NEW ENGLAND SURVIVORS OF TUSCANIA DISASTER

WASHINGTON, Feb 9—The list of survivors of the Tuscania disaster contains the names of the following New England men, outside Massachusetts:

JAMES A. PURINGTON, Hopkinton,
N H.

JOSEPH J. TONDEAU, Woodsville,
N H.

HAROLD C. WALCOTT, 50 Hillside av,
Providence.

HARRY FONTAINE, 299 Knight st.,
Providence.

PHILIP M. HODGKINS, Keene, N H.

JAMES F. JACKSON, Jefferson, Me.

With name misspelled as TONDEAU – “Boston (MA) Globe” Sunday 10 Feb 1918 p 3 respondent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The names and home addresses of 813 survivors of the transport Tuscania has been received at the war department up to 6 o'clock this afternoon.
At that same hour, the department was still without any official figures to dispute its estimate of yesterday that only 113 officers and men of the 2177 American troops on board had lost their lives.
It is expected that the complete list of survivors will be received before the night is over.
Every effort is now being made to expedite the information. Unfortunately, however, for the peace of minds of the hundreds of parents, wives and other relatives who are wiring, telephoning and writing to the war department appealing for information, the list of known dead and missing will probably be the last news to come.
