Conscripts Seek Entrance In Company M Too Late

"Too late; you can not enter now," were the fateful words spoken to the conscripts who attempted this morning to enter the ranks of the volunteers who make up Company M as the officers are not allowed to receive any man who has received his notification to appear before the exemption board for examination. In addition to these applications there were others, eight of whom were examined and accepted by the company.

by the company.

Two Racine men, Harry M. Larsen and Paul Race, came to Kenosha to enlist because there is at the present time no company forming in our neighboring city and the recruits want to get into the service as soon as possible.

One hundred and thirty strong, the soldiers are still hopeful that twenty more will volunteer before the orders come to break camp and entrain for the camp. The excellent quarters now accorded the "Sammies" and the cheerful news from Camp Douglas has gone far in helping with the recruiting of the past week.

Mark 30th Year For Company M

Thirty years ago this morning, Company M, Fourth Wisconsin Infantry, marched through Kenosha to the railway station and embarked on a trip from which many never returned.

Company M was the first infantry unit to be furnished by Kenosha during the war, although a cavalry troop, later converted to an artillery battery under Capt. John S. Coney, had left previously. The company was recruited personally by its company commander, Captain Ed Dayton, after other recruiters had given up the attempt as impossible.

The company trained at Camp Douglas, Wisconsin, Camp MacArthur, Texas, and Camp Merritt, New Jersey, before beginning its eighteen months of combat service at the front in France. In addition to Capt. Dayton, it was staffed by Lieutenants Asbury H. Vale and Francis A. Singer.

Part of the company sailed to Europe on the liner Tuscania which was torpedoed and sunk en route. Cpl. Arthur Junker was lost in this action, one of Kenosha's first casualties.

Roster of Veterans

The final muster of the men who made up the Kenosha unit prior to its departure was released today by Capt. Dayton and is reprinted here as a tribute to their service.

Five Generation Replies

A couple of responses came in this week to last Saturday's query regarding the five generation family in the area with the oldest youngest member.

Mrs. Violet Sloan of Shannon tells us she is in the middle of a family that is a five generation family thrice over. Each of her three sons has a child about nine years old. The sons and their fifth generation offspring are: David and Denise of Pearl City; Capt. James and Jennifer of Clear, Alaska; and Murray and Anthony of Freeport. Mrs. Sloan's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Wagner, 102, of Aledo is at the top of the five generation pyramid.

We also learned that Mrs. Frances Anderson of Freeport is the matriarch of a family that has a 17-year-old in the fifth generation. The other generations are her daughter, Mrs. Ivy Bollon of Freeport; Mrs. Bollon's son, Albert of Freeport; his daughter, Mrs. Robert (Janice) Bryant of Warren; and her daughter, Mrs. George (Pam) Cusimano of Freeport.

Mrs. Frances Anderson, 94, of Freeport is the oldest member of the six generations. Mrs. Anderson is the baby's great - great - great - grandmother.

Others in the chain are Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Mrs. Ivy Bollon of Freeport, the great - great - grandmother, Mrs. Bollon's son, Albert of Freeport, the great - grandfather, his daughter, Mrs. Robert (Janice) Bryant of Warren, the grandmother, and her daughter, Mrs. Cusimano.
