MORE SURVIVORS OF THE TUSCANIA ARE ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The war department last night announced the names of 44 additional soldiers who were rescued from the torpedoed liner Tuscania and that of one other man listed as missing, who, it has developed, was not on the ship.

Those not previously accounted for include:

Second Lieutenant Richard Warren, Waltham, Mass., and Privates Clarence H. Bradshaw, Haverhill, Mass., and George R. V. Cary, Springfield, Mass.

Edgar H. Taber, Providence, R. I., was also saved.

Only 74 American soldiers are now unaccounted for. Included in that number are the 33 unidentified dead buried on the Scottish coast.

"Fall River (MA) Globe" Wednesday 20 Feb 1918 p 10

BOYS SANG AS TUSCANIA SANK

Bradshaw Saved Rifle, His Pal the Flag

HAVERHILL, March 9.—The American soldiers on the Tuscania, which was torpedoed off the Irish coast, sang "Pack Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag and Smile, Smile, Smile," while the vessel was sinking, writes Clarence H. Bradshaw, one of the survivors, in a letter to his father, William A. Bradshaw of 45 Kingsbury avenue, Bradford district, received this afternoon.

Bradshaw, who is a member of the Sixth Battalion, 20th Engineers, says that he saved the only rifle from the ship and that his companion rescued the Stars and Stripes just as it was about to sink beneath the waves. He and his pal, who saved the flag, had their pictures taken together and will appear in the movies, which will be shown in the United States, he says.

SHOE WORKERS' UNION ALTERS CONSTITUTION

Protective Added 2000
Members in Year

Bay State Workers Prominent in Rochester Convention

Special Dispatch to the Globe

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Complexities in its constitution as a result of its merger two years ago with the United Shoe Workers of America, were ironed out today at the annual convention of the Shoe Workers Protective Union of America here at the Powers Hotel.

Many important amendments were adopted.

Sec. Daniel F. Fitzgerald of Haverhill, Mass., in his annual report, says the Union gained 2000 members and organized two important locals, one in Newark, N. J., and another in Brooklyn, during the last 12 months. The finances of all locals and the national body are in a healthy condition, he said. The Protective now controls 11,000 shoe workers.

Pres. John D. Nolan's report contained a number of recommendations, including one for increased appropriations for organization work. He stressed the importance of the union in stabilizing competitive conditions in the shoe industry. There is no conflict with A. F. of L. shoe workers' unions, he maintained.

Ellsworth Melanson of Salem, Mass., was chairman of today's sessions. Joseph J. Hanlon of Haverhill was vice chairman. Hanlon and Melanson are members of the constitution committee and Katherine Forsyth of Haverhill is serving as its secretary. Anna Bergeron and Thomas F. Collins of Haverhill are members of the grievance committee.

COURT LAYS BAN ON UNION'S FUNDS

Shoe Workers' Protective
Head Is Enjoined

Writ Affects District Council 10 A
of Haverhill in Suit Here

A temporary injunction was issued by Judge Qua in the Suffolk Superior Court yesterday, restraining John D. Nolan, general president of the Shoe Workers' Protective Union, from disposing of any property or funds of District Council 10A of Haverhill, except dues collected since Dec 10 last and dues to be collected. The injunction was granted on the petition of Clara Horsfall, Elizabeth Kelley, Mae B. Patriquen, Masie Manning, Eleanor M. (Mother) Rooney, Sarah T. Nabgle, Katherine Forsyth, Yvonne LaMere and Marion Smith.

In the bill on which the court took action yesterday Attorney Lowell A. Mayberry, counsel for the women, said that there are two notes, one for $1500 and one for $7500, in possession of Nolan. Attorney Frederick W. Mansfield, counsel for the latter, says there is no foundation in fact for that remark.

A cross bill has been brought against the women by Nolan. In this he asserts they have failed to obey the rules of the union and have caused considerable trouble as a result. Edward M. Dangle, as master, will hear issues in the case beginning Monday, to determine the facts and report back to the court for final action.
