to do. They didn't know whether to stay with the ship or jump overboard. They were on their own. Some did jump and lost their lives.

"Everett and some of the other soldiers went up to the hurricane deck, waiting for the ship to go down. He tried to roll a cigarette but finally gave up," Betty said.

About 8:30 p.m. that same day an English sub-chaser called The Grasshopper came alongside. By this time the Tuscania was tilting badly with the main deck on a level with the ocean. Babbitt went down a rope from the hurricane deck to the English ship and was taken to Lockswilly, a port in Northern Ireland. The soldiers walked to Londonderry that day (Feb. 6) and then walked on for three more days to Dublin. From there they went to England and

Two names appeared among those who were saved and many students at the college and Bozeman people will be glad to know that they were among the fortunate ones. One was the name of Everett Babbitt of Victor. He is the brother of Miss Minnie Babbitt, 616 South Eighth, who is a senior woman in the home economics course at college. Mr. Babbitt, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Babbitt of Victor, Montana, took a one year engineering course in 1915 and entered the service about a year ago as a member of the 20th Engineers. The other name was Lawrence Watters of Victor. He attended college, entering the agricultural course in 1914 and after two years left school. He was a member of the Omega Beta fraternity and was well liked by all his comrades.

ON THE TUSCANIA

Boys, Saved from Watery Grave, Write Home.

Lawrence Watters and James Everett Babbitt Tell of Experiences on Ill-Fated Boat.

Victor, March 14.—Letters were received Tuesday by the parents of Lawrence B. Watters and James Everett Babbitt, who were on the Tuscania, which was sunk by a torpedo February 6. Elmer, referred to in the first letter, is Elmer Luther Cowan, who lost his life. The three boys left Victor about the last of November. The letters follow:

"February 14, 1918.—It has been some time since I have written you, but much longer since hearing from you. You may think I have had an easy time, but since going aboard the ship it has been rather hard, as we have been moved about so much. Have been treated like princes since we landed, except for clothing, as the government has not a very big supply here. Am just getting started again to collect a few little things of my own, donated by the Red Cross Association.

"Suppose by now you have heard of our disaster on the sea, when we were in sight of land on both sides of the ship. We all thought we were safe, but guess the submarine had us sighted, and waited for us until dark, and then let her drive.

"It is an experience I never want to go through again. We were all ordered out, and especially requested to keep our lifebelts on, or with us. I, with half of the other bunch, was lined up for supper, on the third deck. The others, however, had just eaten, and were called out on deck for the rest of the night, as we were in what they call "Hell's hole." All of a sudden there came a bang, and out went the lights. Then we were in a mass of crowding men, and there was a great scramble for the upper decks, where the lifeboats were stationed, and where we were drilled to go in case of such an emergency.

"It was a terrible sight to see the way some of the men lost their heads and jumped overboard, some of whom were saved, and the rest numbered among the lost. Ropes on the lifeboats broke, spilling men in every direction, most of whom were picked up and saved. The boat I was to have gone on was smashed, so I was left on deck, with the rest of those who were going with me, as well as many others, who were in the same fix.

"Something told me that we would be saved, and sure enough, three torpedo destroyers came alongside of our ship and took us away to different landing points. We lost everything we had to our names, excepting what we had on our backs.

"From all indications, we are afraid that Elmer is among the missing, as we can hear nothing of him. Many of the lifeboats that were safely launched were mashed on the rocks. Most of the friends I had made, since being in the army, were killed in that way.

"I found Everett Babbitt, and we stuck together and made it away on the same "chaser." If this ship had sunk as quickly as most of them do, hardly any of us would have been saved. It took something over two hours for it to go down.

"The young wireless operator never left his post, but stayed right there to send messages and signals.

"Well I spent the last cent I had for soap, towels, tobacco, stationery and many other articles, so I was broke for the 14 days on board and ever since I landed. Hope you are all well and enjoying the green grass, as we are. Have been in many different countries and places since leaving home. If you want to send me anything please send me sweet chocolate, hard candy and handkerchiefs. You see I lost everything, even my sweater.

"May send cable before this reaches you. With love to all.
LAWRENCE WATTERS.

Safe Ashore.

"February 13.—I wrote you a few days ago. I am on foreign soil and am alright. I was on the ship that was torpedoed, but got away safely on a small boat. Lawrence is here with us but Elmer isn't here. He isn't among the list of drowned so I still have hopes that he is alright. I know it will be a great shock to his folks and friends. I guess you heard all about the ship being torpedoed and you were wondering if we were on the ship or not and if we were safe.

"Well it is time for the lights to go out in the Y. M. C. A., so I must close for this time.

"JAMES E. BABBITT."

Following the dinner, Mrs. Hazel K. Hackett, who has been Babbitt's assistant during all of his years as postmaster, made a presentation talk and he was presented with a gift by Mrs. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hoblitt and daughter, Donna Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGillen, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Buker, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown and Acting Postmaster Frank Conner and Mrs. Conner. Mrs. Babbitt was also a guest at the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt left Monday by motor for Fort Walton, Fla. where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hansard.

James M. Hansard.
Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt plan to return home leisurely by the southern route, visiting in Texas, California, and thence northward to Washington for a visit. They are looking forward eagerly to their trip which will provide them with a change of scene and a look at interesting territory, but most of all they will be happy to visit with their daughter, Jeannie, as they have not seen her since Christmas 1959.

Bon voyage, Babbitts.

Betty Babbitt Weds James A. McGillen

Victor—At a double ring ceremony at 2 p. m. Sunday afternoon Betty Jane Babbitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Babbitt was married to James A. McGillen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGillen. Rev. John MacDonald performed the wedding rites in the Community church.

Baskets of white mums and greenery were used with tall candleabra to decorate the alter. Each pew was marked with a small spray of evergreen tied with bows of white net.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Earl Roberts who played the processional and recessional. She also accompanied Newton Buker who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the entrance of the bridal party and "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple were at the alter. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a white slipper satin gown with a sweet heart neckline, scalloped bodice, long pointed sleeves and a short train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a beaded crown, and she carried an orchid on her white Rainbow Bible. The matron of honor was Mrs. Emery Buker and acting as junior bridesmaid was the bride's little sister, Donna Jean Babbitt.

Both wore long gowns of fushcia colored velvet, and long mitts of the same material. They carried shower bouquets of white carnations and wore clusters of white carnations in their hair. Marion Kay Hewitt, little niece of the groom acted as flower girl. She carried a white basket of rose petals, which she scattered on the path ahead of the bride. She wore a short dress of royal blue velvet and white flowers in her hair. Dressed in exactly the same way was her sister Donna Fay Hewitt who, with her cousin, Wayne McGillen, Butte, carried the rings on little white satin pillows.

The bride's mother wore a street dress of dark blue and the groom's mother's street dress was purple. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Jerold McGillen, Butte. Harry McGillen, another brother, also from Butte and the bride's brother, Gordon Babbitt, Bozeman, were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. After the bride and groom had cut and had the traditional first piece of the wedding cake, which was topped with the miniature bride and groom under a heart-shaped lace archway, Mrs. D. A. Hewitt, sister of the groom, served the cake. His sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry McGillen and Mrs. Jerold McGillen, poured. Mrs. Gordon Babbitt had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. McGillen are both 1947 graduates of the Victor high school. Since her graduation the bride has been employed as a stenographer for the General Electric company, Richland, Wash. The groom is attending Montana State College at Bozeman. He served for a year with the U. S. navy being stationed at San Diego and aboard a destroyer.

Out-of-town relatives here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGillen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerold McGillen and family, all of Butte, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Babbitt, Bozeman, and Mr. and Mrs. G. K. McClung and son, Sid, of Missoula.

Donna Jean Babbitt Weds James Hansard

Victor — Mr. and Mrs. James E. Babbitt of Victor have announced the marriage of their daughter, Donna Jean, to James Melvin Hansard of Seattle, Wash.

The marriage took place on Dec. 10 in the Methodist church in Ft. Walton Beach, Fla. The pastor of that church performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends of the young people.

The bride wore a white satin brocade street-length dress and a shoulder-length veil. She carried her Rainbow Bible, which was covered with a corsage of feathered white carnations and white rose.

The matron of honor was the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Hansard. She wore a gray suit and her flowers were a corsage of pink roses. The groom's brother, Capt. J. F. Hansard, was best man.

Miss Sandie Collins, a roommate of the bride, was organist and provided background music before and during the ceremony. An informal reception at the home of friends followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansard left immediately following the reception for a wedding trip which took them to the east coast of Florida, down to the keys and back up the west coast.

The bride is a 1957 graduate of the Victor high school and attended Central Washington College of Education in Ellensburg, Wash. and has been employed by Boeing Airplane Co. in a Stenographical position.

Mr. Hansard is the son of Mrs. L. V. Hansard and the late Mr. Hansard of Seattle. He graduated from Lincoln high school, Seattle, and the University of Washington with a bachelors degree in business administration. He is presently employed with Boeing as a supervisor in the Administration staff.

Both have been employed for several months in the Bormarc B program located at Eglin Air Force Base, Ft. Walton Beach, where they plan to make their home.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. F. Hansard and daughter Mary of Seattle, Capt. and Mrs. J. F. Hansard, with the Air Force in New Mexico, and Cpl. J. R. Hansard, with the Army in Alabama.

Babbitt Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Babbit recently returned from spending seven months at Apache Junction, Ariz. They have announced the marriage of their daughter, Donna Jean Hansard to John Notar. Both live in Bellingham, Wash.

The wedding took place Sunday, April 8 in the Lutheran Church with only family members present. The bride's son Jeff lit the alter candles. Her sister, Betty McGillen, and brother of the groom, Scott Notar, were the attendants.

Following the ceremony, a family dinner was enjoyed at the country club. Later, a reception was held there for family members. There from out of town, in addition to her parents, were her brother, Gordon Babbit, his wife Sally and daughters Nancy and Toni of Port Neches, Tex.; her sister, Mrs. Betty McGillen and son, Matt and friend of Yakima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. John (Marilyn McGillen) Sting and infant daughter of Kirkland, Wash.; the bride's son, Joe, the groom's mother, Fay Notar, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Notar and three children.

Others included Mr. and Mrs. Everett and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. John (Paula) McGrath of Bellingham, Wash., nephew and niece of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Babbit also announce the births of three great-grandchildren. On Sept. 28, Brian Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Babbitt was born on Sept. 28. He joined a sister, Heather Lynn. On Oct. 5, Ashley Lynn was born to Mr. and Mrs. John (Marylin) Sting and Kevin Jacob became a son of John and Paula (Babbit) McGrath on Oct. 29.

Early Day Victor Resident Dies

Victor, Dec. 13.—Funeral services for Homer F. Babbitt, 83, former Ravalli county assessor who died at his home here Saturday, were held in the Dowling chapel at Hamilton Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Fraser MacDonald officiated. Interment was in the Corvallis cemetery. Pallbearers were H. C. Groff, Ed C. Downing, S. P. Kerr, George Safley, John Greenfield, Adam Hornung.

He had been seriously ill in October but had improved and was up and about until he suffered a stroke on Tuesday.

He was born April 18, 1860, in Lebanon, Ohio, and came to Montana in 1881. He first homesteaded in the Ross Hole section, coming to Victor a few years later. This has been his home since with the exception of 1911 and 1912 when he made his home in Hamilton while serving as assessor.

He was a rancher until 1904 when he went into the butcher business. He disposed of this business in 1918 and from 1921 to 1925 operated the Victor Garage, retiring in the latter year. He was married to Emma Alford, Corvallis, in 1891. She died in 1908 and in 1914 he married Mrs. Maude McClung, Victor.

Besides his widow he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Minnie Fulton, Power; son, James Everett, Victor postmaster, and stepson, Guy McClung, Bremerton, Wash., and several grandchildren.

WEEK'S NEWS FROM VICTOR

Mrs. Emma Babbitt, wife of Homer Babbitt, died last Sunday, of typhoid fever. She had been sick for about a month and the end was not unexpected. The funeral was held at the home Tuesday morning and the service was conducted by Rev. G. W. McCombe of the Stevensville Baptist church. A great number of relatives and friends attended and numerous floral offerings attested the esteem in which she was held. Interment was made in the Corvallis cemetery. Deceased was born in Missouri about forty three years ago. She leaves a husband, two children; Minnie and Everett, a mother and three sisters. Mrs. Babbitt was an earnest Christian woman, devotedly attached to her home and family. She was conscious to the last and gave directions as to the funeral and the future care of her children. No children in the community have been more carefully reared. She was interested in everything which would contribute to the welfare of the community and she will be missed.

Stepmother:

The many friends of H. P. Babbitt were greatly surprised to learn of his wedding in Missoula Friday to Mrs. Maude McClung. Mr. Babbitt has been engaged in the butcher business here for some years and is an ex-county assessor of Ravalli county. Mrs. Babbitt was for some time operator for the Independent Telephone company. Their many friends are congratulating them.

Homer Babbitt Married.

Homer T. Babbitt surprised the Victor people Friday by returning from Missoula with a bride. The bride, formerly Mrs. Maude McClung, is well and favorably known here, having been night operator at the Independent Telephone office for some time. She and her son Guy went to Texas last winter and on their return were met by Mr. Babbitt at Missoula, where the wedding ceremony took place. Mr. Babbitt is well-known throughout the Bitter Root valley and a host of friends join in wishing the couple happiness and prosperity.

The bridal couple were entertained on Monday night by an old time charivari. The crowd was invited to remain while Mrs. Babbitt and Miss Minnie prepared a dainty luncheon. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.

REMARRY AFTER 35 YEARS SEPARATION

Victor, May 16.—Word of the remarriage of Mrs. Maude Babbitt, and Thomas J. McClung, Forney, Texas, after a separation of nearly 35 years, has been received here by friends. Each had remarried and lost a mate by death. Mrs. McClung was here in April with a brother and disposed of her residence and household furnishings. They spent a week with her son, Guy McClung, and family in Missoula and then went on to Forney.

Notes:

“Ravalli Republic” 22 Jan 2001 p 3 – a history of Victor which features the Babbitt family Everett & Elizabeth (Rose) Babbitt, he b. 1896 & she b. 1898. Everett's father Homer Freeman Babbitt & his brother James arrived around 1880 from OH driving a team of mules & a wagon. Homer first ranched near Ross's Hole near Sula, then went north to the Victor/Corvallis/Stevensville area. He operated a slaughterhouse, was a butcher, coal distributor, operated the 1st auto garage in Victor & was Ravalli County assessor 1911-1912. He was one of the founders of the Farmer's State Bank. This information is taken from a history by his daughter, Betty McGillen. Homer owned the first motorized school bus. His wife was Emma S. Alford, b. 4 Sep 1866 Rodgersville MS, died 7 Aug 1909 Victor MT, having spent 10 years in MT. Their children were Everett Babbitt (died at age 3 after falling on a picket fence; Florence Babbit (died at age 8 months of diarrhea), James Everett (who died in 1991 at age 95) & Eleanor [Minnie?], who died in 1990 at age 94. Homer's second wife was Maude Hare McClung, whom he married in 1914. She ws born in 1881 in Allrin NE. Her son Guy McClung married Louise Schweitzer in 1925. Everett's wife Elizabeth Marie Rose, was b. 30 Oct 1898 in Hamilton MT, daughter of Theodore & Mary Jane Rose. Theodore, born in Sweden in 1854, emigrated in 1858. Her parents were married in IL in 1881, coming to MT in 1889 & to Victor in 1906 when Elizabeth was age 8. She graduated from Normal School at Dillon MT in 1919 and was a pioneer woman car driver, having owned her own auto before her marriage. [There are numerous errors in this article.]

Wartime:

"Ravalli Republican" 15 Mar 1918 p 4 - letters home from Lawrence Watters & Babbitt (Babbitt's 13 Feb) - both remark on loss of Elmer Cowan, "Elmer isn't here" but they are together

Post-war: From family biography:

Graduate of Victor High School. His sister Minnie also a graduate. Gifted athlete, won the high jump championship at the state high school meet when he was a senior. “Left Victor, Mont., on Dec. 12, 1917 for Missoula, Mont., and on to see the world.” Enlisted in Missoula, sworn into Co. D., 6th Battalion, 20th Engineers on 12 Dec 1917 in Spokane. Took a Pullman car with 42 others on the Northern Pacific RR to American University in Washington DC. After Christmas, went to Camp Belvoir VA. Rescued from Tuscania by Grasshopper, landed in Lough Swilly in northern Ireland around 4 a.m. on 6 Feb 1918 & walked to Londonderry that same day. Went by foot to Dublin via Randalstown, then took local boat to Holyhead, Wales, then by rail to Winchester, England. On payday on 15 Feb 1918 he got 2 pounds, 1 shilling, 6 pence, 3 pence & 2 half-pennies. He left Camp Mary Hill 23 Mar & hiked 3 miles with backpack to train for Southampton. There he boarded the "Archimedes" & entered the harbor of Le Havre, France, at 6:30 a.m. on 24 Mar 1918. He received his 1st mail from home on 29 Mar. He kept a wartime diary. On 1 Jun 1919 he left Bordeaux, France, on the "Susquehanna," a German freighter converted to a troopship. Most of his unit was on a different ship & got home quicker. There were 6,000 men aboard & the voyage took 14 days, heading around the south of the Azores. He landed in Newport News VA, met 2 friends from Victor MT, spent a few days in VA, then took a train to Cheyenne WY. At home he joined his father in business, including the 1st auto garage in Victor. In 1924 he married Elizabeth Rose, who was born in Hamilton MT. She was the daughter of Theodore & Mary Jane (Williams) Rose. She was also a Victor High School graduate & also taught there. They had 3 children: Gordon, Betty & Donna Jean (Jeanie).

50th wedding anniversary celebrated on 17 Aug in Victor Community Church annex, with over 150 attendees. Everett & Elizabeth married 16 Sep 1924 in Missoula MT, at the home of Rev. Livingston. Elizabeth was born west of Hamilton MT & moved to Victor at age 7. Everett was born in Victor. She graduated from Victor High School in 1919, he in 1915. They have lived in Victor since their 1924 marriage. Elizabeth taught school before & during her marriage. Everett retired as Victor postmaster in 1961. They spent their winters in AZ. They have 3 children: Gordon (Sally) Babbitt, Mrs. James McGillen (Yakima) & Jeannie (Mrs. James) Hansard of Bellingham WA. The anniversary was celebrated in August rather than September for convenience of the guests.

54th wedding anniversary for Everett & Elizabeth. Attending were their children: son Gordon (area & plant manager for Texaco at Port Naches TX, daughters Betty McGillen (Yakima) & Donna Jean Hansard (Bellingham WA).

"Yakima (WA) Herald" Feb 1988 – for a long time, Everett could not talk about the Tuscania. Retired postal worker, age 92. Was in chow line when the torpedo struck. A very loud crash from the other side of the ship, which began to list. He was wearing his life preserver. Some men went crazy, some were calm, lots were "cussing" Kaiser Bill. Had been in Army 3 months & completely lacking in military training. Tried to roll a cigarette but gave up. He "sort of drifted up on the hurricane deck to get out of the way" and didn't want to go into the water. "Some of the boys went over but it was so cold you'd only hear a few cries from them and then nothing." After almost 3 hours an English subchaser came up. Everett saw a rope dangling from the hurricane deck & decided to slide down it to the other ship. Another guy went in front of him; he lost his grip and grabbed Everett's pants, which almost came off. His one daughter is Yakima County Clerk Betty McGillen; his other daughter is Jean Hansard. Once ashore, he reunited with the rest of the 20th Forestry Engineers, which had 48 casualties. He had to march 7 days to reach Dublin, then went to Southampton, then to France. The rest of the war was uneventful. He enlisted because he was single, age 21 & figured he'd get drafted. He attended NTSA conventions for several years, and is now only 1 of 9 survivors. When asked once "How did you feel about being left behind when the life boats departed?" he answered "Real disappointed."
