SINKING OF THE TUSCANIA.

Son of Mr. W. B. Bullock of Fairmont

Tells of His Experience on Transport Torpedoed By U-Boat.

The following letter was written to Mr. W. B. Bullock of Fairmont by his son, who was on the transport Tuscania, which was sunk early last month off the coast of Ireland by a German U-boat, more than 100 U. S. soldiers losing their lives:

"Lorne, Ireland,
Feb. 7, 1918.

"Dear Father:

"I am as well and safe as could be expected after what I went through with. I guess you have heard by this time of the perilous voyage of the S. S. Tuscania, which carried the U. S. troops. I was with them, but am safe once more, thank God. I am enjoying myself fairly well, and am going to make the best of it all and take myself through safely so don't worry as for me.

We were on water eleven days when the tide of the Irish sea, English channel and the Atlantic met, which makes a very rough sea, and a deep one. I was waiting with a pal of mine for supper down on lower deck, when we heard a loud cannon-like sound, the report of a torpedo from a German submarine, which did the work. Immediately after she was hit the electric lights went out, and left us in pitch darkness. Then there was scrambling among 2,500 troops to get up on decks, where the life boats were. The fellows seemed to be very cool, so there was no panic. But in the meantime the big boat was listing to one side and sinking. The ropes for lowering the boats were no good and the crew must have been excited, for several life boats loaded with men were dumped over and dropped into the water. I saw lots of boys drowning, some of my own squadron, for all that were assigned to my squadron but one were smashed to pieces.

"I'll tell a man it was awful. At first I thought I had rather stick to the ship for awhile, but she began to sink very fast, and quite a bunch of fellows was still on board. The crew had gone and all the boats were gone, so it seemed that I was out of luck and I was about to give up, when I rushed to one side and spied one life boat filled full of men who had some difficulty in leaving the ship, so here was my last chance for my life, so I grabbed a rope and slid down to it. Gee, but I was relieved!

"I saved one lad's life by telling to leave go of a rope and try to swim to our boat, the last one then threw him an oar and pulled him in. Then we had to get away from the ship very quick, leaving lots of boys begging for help, for the ship was pretty near down. We drifted around in the rough waves until half past eleven, when we were picked up by a patrol ship, which had received the wireless. At that time the sea was getting rough and the breakers were dashing high. When that vessel ran up along side of our little frail craft, it was the gladdest moment of my life. The big husky British sailors pulled us aboard, and then the ship headed for some Irish port, where we landed about 6 o'clock the following morning and received the greatest welcome of our lives by the good Irish people. We were put up in the best hotels of the little city, and it seemed that the people couldn't do enough for us.

"I don't know where we go from here. Out of my squadron of 154 men there are 42 here. I missed some good friends. One of them was my diamond ring, but I should worry for that.

"Well, that is about all my story. Some experience, I tell you.

"Wich love for all.

"Your son."

WAS MOURNED AS DEAD.

Fairmont Boy on Tuscania Floated 2 Days and Nights on Sea.

Wilmington Star.

After being mourned as dead by his relatives at home, a cablegram has been received by his father from Mr. Duncan Bullock, of Fairmont, who was aboard the Tuscania, when it was sunk by a German submarine, that he had been landed safely in Ireland. The war department had sent notice to his relatives that he was among the missing and they had given up all hopes for his recovery.

In his message to his parents, the Fairmont young man stated that he floated on the high seas for two days and nights before he was picked up. His life preserver proved to be true to its name, for he had never learned to swim.

High Class Farm Lands-Nice Large Residential Lots

In and near FAIRMONT, N. C. to be offered at AUCTION
Friday, Sept. 10th. at 10:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.

Mr. W. B. Bullock, a well known citizen of your section has consigned to us to sell for the high dollar what is known as THE JOEL BYRD PLACE located on the main highway from Fairmont to Rowland only two miles west of Fairmont.

This desirable farm contains about 70 acres of which about 50 acres are in a high state of cultivation. The soil is of the very best quality and produces excellent yield of cotton, corn, and tobacco, with the usual forage crops. The wood land is well timbered, and has plenty of wood for the use of the farm.

The buildings on this property consist mainly of two substantial dwellings in good repair with good outbuildings and one tobacco barn.

If you purchase a tract of this land, you have nothing to do except move in and begin life in peace and happiness. This property will be offered for the exclusive high dollar on the day of sale at 10:30 A. M.

AT 3:30 P. M.

On the same date we will offer a number of high class residential lots for the exclusive high dollar.

These lots are located on Main and Stephens Streets, one of the very best residential sections of the thriving town of Fairmont.

Here is the proposition you have been waiting for. Messrs. E. G. Floyd, Helon Mitchell, Pettaway Mitchell, James White, J. O. Bobbitt and J. R. Gibson have consigned this property to us and says sell for the high dollar. You make the price. Look these lots over today and select the ones you wish to purchase. Make the determination now that you are going to build a home; you could hardly find a better site, and the opportunity to purchase in such a desirable place may never come your way again.

Your future happiness may depend on your decision about this matter. Think well over these offerings before you let this excellent chance pass.

Only a little money is required to purchase some of these properties. The farm land will easily pay for itself, and you have the satisfaction of knowing that you do not have to move to a new place every year or two. This is worth a great deal to the average man.

The money you are now paying for rent will take care of the payments on some of the lots, and when the last payment is made you get a deed to show where your money has gone. Under present rent plan you get nothing but a receipt which indicates that so much money has gone to swell some other man's bank account. You will be wise to let the banker handle the money in your name. Are we right?

Text submitted to Find A Grave 13 Feb 2025:

William was married six times.

On 30 September 1886 in Richmond County, North Carolina, he married Mary M. (Mollie) McKenzie, born circa 1867 in North Carolina, died 17 July 1887 in Laurinburg, Scotland County, North Carolina. She was the daughter of John T. McKenzie (Find A Grave 15853787) and Sarah Ann Hasty. Her death was announced in the "Weekly State Chronicle" (Raleigh NC) of Thursday, 28 July 1887, page 1. She died 10 months after their marriage.

On 28 March 1889 in Robeson County, North Carolina. William married Martha Davis (1873-1914). Their 13 children were: Archie Clarence, Joseph Thurman, Albert Roland, Ambrose Vernon, John Bunyan, Mattie Belle, Arva Lucille, Clifford William, Fannie Lee, twins Ralph and Ray Howard, George William and Martha.

On 10 March 1915, William married Bessie McMillan (1880-1977). In May 1916, Bessie sued William for alimony and legal fees. A divorce was granted in Nov 1919. In the 1920 census, William reported he was divorced. Bessie was the daughter of Rev. Dougal Cobb McMillan and Annie Penelope Floyd. Their daughter Elizabeth Bullock was born 15 Aug 1916 in Fairmont Robeson NC. She married Andrew Jackson (Jack) Felton (1916-1980), F:

114671957) and died 2 Nov 2008 in Louisburg NC. She is buried in Eure Christian Church Center, Eure, Gates NC.

On 19 February 1922 in Dillon SC, according to "The Robesonian" (Lumberton NC) of Thursday, 23 February 1922, page 8, William married "Miss Harden," the daughter of Dave Harden of Bloomingdale, This was Navonia Hardin (1886-1925), the daughter of David R. Hardin and Hattie/Hettie Edwards.

Navonia died 28 January 1925, and by September 1925, the Lumberton NC newspaper reported on the activities of Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Bullock. William had married Theatus Viola Harrelson Joyner, whose first husband was Isaac Benjamin Joyner (1880-1958). Viola, as she was known, was the daughter of Jesse James Evander Harrelson and Nancy Jane Jordan. When she died on 3 April 1935 in Robeson County, North Carolina, her obituary in "The Robesonian" (Lumberton NC) of Monday, 8 April 1935, page 3, noted that she had been William Bullock's fifth wife.

Four months later, on 17 August 1935, W.B. Bullock married Altha Aline Forester Barnes in Marion, Marion County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of John T. Forester and Ida Lavonia Pirkle. "Aline," as she was known, was the widow of Norford Simpson Barnes (1866-1928).

Richard Simeon Barnes, the brother of Norford Simpson Barnes, had married William Bullock's daughter, Fannie Lee Bullock, in 1923.

His obituary was published in "The Robesonian" (Lumberton NC) of Tuesday, 26 February 1957, page 4:

Miss Bessie McMillan and Mr. W. R. Bullock of Fairmont Married Here Yesterday.

Yesterday was a busy day for cupid in Lumberton. As will be seen from another news item in today's paper, there was a wedding in Register of Deeds M. W. Floyd's office yesterday morning. Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock Mr. W. B. Bullock and Miss Bessie McMillan, both of Fairmont, were married by Rev. I. P. Hedgpeth at his home, Eighth and Cedar streets. Mr. Bullock is one of South Robeson's most prosperous and highly respected citizens and Mrs. Bullock was one of Fairmont's most highly respected women. They returned to Fairmont immediately after the wedding had taken place and will be at home there to their friends.

his home at Goldsboro.

A case which was decided by Judge Daniels Friday of much interest was that of Mrs. Bessie Bullock vs W. B. Bullock, her husband, in which she was suing him for alimony. She claimed that her husband treated her so bad she could not live with him. Judge Daniels' verdict was that her husband pay her $25 lawyer's fee and $30 per month.

Besides his wife, he is survived by seven children, Misses Doris and Martha Davis McCormick, C. W. McCormick, Jr., Ida Rose, Billie, Jane, and Mary Elizabeth; and nine brothers and sisters, I. J. McCormick of Rowland, M. H. McCormick of Washington, D. C., E. P. McCormick of Chadbourn, R. C. McCormick of Rowland, R. F. McCormick of Tabor City, Mrs. R. B. Gaddy of Dillon, S. # Fairmont Festival Honors Two FAIRMONT — The Civitan club of Fairmont has dedicated its 1956 Fairmont Farmers' Festival, to be held April 17, 18, and 19, to Averette N. Mitchell and Mrs. C. W. McCormick, both born near Fairmont, who have played a part in the development of the community.

Mr. Mitchell born three miles west of Fairmont, April 19, 1881, is the son of the late Quince B. and Catherine Mitchell. He was married to the former Elizabeth Parker and six children were born to the marriage.

Born close to the Reconstruction period, Mr. Mitchell has exerted his efforts to create progress and industry for the community. His main interest is farming, but from there he turned his attention to the development of a tobacco market for Fairmont and he has helped in the building of several large redrying plants and in several warehouses in the town.

From tobacco he turned to cotton having bought cotton on the Fairmont market since 1913.

He has also been active in his church, the First Baptist, and in town activities. A member of the town board for several years, he also served as mayor for several terms.

Mrs. Arva B. McCormick, the daughter of William B. Bullock, and the late Mrs. Martha David Bullock, was born within two miles of Fairmont, and is the mother of seven children.

At her husband's death in 1944, the oldest child was 16 years old and the youngest, three months. Her life since then has been devoted to rearing her family. The Civitan club in dedicating the festival to her names her as "not only a mother of the year but mother of all years".

Mrs. McCormick and Mr. Mitchell will be the honored guests of the Civitan club.

The program of events for the big fiesta in the tobacco town will include a show of exhibits; a dance with Billy May's band providing the music on Wednesday evening; a beauty contest for the title of Miss Fairmont Farmers' Festival, also on Wednesday evening; a big name speaker, Thursday afternoon; a square dance with Slim Mims and His Dream Ranch Boys for the music, Thursday evening; the giving away of $1,000 in major prizes and other minor prizes, throughout the festival; the annual Civitan Minstrel show, Tuesday and Wednesday evening, and of course, a parade Thursday morning. This will be a mile long affair with floats, bands, and other units.

"Robesonian (Lumberton NC) 18 Mar 1918 p2 – letter home (copied above)

“Robesonian (Lumberton NC) 18 Mar 1918 p 3 – Duncan [i.e. Ambrose] Bullock of Fairmont was thought to be dead, until his parents received a cable from him that he had landed safely in Ireland. He floated 2 days & nights on the sea. He never learned to swim, so his lifebelt truly was one. [From the letter that appears in the same issue on the preceding page, it is more likely he floated 2 HOURS, being picked up from his lifeboat around 11 p.m. on 5 Feb 1918. It would have been impossible to live more than 3 hours if he were floating in the water, and lifeboats could not escape the tide & wind that drove them to Islay that evening]
