Life:

Now that the deep snow and cold weather has put a stop to all out door play, there are much more interest shown in in-door games. Basket ball is the all absorbing topic of conversation in the athletic line.

Several games have been played since our last news items appeared in the TIMES. Having made short work of the Lincoln team on two occasions the graders decided to take on something harder in the shape of the Bryant giants. With this end in view games were arranged for both the boys' and girls' and the enemy's territory invaded last Friday afternoon. The long, round-about journey was taken under the chaperonage of Miss Carpenter and Mr. Shong. Both games were very close and hotly contested from start to finish. The Dewey teams were greatly surprised in two things, viz. the size of the enemy and the exceeding narrowness of the Bryant gymnasium. With a few exceptions the Bryant players both boys and girls, were much older and larger than the Dewey, and without doubt the Bryant teams are the largest grade teams in the city. Both games resulted favorably to the Bryant. The Dewey hopes to overcome the narrow margin and defeat their 'husky' opponents on the return games which will be played some evening in the early part of next week. The girls' team was composed of Leanoire Duff, Florence, Robert's Kate O'Hare, Clara Banks, and Jenny Seed; the boys are Ernest Armitage, Graw Henderson, Ralph Hudson, and Herschel Bird. The Dewey players and rooters were well treated by the Bryant people and after the games Miss Bury very kindly showed the visitors over the building.

Frank Barnd, who has been driver of the express wagon for T. B. Jones for some time, resigned his position last Saturday to accept that of delivery clerk for the Star Grocery Co. His position was filled by H. C. Bird, who was formerly a driver for the Star Grocery Co.

Brackett Wedding Friday

An informal ceremony at Piedmont Community Church Friday afternoon is being planned by Eleanor Lois Brackett of the Hilltop City who will exchange her altar pledges with Jack G. Leonard, Navy veteran.

Scheduled for 2 o'clock, the nuptials will be read by Rev. Dr. Holland Burr before a small gathering of relatives and friends of the betrothed couple.

Post-nuptial festivities will be held at the Ricardo avenue home of Eleanor's mother, Mrs. Bertha Brackett who will accompany her daughter as honor matron.

Best man duties will be performed by Donald Kotas.

Originally from Washington, D. C., Eleanor has been making her home in the Bay Area for the last four years. She attended Heald's Business College in Oakland.

Her fiance is a native of Waco, Tex. The young couple plan to make their future home in Dallas after a honeymoon trip that will take them to the nation's capital where they will stay a short time with Eleanor's father, John F. Brackett.

CLARENCE ROBB.

C. H. Bird has a force of carpenters busy erecting the new store at 306 West Fifth street, and when completed will make a very desirable and commodious store. There has been a number of improvements in this block, between Becker and Stinson avenues during the past winter, among which are the jewelry store of H. A. George on the corner, the remodeling of the old bicycle factory that was burned last fall now occupied by Walter Troinoski as a meat market. R. Webb's large new flour and feed store adjoining the C. H. Bird building now being erected. On the opposite side of the street is the Flour and feed store of Sam Turney which was recently removed from Nettleton Ave. which with many other business places located there makes it one of the busy sections of the city.
