87848—Clara M Knight v Garfield Knight,
divorce, desertion—David Congrave

"San Francisco Recorder" Wednesday 20 Feb 1918 p 1

L. A. WOMAN IS DENIED DECREE

Judge Graham Resents Misuse of Local Courts.

"I see no reason why San Francisco should be made the dumping ground of divorce actions from Los Angeles or any other place," said Superior Judge Graham today in denying Mrs. Clara M. Knight, 1828 Leavenworth street, a decree of divorce from Garfield Knight.

Mrs. Knight is a native of Los Angeles and married Garfield Knight there eight years ago. The husband is the Los Angeles buyer for the Fred Harvey eating houses. She came to San Francisco about four months ago and after establishing legal residence brought suit for divorce, charging desertion.

On the stand today she admitted her only purpose in coming to San Francisco was to secure a divorce without the publicity and embarrassment that would have followed such action in Los Angeles.

"San Francisco Bulletin" Wednesday 24 Apr 1918 p 3

Lee and Clara were married on 2 Nov 1940 in Yuma AZ. In 1950, their newspaper reports they are celebrating their silver wedding anniversary, which computes to a marriage date in 1925. Were they remarried in AZ in 1940 because of some technicality or were they not legally married in the 1930 census?
