19 Years Ago Today

(From Record-Chronicle, Feb. 10, 1918)

The Normal College basketball team broke even with the Decatur Baptist College quintet in Saturday's games on the latter's court, winning the first game in the afternoon 41 to 30 and losing the second at night by the score of 32 to 14. The Denton line-up was Graham and Strong, forwards; Deaton, center; Meador and Newton, guards.

George E. Vaught and E. W. Balentine, two Denton boys aboard the liner Tuscania when it was sunk last Thursday off the Irish coast by a German U-Boat, are safe, but Robert E. L. Hickey, another Denton boy, and Milton Brown of Pilot Point are among the missing reported by the War Department Sunday. R. A. Davis and Jas. F. Sparkman of Frisco, who lived near the Denton-Collin County line, are also included in the missing list given out by the War Department. There were at least two former North Texas Normal College students on the Tuscania—James T. Gore of Fred, Hardin County, and H. A. Perryman, of Forrestburg, Montague County.

Horse Aids Victim Pinned Under Log

ST. MARIES, Idaho, April 8.—Ed Balentine of St. Maries is confined to the St. Maries hospital with a leg broken in a logging accident yesterday about 10 miles south of St. Maries.

While logging with his horse, a log rolled on him, pinning him down. He managed to maneuver his horse in a position to pull the log from his leg.

He then unhitched his horse and crawled a half mile to the highway. A passing motorist brought him to the hospital.

MR. R. H. BALLENTINE

Mr. R. H. Ballentine, a prominent farmer of Lauderdale, of the Cypress Inn neighborhood, died last Friday at St. Thomas's hospital in Nashville, where he had been for several days for treatment, and where everything was done that was possible to stay the ravages of an intestinal disease.

The body was brought to Florence Sunday afternoon and taken to Cypress Inn. On account of high water in the creek there it was impossible to get to the family home, and the funeral services were held at the home of a neighbor, followed by interment in the local cemetery.

Mr. Ballentine was the father of Mr. W. B. Ballentine, a member of the force of the Florence postoffice, who was called to Nashville on the receipt of the sad news of his father's death. The deceased is survived by his wife, and eight sons and one daughter.

FARMER KILLS MAN ATTACKING HIM WITH GUN

WAYNESBORO, Tenn., July 6.—(Special.)—Tom Ballentine, 25, was shot and killed by Taylor Martin, 34, a farmer, Saturday at Martin's home, three miles out of Collinwood, while in the act of assaulting Martin with a shotgun. During a quarrel earlier in the day he had cut Martin severely about the head, it is stated, but not until later in the day, when he made another attack on Martin, was Ballentide shot.

Following the killing, Martin went to the home of Deputy Sheriff L. O. Lindsey and gave himself up. After a hearing before a justice of the peace, Martin was released on $2,000 bond until the preliminary trial next Friday.

So far as is known, no malice had existed on Martin's part. Ballentine had spent Friday night at Martin's home. After breakfast Saturday morning Ballentine is said to have become enraged at DeWitt Kelly, a boy employed by Martin, and tried to shoot him. Martin interfered, and Ballentine is said then to have threatened to kill Martin.

About noon, Ballentine is said to have made the attack on Martin with a shotgun, following which the tragedy occurred.
