DECADE HAS PASSED SINCE THE TUSCANIA SANK NEAR IRELAND

New London Survivors Give Disaster Details on Tenth Anniversary

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—With the passing of the tenth year since the sinking of the Tuscania, survivors of that ocean tragedy Sunday recalled the event in which about twenty five men of this city were directly involved, as members of the expeditionary force enroute to France. In that disaster died Corporal Clifford Norris and Corporal William Spencer, in memory of whom the local chapter of the American Legion was named. Surviving relatives are Mrs. Louis Kurszeveski, John Spencer, Oscar Norris, Mrs. John Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Norris, Sr.

Grief of the relatives of Corporal Spencer, who received the news officially Feb. 18, was unsoftened by details which reached the parents in a majority of the cases surrounding the 209 deaths, due to the fact that no details surrounding the manner in which the young soldier met death were ever given. Even the manner in which he died has never been determined and the body was never found. The body of Clifford Spencer, however, was returned to his home here, and buried in the family lot at Manawa. It has annually been decorated by members of the Norris-Spencer Post.

Commander H. A. Borchard of the Legion post stated Sunday that the post colors would fly at half mast on Monday in memory of the heroes, who were first of this community to die in the service of their country during the war.

Survivors of the tragedy from this city or community are: Com. Henry J. Pettigrew, Jacob Schneider, Leland T. Meany, Arthur J. Hanschel, Ralph A. Mayo, Francis Barlow, Laurel J. Conate, Charles P. Foley, Elmer Hebbe, Arthur Otto, John Allen, Archibald Beaudoin, Martin D. Bongers, Byron E. Christian, Harry B. Collar, Frank J. Davis, George Doman, Leonard T. Meshke, George Schoenrock, Arthur L. Steffen, Harvey J. Travers, Martin Winter, Gustave Rollefson, Arthur Gantwell and George Grawvunder.

Memories of the tragic night of Feb. 5, 1919, were reviewed by veterans who were on the ill fated boat at the time it was sunk by a torpedo from the German submarine, UB-77, at 6:45 p. m. Byron Christian, a member of the contingent of Wisconsin men, was perhaps the last person to talk with the two men. According to Mr. Christian, both Norris and Spencer were on life boat duty on an upper deck, thus removed from the remainder of the New London boys. He had been with the two not more than fifteen minutes before the vessel was torpedoed, and recalled the conversation which took place at that time. The two, always pals, had been relating to Mr. Christian, a hunting and trapping trip in the northern woods on which they had become lost. Norris concluded the talk thus:

"Well, Bill, we got out of that scrape together, and if the old ship sinks we'll both go down the same way."

It was shortly after this that with the Scottish coast appearing in a long gray mass, to the port side, and with the welcome sight of land after the long days at sea, that the two torpedoes from the UB-77 were fired. Immediately the vessel began to list, decks and hatchways were crowded with men, lights were extinguished, and there was a chill of fright in the silence. Life boats were launched, but through wreckage and mismanagement, many of them were wrecked in launching. The sea was soon filled with drowning or swimming men, some on rafts, others with or without lifebelts. In boats half filled with water, men sat long weary hours, and it was from exposure that many deaths occurred.

In the village of Buncrana, Scotland, men were billeted in peasant homes, and also in Scotland. Forty-nine men were laid side by side in one grave in Scotland, and a flag was made by four Scottish women of a village that the colors of their own nation might drape the coffins of the dead Americans.

Buncrana is in Ireland, not Scotland – “Appleton (WI) Post-Crescent” Monday 6 Feb 1928 p

Two Legion Posts Named After Tuscania Victims

Memories of the World war that recall the death of three men in this district who have been honored by having American legion posts named after them, will be brought back Monday, Feb. 5, when the National Tuscania Survivors' association meets at Kenosha.

The three men are Corporal Clifford Norris and William B. Spencer, after whom the New London legion post is named, and Sgt. James P. Hawley after whom the Neenah post is named. The three lost their lives in the sinking of the Tuscania.

Only two of the Appleton men on the ship, McKinley Robinson and Arthur J. Hantschel, still live in the city. Others who were residents of Appleton when they went into service and who survived the incident are Eric Galpin, Jacob Schneider, Irwin H. Meldam, Theodore Briggs, Worth Bushey and Paul Van Wyck. Several of the survivors have moved from the city and one or two are dead.

Among other men from this vicinity listed as on the Tuscania in dispatches received a few days after the sinking were Ralph Mayo, New London; Harry B. Collar, Hortonville; George E. Doman, New commander of the destroyer, ordered Petty Officer Jones to take charge of the lifeboats lowered from the Pigeon davits. Men were clamoring for help from the tilting deck of the Tuscania and hundreds more were afloat in the water, clutching anything they could hold. The lifeboat in which Jones was lowered rapidly filled with men picked up from the water, and with the shrieking cries of men asking to be saved, the officer looked around for his ship.

It was gone, due to menace of another torpedo from the enemy submarine.

Seeing several other lifeboats nearby Jones ordered the boat to the vicinity of the others and organized rescue work. Every boat that could pick up another man was soon filled, and Jones found 11 life-boats filled. He shouted encouragement to the men at the oars and with the boats joined in a single chain they pulled away from the scene to avoid being sucked in as the Tuscania finally lifted its stern into the air and with a groan sank under the surface, taking with it scores of men who could not swim away fast enough.

London; Hilding Fagerdahl, Hortonville; Elmer A. Hebbe, New London; Arthur Steffen and Alexander Stewart, Hortonville; Martin Winter, Clintonville; William A. Ruechel, Leeman; Byron E. Christian, Laurel J. Conat, Frank I. Davis, Charles Foley, Archibald Beaudoin, Martin D. Bongers, and Leonard T. Meshke, all of New London; Martin T. Evenson, Manawa, and John C. Barth, Clintonville.

Will Honor Jones

One of the features of this year's meeting of the veterans will be honoring John Newton Jones, now a resident of New York, formerly of the British navy who helped of the British navy who helped rescue a great number of the survivors.

Attached to the Pigeon, British destroyer, Jones was a chief petty officer on Feb. 5, 1918. The Pigeon was part of the escort of the Tuscania as it neared the Irish coast just as day was ending. The torpedo that seemed to come from out of nowhere rising from the depths of the sea dealt its deadly blow to the troop ship and the panic was on.

The Pigeon was one of the first of the escorting squadron to arrive on the scene. Capt. John Eddis, enough.

The exploits of Jones were not at once recognized. Of a retiring nature himself, the officer merely submitted a report later that he had led 210 survivors in 11 lifeboats to safety.

But the men in those lifeboats, many of them Wisconsin war veterans who were saved to go further into the war, did not forget.

The medal to be given Jones at the reunion of the Tuscania survivors in Kenosha Monday night is the fourth such award to come out of that exploit, and the first to be given by the association of survivors.

New London — At an adjourned meeting last night in the city hall council chambers the city council voted unanimously to grant a tavern license to Ralph Buelow, who plans to operate at 104 E. Wolf River avenue. A bartender's license was granted to Archie Beaudoin.

Although the granting of Buelow's license was the reason for calling the special meeting, several other questions were raised by the aldermen present. Chief among these was the matter of examinations for bartenders.

Mayor Lynn Springmire urged that the council pass an ordinance requiring a quarterly physical examination of every licensed bartender in New London. Such an examination, he explained, would be a great safeguard to the customers in New London taverns.

Springmire was seconded by Alderman William Litts, who added that the 17 taverns in the city should be examined periodically. He said that a clause was written into the licensing ordinance several years ago which calls for a monthly inspection by the chief of police.

The Tuscania?

Remember the Tuscania?

McKinley Robinson of Appleton does. So does Archie Beaudoin of New London.

Robinson and Beaudoin and numerous other Fox Valley soldiers bound for European duty were aboard the Tuscania when the big British transport steamer was torpedoed by a German submarine off the Irish coast about suppertime on Feb. 5, 1918.

The Tuscania stayed afloat for about two hours, enough time for most of the more than 2,000 British and American troops to abandon ship safely. But more than 200 of them died, including James P. Hawley of Neenah and Clifford Norris and W.B. Spencer of New London.

"All Appleton Boys Saved," screamed the banner headline across the top of the front page of the Appleton Evening Crescent on Feb. 11. One who was saved was Arthur Hantschel. He's dead now, but his brother, Erwin, of Appleton, came to the office recently with a fragile, yellowed newspaper front page dated Feb. 10, 1918 that listed the names of all Wisconsin soldiers who survived the disaster.

Many of them are no longer living. I found two who are, and asked them what they remembered about the day the Tuscania was torpedoed.

Beaudoin was 20 years old — "I still had my mother's apron string in my hands." The soldiers were supposed to land in Liverpool the night of Feb. 5.

There was an uneasiness on the Tuscania, because everyone knew there were German U-boats in the area. Against regulations, Beaudoin and a buddy went up to the third deck, thinking it would be safer there. "I looked straight ahead and could see a light flashing," probably from shore, seconds before the torpedo hit, Beaudoin said.

There was no warning it was coming. No sighting. No sound. "But, so help me God, I felt it coming," Beaudoin said.

"The whole boat sort of shivered" when it was struck, he recalled. A second torpedo missed its mark. The first one hit the coal bin. That, Beaudoin said, was fortunate, because the pumps could be used for a while as the men escaped.

Beaudoin saw men disappear when they leaped into the water or when they couldn't make the leap from the listing Tuscania to the destroyer that pulled alongside for the rescue. Beaudoin made the leap, when the Tuscania was "about 45 degrees down."

The Tuscania survivors used to hold reunions. Now there is seldom even any talk about that cold night off the Northern Ireland coast 60 years ago, Beaudoin said.

Robinson also was 20 years old on Feb. 5, 1918. He had left his homeland in Waco, Texas, a member of the 127th Medical Company.

He doesn't recall just where he was on the Tuscania when she was torpedoed, "but I probably was under cover somewhere, because it was cold out.

"There was a lot of screaming and hollering" where he was, Robinson recalled. He said he "nearly drowned" before being rescued from a lifeboat. Robinson escaped the Tuscania with soaked clothes, nine cents and a pouch of Durham chewing tobacco.

According to The Crescent, there were many tense days in Appleton as families and friends waited for the War Department to release the names of Tuscania casualties and survivors. The Crescent of Feb. 8, 1918, stated, "Mothers who could scarcely restrain sobs, fathers whose voices trembled and sisters and sweethearts vainly besieged newspaper offices by telephone and in person to learn the fate of a boy thought aboard the Tuscania."

On Feb. 11, The Crescent published the pictures of the Appleton survivors and the names of other area soldiers who were safe in Scotland and Ireland.

Survivors from Appleton were Robinson, Hantschel, Eric Galpin, Theodore Briggs, Henry J. Pettigrew, Jacob F. Schneider, Irwin H. Meidam, Worth L. Bushey and Paul VanWyk. New London soldiers who were saved were Beaudoin, Byron E. Christian, Frank I. Davis, George E. Doman, Martin D. Bongers, Charles Foley, Leonard Meshke, Elmer A. Hebbe and R.A. Mayo.

Others from the area who survived were Laurel Conant, Harry B. Collier and Arthur L. Steffen of Hortonville; Alexander Steward Jr., Martin C.W. Winter, John C. Barth and Hilding Fagerdahl of Clintonville; W.A. Reichel of Leeman; George D. Danley of Iola; Martin T. Evenson of Manawa and A.E. Steffenhagen of Neenah.

Whiskey and Cash Stolen from Tavern

First 'Slot Machine Burglary' of Year Is Reported to Rhinelander Police.

Police today were looking for a burglar of small size with a liking for good whiskey and cigarettes.

Some one broke into the Land o'Lakes tavern at an early hour this morning, stole whiskey, cigarettes and some cash, smashed open one slot machine, failed to get the money out of another slot machine, and apparently gave up without trying to break open a third machine.

Last summer, the city had a series of tavern burglaries in which slot machines were smashed.

William Gilley and Elmer Beaudoin were in the tavern until about 2 o'clock this morning, then went to their homes. When they opened up this morning, they discovered the burglary.

Removed Rear Window.

The burglar had removed a storm sash from a rear window, broken out the glass of the inside window, and crawled in between iron bars across the window frame. A fat man could not have entered through this hole, and apparently the burglar had considerable trouble scrambling through, judging by the marks and tracks on the window frame and table.

A bar from the rear door was used by the burglar in an effort to smash the glass over the jackpot on a dime slot machine, but the owner of the machine said today the burglar merely succeeded in forcing the dimes back inside the machine, and so got nothing from it. Another slot machine of the same kind was not molested. The burglar, however, pried open a nickel "race horse" machine and took a small amount of money from it.

Cigarettes and several bottles of whiskey were taken by the burglar. The best brands were selected by the burglar—including one bar bottle from which only three drinks had been poured after it was opened last night.

Father: Samuel Beaudoin, Dec 1859 (1900 census) or 1860 Canada (French) - . On his daughter Dorthy's death record in 1907, his first name is given as Rand. For a son Wonard born 1898, his Samuel is listed as Roanald or Rounald Beaudoin. When his son Joseph Leon is born in 1900, "Samuel" is listed as Romnald Beaudoin.

The Samuel Beaudoin on Ancestry.com family trees does not appear correct.

According to the Find A Grave record of his son Edward Beaudoin (121483699), Samuel died in 1908, with his obituary appearing in the "Marinette (WI) EagleStar" of 12 Jan 1908 p 2. However, Samuel is living in Michigan with his family in the 1910 census, conducted 18 Apr 1910.
