Life:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Out of the war zone today came the names of hundreds of American boys saved from the torpedoed transport Tuscania to ease anxiety in the homes of this country. The names are now being sent across the water in a steady stream and as rapidly being compiled for publication. It was not until the entire list is in will the war department be able to check up and determine those who gave up their lives.

Those thus far announced include:

WIS.

COLFAX

March 13—Mrs. Albert Moseid passed away at her late home on the west side at 11:50 p. m. Monday after a lingering illness from dropsy, resulting in heart failure. The deceased, whose maiden name was Ella Mathilda Brown, was born at Cumberland, Wis., Jan. 31, 1893. On Aug. 26, 1918, she was united in marriage to Albert Moseid of Stephen, Minn., and to them were born two daughters, Eunice and Alberta, the youngest being only about two months old at the time of her mother's demise. Besides these she is survived by husband, father and mother, five brothers and two sisters. The deceased was a member of the local Pentecostal assemblage. The remains were shipped Wednesday to the old family home at Cumberland, where the funeral and interment took place on Friday. Mrs. Moseid was an amiable and genial companion, mother and friend, and will be missed.

Sister Ella Mathilda Brown Moseid (1893-1923) – "Dunn County News" (Menomonie WI) Thursday 15 Mar 1923 p 11

Applications for marriage licenses have been filed by the following at the court house: R. J. Crosby to Mabel E. Shafer, both of the town of Sherman, Gilbert Johnson to Elsie May Taylor, both of the town of Stanton, and Charles Albert Moseid Stephen, Minn., to Mathilda Brown, Cumberland.
