Initiation Highlights OES Meeting

GREEN LAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Ragnar Ahlbom, worthy matron and patron of Green Lake chapter of Order of Eastern Star, presided Tuesday evening as Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buchholz were initiated into the order.

Business included approval of a donation of money to the post-prom party. Mrs. Lucille Rasmussen was named to the planning committee which will meet at the Legion Hall 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 14.

Plans were announced for a ham dinner April 22 at the Masonic Temple. Service will be from 5-7:30 p.m.

Refreshments were served by Mmes. Robert Heiple and Rasmussen, hostesses.

Members were reminded to make reservations with Mrs. Donald Schultz for the dinner at Van Rhyn's preceding the next meeting, April 14.

Badger Youths To Be on Panel

PRINCETON — When the County Council of the American Legion holds its meeting at Kingston Monday, Sept. 14, Princeton's Badger Girl Jane Reetz, and boy Douglas Wick, will take part in a round table discussion made up of other county Badger girls and boys. County commander Roland Duschek of Markesan will moderate the panel. This announcement was made by commander Morris Swed at the Thursday meeting of Princeton's Kasierski-Kozlowski Legion Post.

One hundred per cent membership pins were presented to George Ostrander, past commander, and Clarence Buchholz, past membership chairman, for their efforts in putting the post over the top in the 1970 membership drive. Membership dues for the 1971 year are being accepted by Hilbert Krueger, membership chairman.

Members were informed that Jacob Dugenske is a patient at Veterans Hospital in Madison.

Refreshments were served by Dan Trainer and A. A. Sommerfeldt.

Masonic Groups Merge

Cowling-Buchholz Nuptials—

The marriage of Willard F. Cowling to Miss Leona Buchholz took place at a quiet home wedding at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Buchholz, 471 Wisconsin avenue, at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 29. Rev. W. C. Kurtz was the officiating clergyman. Miss Irene Pletz acted as the bridesmaid, and John Cowling, the groom's brother, acted as best man. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of pale green Canton crepe and had a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a frock of peach colored georgette, with a corsage of pink roses. Among the wedding guests was Mrs. Marie Schmidt, of Wausau, the groom's grandmother.

Following a wedding trip to the northern part of Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Cowling will return to Oshkosh to reside at 623 Tenth street. The groom, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Cowling, is employed at the Hollister garage. Mrs. T. McKone and Mrs. Wayne Merrill entertained in compliment to the bride on June 18, the event being held at the home of the groom's mother. The guest of honor was presented with a set of silver.
