TX Death Certificate: d. Instantly on 16 May 1933 of accidental gunshot wound, inquest held. In Mills Co. TX. Married. Informant: Mrs. W.C. Brady. Born 29 Jan 1892 Burnet Co. TX. Age in years hard to read: should read 41, (looks like 46 or 48) years, 3 months, 19 days. Father: W.C. Brady, birthplace unknown. Mother's name & birthplace unknown.

GOLDTHWAITE, May 17.—William Brady, 50, farmer, was killed accidentally when a gun he was carrying was discharged as he climbed through a wire fence Tuesday.

If age 50, born ca. 1883 – “Fort Worth (TX) Star-Telegram” Wednesday 17 May 1933 p 14

“Victoria (TX) Advocate” Wednesday 17 May 1933 p 4

“Wichita (KS) Eagle” Thursday 1 Jun 1933 p 2

A FATAL ACCIDENT

The lifeless body of W. C. Brady was found at a cross fence between the Newman and Long farms in Center Point community Tuesday morning. Indications were that Mr. Brady, having carried a target along with him on a hunt had tried to cross the fence when the gun exploded, the bullet entering the lower extremity of the abdomen and extended upward, resulting in his death. The body was laid to rest in the Williams Ranch cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

GALLUP MAN PROBABLY A TUSCANIA SURVIVOR

One of the survivors from the Tuscania, torpedoed by a German submarine, may be a Gallup man. In the list of men who are in a hospital on the Irish coast, given last night by the Associated Press, is that of William C. Brady. His address was not given. A Gallup man of the same name enlisted in the Twentieth engineers, some of whom were aboard the Tuscania.

“Albuquerque (NM) Journal” Sunday 10 Feb 1918 p 6

Ariz., also is listed among the missing.

Fourteen Among Survivors.

Lee O. Christensen of Fairview is the Utah soldier reported yesterday as among the survivors.

Thirteen other intermountain men were listed as having survived the disaster.

Those from Montana are Walter P. Damef, Kalispel; Sydney H. Griggs, Stearns; Ralph S. Graves, Missoula; David George Hurtleoff, Butte; Willard O. Hall, Butte, and Fred Kristenson, Livingston.

Those from Idaho are Pertle F. Linder, Indian Valley; Basil G. Bailey, Tensed; Edward H. Barker, Coeur d'Alene, and Mandeville S. Black, Melba.

The other survivors from the intermountain country are William C. Brady, Gilbert, Ariz.; Raymond Howard Eager, Elko, Nev., and Paul Lawrence, Powell, Wyo.

Joseph D. Basy, Kalispel, Mont.; Clarence W. McCollim, Cascade, Mont., and Aime Van Den Driessche, Stevensville, Mont., were reported as among the rescued whose names do not appear on the war department passenger list of the Tuscania. Thirty-three other soldiers from other states without the intermountain country were included on this list of survivors.

RESIGNED AS CHAIRMAN

At a meeting of the City Council Monday night, James Gray, who has been chairman of the Board tendered his resignation as chairman.

Mr. Gray was elected at the spring election two years ago and served as chairman until his resignation Monday night. It is said that friction between the Chief of Police, Cleve Tolleson, and the Mayor had developed and to avert any further trouble or misunderstanding, Mr. Gray tendered his resignation.

Mr. Gray has made a good chairman of the City Council and has always worked for what he thought was the best interests of Stroud. Dr. B. C. Medlin will probably succeed Mr. Gray as chairman and should make a good presiding officer, as he has been in Stroud for the past seven years and is well acquainted with conditions in the city.

Mr. Tolleson will continue to act as chief of police. He has made a good officer and is acceptable to a big majority of the business men of Stroud.

STILL A BRAVE MAN

The years mean nothing to Robert M. Anderson, Civil war veteran of the Copan neighborhood, who is believed to have the distinction of being the oldest man to ever apply for a marriage license in Washington county. Anderson, who is 87 years old, started on his fifth matrimonial venture yesterday afternoon when he was granted a license at the courthouse to marry Mrs. Amanda Cron, 59, of Coffeyville, Kan., The couple's combined ages total 146 years. Anderson's former wives are dead.

Her mother Amanda Cron lived in Coffeyville KS in 1932 – “Bartlesville (OK) Examiner-Enterprise” Friday 29 Jul 1932 p 1

OBITUARY

Death of B. H. Ponder

B. H. Ponder, for seven years a resident of Phoenix, died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital. He is survived by three sisters and four brothers residing in the east, his widow, Mrs. Emma Ponder of this city, four daughters, Mrs. D. F. Holland, who has lived in the east for some time; Mrs. J. C. Dolly of El Paso, Texas; Mrs. C. C. Schroeder of Douglas and Mrs. C. S. Neese of this city, and three small children living at home.

Since his residence in Phoenix, Mr. Ponder has acquired a wide circle of friends. He was a member of the Baptist church, where he had been an ardent worker. He was also a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. Prior to coming to Phoenix, Mr. Ponder was a skilled patternmaker in wood, and during his residence here he has installed woodwork in several of the handsomest buildings in the city.

Pending the receipt of word from relatives in the east, funeral arrangements have not been made.

WEDDING IS SURPRISE—When Richard L. Brewer, stenographer for The Republican left the office of The Republican yesterday morning announcing that he would be gone but a few minutes, he was a single man. An hour later he returned a benedict. Miss Mayme Ponder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ponder, recent arrivals here from Arkansas, is his bride. After the wedding, Mrs. Brewer went back to the home of her parents and Mr. Brewer resumed his work in the office. Last evening his bride met him and together they went out to the Ponder home to receive the parental blessing. Mr. and Mrs. Ponder were surprised but they received their new son-in-law with open arms. Friends of the couple tendered them an impromptu reception last evening at the bride's home.

FIFTH GENERATION OF THE BREWER FAMILY

Mayme Evelyn Brewer Arrives Completing Long Family Line.

With the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brewer yesterday forenoon of a hale and hearty nine pound baby girl who was named and renamed before evening, the fifth living generation of the Brewer family was inaugurated. It was a most auspicious occasion in the Richard Brewer family for besides starting a new generation it was the first occasion when Brewer began to realize the responsibilities resting upon a father.

Just about one year ago Brewer, who then was and still is one of the best stenographers that ever worked for The Republican, asked Miss Mayme Ponder to become his wife. Miss Ponder was willing and before either her family or Brewer's fellow employees knew what was transpiring the knot had been tied. And then Dick settled down to become the ideal husband. In the year that has about intervened he has succeeded in more ways than one.

It is not likely that there are many other families in Arizona that can point out five living generations. The little woman who arrived yesterday can some day inform the general public that she once had a great-great-grandmother. Over in Morenci lives Mrs. Caroline Aguirre, aged 109 years and probably the oldest woman in Arizona. She is Mayme Evelyn Brewer's great-great-grandmother. Mrs. Aguirre lives with her daughter, Mrs. Caroline A. Campbell, aged 68 years. Mrs. A. D. Brewer, a daughter of Mrs. Campbell, lives at Ray Arizona. Richard Brewer, a son of Mrs. A. D. Brewer is the fourth generation representative and the fifth is his daughter who arrived yesterday. Already Dick and Mrs. Dick are planning a trip to Morenci with Dick's mother, of course taking along the baby and then there will be a reunion the like of which has seldom been seen in Arizona and is not often seen anywhere in the world.

ASKS DECREE—Mayme Brewer has applied for a divorce decree from R. L. Brewer. There is one child, Evelyn, aged three years. They were married on February 24, 1913.

Dan Cupid Has Office Number

That marriage is contagious and that the entire plant of the Arizona Republican is infected, was again demonstrated Saturday, June 2d, when Carroll Spotswood Neese, for about one year a member of the news composing room force of this paper, and Mayme E. Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ponder, of 341 West Adams street, were married at the residence of Rev. George R. Varney, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The wedding was a quiet affair, only Mr. and Mrs. Platner and Troy Bradley, of The Republican business office, being present.

Shortly after coming to The Republican force, Mr. Neese became acquainted with the young woman who last evening became his bride. Their acquaintance ripened into love which culminated in their wedding. Both the young people have a host of friends in this city who extend congratulations and good wishes.

Carroll Neese is the son of our fellow-townsmen, W. C. Neese. He came here when a young boy and attended the Safford Public School. For several years he was a member of THE GUARDIAN force.

THE GUARDIAN joins with the friends of Mr. Neese in wishing him and his lovely bride a happy wedded life.

Carroll Neese and Wife Here from Indianapolis

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll S. Neese arrived here Tuesday evening from Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., where Mr. Neese, who was a private in Company F, 138th Engineers, was discharged from the U. S. Army after four months' service. They will visit here for several weeks with Mr. Neese's father, W. C. Neese, and sister, Mrs. Anna McCollum.

Carroll was an apprentice in THE GUARDIAN office, several years ago, later going to Prescott, where he worked on the Journal-Miner, becoming an expert machine operator. Leaving the Miner, he went to Phoenix and worked in the composing room of the Republican for several years and then accepted a position with the McNeill Co., where he was employed when he was called to the colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Neese will return to Phoenix about January 1st, and Mr. Neese will return to his old position at McNeill's.

Carroll S. Neese

DOUGLAS — Mr. Carroll S. Neese, 89, retired linotype operator for the Douglas Dispatch, died in his home at Colorado Springs, Colo., Monday. Funeral services will be conducted in his home tomorrow.

Mr. Neese was born in Kearney, Neb., and worked for the Douglas Dispatch from 1923 until his retirement in 1955. He was a member of the Masons, Elks Lodge, American Legion, and the Printers' Union.

His only surviving relative is his sister, Mrs. Anna MacCollum, 917 14th St., Douglas.

PHOENIX COUPLE MARRIES ON COAST

Most interesting news has just been received of the marriage last week in Los Angeles of Miss Mayme Neese and Joe Nygren, both of this city. The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the Hotel Clark in the presence of only a few friends.

Both the bride and groom are well known and popular among the young people of Phoenix where they have lived for a number of years, Mr. Nygren having just recently disposed of the Ramona drug store of which he was owner.

After spending the summer in California, Mr. and Mrs. Nygren will return to this city, where Mr. Nygren will re-engage in the drug business.

MRS. GIESEKE WEDS SOLDIER OF FRANCE

Word has been received here of the marriage in El Paso, Texas, of Mrs. Clara E. Gieseke to J. C. Dolley. The ceremony was performed by Judge W. D. Howe, of the 34th Judicial District of Texas on August 22.

Mrs. Gieseke will be remembered as the daughter of Mrs. B. H. Ponder, 241 W. Adams street.

Mr. Dolley is the son of H. C. Dolley automobile manufacturer and wine producer of Paris, France. Owing to wounds he received on the Marne and at Verdun, he is a temporarily discharged soldier of the French army.

After an extended tour of the east, Mr. and Mrs. Dolley will return to Arizona.

JAIL THEFT PAIR AFTER GUN BATTLE

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—(UP)—Two men were arrested today as the climactic episode of a gun battle between two sheriff's deputies and five suspected avocado thieves in a grove near Whittier.

The suspects, Wilfred Rosecrans, 39, suffering from buckshot wounds in leg and ribs, and Jack Ponder, 39, were captured a short time after the gang dispersed before the blasts of the officers' guns. They were charged with suspicion of grand theft of avocados and assault with a deadly weapon.

According to Deputies John Robbe and Ray Gregg of the Norwalk substation, the quintet appeared in two automobiles while the deputies were standing watch over several sacks of avocados. They opened fire and fled when the officers commanded them to surrender.

Final Jury Case Being Heard In District Court

The case of L. F. Gray vs. Ralph Z. Nelson was being heard in district court here today by a jury and Judge Victor Westermarck. The case, a damage suit against Nelson for balance allegedly due for repair of a roof on his business house, was opened this morning.

Yesterday, in the only other jury trial of the September court session, Chester Wilshusen, alias C. C. Wilson, was found guilty of breaking and entering with intent to steal. Sentence will be made later.

Wilshusen was involved in the burglary of Rutt's liquor store April 27, 1946. Police said he and another man attempted to steal 19 cases of whiskey, valued at more than $750. The other man, Jack B. Ponder, was arrested at the scene of the crime and committed to California prison authorities. Wilshusen, having fled at that time, was not located until July of this year in Pennsylvania.

He was bound over to district court on $1,000 bond after a preliminary hearing in county court in July.

Forger Fakes Pump Firm Pay Checks

Business establishments throughout the Pomona area were placed on the alert today for a forger passing fake payroll checks of the Pomona Pump plant of Fairbanks Morse & Co.

Police said that no such checks have been reported cashed yet in Pomona, but that the forger has victimized stores in the Ontario, San Bernardino and Riverside districts.

One cashed yesterday at the San Bernardino store of the Gaytime Shops of California bore the signature of Charles B. Haymes and was endorsed by Jack B. Ponder, as the payee.

Police pointed out that the check was made out on a printed form and drawn on the Bank of America for the amount of $49.32.

Bond paper was used in faking the payroll check and the amount was written in by typewriter, without use of a check protector, but the check number and the date were inserted by rubber stamp.

Police urged close scrutiny of such checks wherever they appear, in broadcasting a forgery warning all over the Southland in an effort to pick up the suspect (possibly a man and woman team) before merchants incur extensive losses.

Two Californians were placed in the Oklahoma City jail Saturday night on charges of forgery and for investigation after officers found a portable printing press and bogus checks in their downtown hotel room.

Jack Benjamin Ponder, 38, Los Angeles, was arrested by W. L. Pickney, detective, and Harold Hooper, private investigator, as he walked along W Main in the 300 block. He was recognized from a picture. Amarillo, Texas officers had reported several bogus industrial payroll checks made to a Jack B. Ponder.

Pickney said a payroll check for $49.32 on a city engine and equipment company was in the man's wallet. The check was signed by "Charles B. Haymes"—the same signature and sum on the checks reported from Amarillo.

The officers immediately checked city hotels for his registration but found none. Examining his clothing, they found the name "Allen."

A check of hotels revealed a Mr. and Mrs. R. Allen, Phoenix, Ariz., registered in one. A hotel employee identified the man from his picture.

Officers found a woman there who, they said, admitted she was Mrs. Ponder. Also they found nine pieces of luggage—one of which contained a portable printing press, rubber stamps, printing type and a large assortment of printed payroll checks.

Pickney reported Ponder admitted he was wanted on forgery charges in Los Angeles.

Forgery Charged Here Against California Pair

A portable printing press found by police in the Oklahoma City hotel room of a Los Angeles couple led Monday to charges of forgery against both of them.

Ruth Olga Ponder, 37, and her husband, Jack Benjamin Ponder, 38, were charged with passing a $35.55 bogus check at the Book Center, 106 NW 1, Saturday.

Couple Admits Passing Checks All Across U.S.

Youngsters Nabbed Here; Tell Of Wide Travels

City Detective Mallory Tennant said Monday he ended a racket in which worthless checks have been passed on merchants all the way from California to Florida when he arrested a young couple in Pensacola Saturday.

The couple, Robert B. Allen, 19, and Neoma Lorene Allen, who gave her age as 14, were arrested by Tennant in local stores Saturday afternoon.

In telling how he happened to make the arrest, Tennant said he received a call at the police station Saturday that a girl had attempted to cash a check in Rita's to buy a coat, but that while she looked at the coat the manager called the bank about her check. When she saw the manager talking on the phone, the girl went out of the store leaving the check, Tennant said.

The couple then left Pensacola in the auto, which later was identified as the property of Dr. Jerome W. Shilling, 2401 Ronda Vista drive, Los Angeles, Calif., according to Tennant's report. They traveled about six miles toward Fort Walton and then decided to return to Pensacola, where they were registered at a tourist court. On the second visit in Pensacola, Mrs. Allen was seen going north on Palafox by, and following the tip, Tennant went into Butler's shoe store in time to arrest her as she was paying for a purchase with a check made on the First bank and Trust company.

MAKES CHECK GOOD

At about 4 p.m. Tennant received a call that Allen was attempting to make good a check his wife had passed at Lerner's Dress shop, and the detective went to the store and arrested Allen.

At the time he was arrested, Allen had $213 in cash on his person and a book of checks from the First Bank and Trust company, some of which he had already made out to Lorene Allen and signed with his name.

When questioned by Detective R. F. Shuttleworth, he said the couple told him they had previously traveled from Los Angeles to Miami, back to Oakland, Calif., and were again on their way to Miami when they were apprehended in Pensacola. They were indefinite about the number of worthless checks they had passed, but said that they had made out one to four in each town they visited, usually for about $20. Their practice was to go into a bank and take several blank checks. Then Allen would make them out to his wife, who would go into shops, make a small purchase and get the remainder of the check in cash, Tenant said.

QUARTER MILLION

Allen told Tennant he must have cashed a quarter of a million dollars worth of checks, the detective said. Loot obtained in the manner described was stacked in the detective bureau Monday afternoon and consisted of a gun, clothing, shoes, slippers, clocks, watches, linens allegedly stolen from tourist camps and numerous other items, Tennant said.

Allen told the police he was a deserter from the U. S. Army, having deserted Oct. 19, after enlisting Aug. 29. He had papers to show that he was given an honorable discharge from the Navy on July 28. He and Mrs. Allen were married in Reno, Nev., on June 16.

Tennant said he has reason to believe the two are connected in some way with Jack Benjamin Ponder who recently was sentenced to seven years in the Oklahoma state penitentiary for making bogus checks on 11 different firms and passing them in 27 different cities.

SAME NAME

When Ponder was arrested he gave his name as Robert Allen, and some of his clothing was marked, "Allen," Tennant said. Oklahoma authorities found a portable printing press, type, rubber stamps and other equipment used in making phoney checks in Ponder's hotel room.

Federal bureau of investigation officials are looking into the case, Assistant Chief George M. White said Monday.

SAID MONDAY.

White said. Allen has a previous record, explaining the young man was sentenced to three years in prison for an auto theft in Upper Lakes, Calif. The youth served a year, four months and six days of the sentence and then was placed on parole, Chief White said.

Signed statements made by the couple in which they admitted the offenses indicated that Tennant had brought to an end what appears to have been a coast-to-coast cleanup in which innumerable merchants were victimized.

Maybe?

The Brady pool, located in 1-34-12 northeast of Independence, is showing up well in the new sand at 500 feet deep. Another well was brought in by Mr. Brady on the Ira Ryan farm last week. While this well is said to be somewhat lighter than the other three, it probably will be a good producer. There are four wells that are now producing in the pool. One on the Ryan farm, which is the north half of the northeast quarter of the section, is about two months old and is making about forty barrels a day. There are three wells on the Ira Ryan farm, which is the south half of the northeast quarter. Wills and others are drilling on the L. Garr farm, which is the south half of the southeast quarter of 1-34-13. At present the contractors have a finishing job.

Listed as S.E. Fullen when he sailed on Tuscania Jan 1918 & as Emma Fuller when he returned from war in May 1919

It is unclear if she married William's father (W.C. Brady). Her son William Conroy Brady was apparently born 29 Jan 1885 and she married Benjamin Hyatt Ponder 1 Nov 1885. In the 1910 census, Sarah Fuller states she is in her 1st marriage & has given birth to 8 children, 7 of whom are living: Her son Jonnie had died & listed in the census were Beulah, Mary/Mamie, Henrie, Clara, Adolph, Myrtice & "baby son" [unnamed, but Jack], This list would not include William C. Brady.

Obtained a marriage license 30 Oct 1885 & married 1 [or 17] Nov 1885 in Tyler, Smith TX to Benjamin Hyatt Ponder. [records differ]

Benjamin died 7 Aug 1919.

Less than 3 months later, on 5 Nov 1919, Sarah Ponder married Charles Gilbert Fuller in Phoenix, Maricopa AZ.

In 1950, Emma Fuller resided in Pasadena, Los Angeles CA with her divorced son Donald A. (born Adolph) & his daughter, Bette E. Ponder (14 CA).

Spouse? In the 1930 census, William reported he was age 18 at the time of his 1st marriage. If he was born in 1885, that computes to the year 1900. If he was born in 1892, that computes to the year 1910. Either date would precede his wartime marriage to Hortense Suzanne Quillacq in France.

Spouse: Hortense Suzanne/Susanna Quillacq (Quilliacq) Brady, 12 Aug 1897 Laluque, Landes, Aquitaine, France – 13 Sep 1977 Mauléon-Licharre, Pyrénées-Atlantiques, France. Daughter of Justin (or Pierre) Quillacq & Valerine Lagouadet. Appears to have used the name Suzanne.

Emergency passport application filed by Hortense Suzanne Brady from the American Consulate in Bordeaux, France, to the U.S. Embassy in Paris, France. US citizen [apparently by marriage to a citizen]. Born 12 Aug 1897 Laluque, Landes, Frances. Husband William C. Brady of Burnett TX, who is now residing at Captieux, Gironde, France. Her legal domicile Laluque, Landes, Frances. Permanent residence will be in Phoenix AZ. She has never been to the US previously. Was a resident of France from birth until present. Wants to remain a US citizen within 4 months or when passport issued. She is age 21, 5'2". William C. Brady swears he is a native US citizen, resident of Phoenix AZ. Has known her 1 year "and she is my lawful wife." Sworn to on 12 May 1919. Produced identifying documents of marriage certificate of husband as a matter of record at this consulate. Submitted Service Record/certifying him as to birth at Burnett, Texas. Letters from husband's commanding officer showing as to necessity for Mrs. Brady to obtain a passport. Passport issued 24 May 1919.

Hortense Brady (also indexed as Hertense Brady), of France, left Bordeaux, France, on the SS "Chicago" on 6 Oct 1919, arriving in NYC on 18 Oct 1919. US citizen heading to Brownwood TX. Father: Justin Quillacz [sic/Quillacq]. She is heading to her husband Mr. Brady in Brownwood TX. Hortense's age is blurry, indexed as 20 but more likely 22. Hortense's occupation: dressmaker. Born Laluque, France. "Mrs. Brady married – Superior of Sacred Heart Convent." "American by marriage." "Wife of soldiers" -

Accompanied by Berthe Quillacq, 26, single, dressmaker, b. Laluque, France, apparently her sister. Berthe heading to brother-in-law Mr. Bary [sic] in Brownwood TX. Bertha intends to stay in US for 6 months. They are listed on separate manifests, since Hortense Quillacq Brady is a US citizen by marriage but Berthe Quillacq is an alien.

Spouse Find A Grave:

Marriage: according to France marriage record, married 9 Mar 1918 – William Conroy Brady & Suzanne Quillacq, in Laluque, Landes, France. This would seem rather hurried considering William is still in a hospital in Ireland in mid-Feb 1918 following the sinking of Tuscania.
