BABY BOY DIES FROM DRINKING CARBOLIC ACID-

"For the second time recently death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Blackman, of Plains, and carried away one of their treasures. Mrs. Blackman departed Tuesday afternoon, for Thompson, to visit with a married daughter, taking with her the twin Merlyn. A few hours later, Mr. Blackman received a message that the boy was dead as result of drinking carbolic acid. It will be remembered that the other twin drown a short time ago.

Mrs. Blackman and her mother were the guests at the Sinclair (St. Clair) home where the twin secured the acid that was being used for a disinfectant.

Funeral services were conducted in Plains, yesterday forenoon, at the Methodist church, by Rev. Martin of Thompson. The little casket was covered with floral offerings and sincere sympathy was extended to the bereaved ones who were called upon to part with the bright little fellow. He was about twenty months old. (Mother had told me this story and said the carbolic acid was sitting in a saucer to catch flies. She did not tell me that this took place at her house! Uncle Miltie was named for the twins)."

LITTLE BOY LOSES LIFE IN THE BAYOU-

"Body Is Recovered Shortly After the Accident by the Mother. Little Milton Blackman lost his life in the bayou, near the Blackman home across the river, Monday afternoon. The body was recovered a short time after the accident by the mother, who, but for the timely arrival of her husband, would have thrown herself into the river. The boy was one of the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Blackman and had wandered to the water while his mother was attending to the chickens.

As soon as he was missed, Mrs. Blackman rushed to the house expecting to find him there. From there the members of the family separated for the search. The mother followed the little footprints to the water's edge and found where Milton had slipped in and she soon discovered the body floating with the face out of water but life was extinct."

Vows Exchanged At Home Ceremony

At a late afternoon wedding at 5 o'clock Sunday Miss Lois Sellers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sellers, became the bride of Milton Blackman of Portland. Rev. Guy L. Drill performed the ceremony at the Sellers home in North church street in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The rooms were attractively decorated with spring flowers.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Guy L. Drill sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Eldon Kinton.

The bride was attractive in a blue silk dress. Her bouquet consisted of Rapture roses, pink sweet peas, daisies and forget-me-nots.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sellers, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony. The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of daffodils and spirea guarded by yellow tapers. Assisting in the serving were Miss Kathryn Sharpnack, Miss Gladys Ross and Miss Mary Ross.

The couple will make their home in Portland where Mr. Blackman is connected with the Artcraft Linoleum and Shade company.

Mrs. Blackman attended Salem schools and Behnke-Walker business college. She has been employed by the First National bank in Portland.

Notes: From lengthy records on the Find A Grave records of his parents:

The family story is that the first Blackman was a British soldier in the Revolutionary War under General Cornwallis. After the war, he returned to the new U.S. to live.

Warren's paternal grandfather, Zenas Blackman, was a corporal in the 8th Minnesota Regiment, Co. D., who died at age 31 at Fort Pomme de Terre, Grant Co. MN, killed by Dakota Native Americans in the Dakota Conflict of 1863 (F: 41738809). Zenas's son Lester did not like the man his mother married after his father died. The family moved from SD to MT in 1895, with Lester & his son Warren driving a covered wagon. Lester's children Gertrude, Ellen & Wayne came on the train with their mother Lottie. Lester then rowed his family across the river in a rowboat. When his wife Lottie reached her new dugout home, she sat down & cried. The couple had 11 children, 3 of whom died young.
