CROWD HELPS EAGLES RAISE SERVICE FLAG

Formal Exercises Sunday Evening Honor 15 Members in Service.

Some 2,000 people attended the public exercises in Capitol park Sunday evening at which the local lodge of Eagles dedicated a service flag of 15 stars honoring its members in the country's service. The lodge members assembled at the hall at Third and Washington, about 100 in number, and marched to the park in a body.

The address of the occasion was delivered by Thos. M. Vance, and Rev. Chas. T. Goodsell pronounced the benediction. The flag itself was clutched in the talons of a big eagle, while other mounted specimens and the national colors heightened the decorations. Music was furnished by the Sloan Shipyards band.

A little group which drew the attention of all consisted of four mothers of the boys in the service, Mesdames Duvall, Twohy, Guiberson and Winslow. The men honored are:

C. W. VonStein, Rexford L. Guiberson, Ray Brown, Mike Kehoe, B. A. Bolton, R. J. Duvall, Robert E. Robinson, Lester George Twohy, Avery Winslow, Frank Elmer Bradshaw, Bert L. Goodman, Garry Hartman, Joseph Gerard, Eddie Guyer and George B. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Twohy of Mud Bay received a letter Wednesday from their son Lester, who was rescued from the Tuscania, saying that he is in a hospital in England, suffering from the mumps. Lou Duval has also received word from his son Richard, who belongs to another company of the same regiment of forestry engineers as young Twohy but who left for "over there" about two weeks ahead of him, saying that he is well but that it is quite cold in the section of France where he is stationed.

WORKING IN FRENCH WOODS.
Conditions Similar to Washington Forests, Lester Twohy Writes.

In a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Twohy of Mud Bay, this week, Lester G. Twohy, who is in the 20th forestry engineers, says he is working now in the woods in France, and that they are very similar to Washington forests.

He is stationed about 12 miles from a town and says he has heard that Richard Duval, another Mud Bay boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Duval, is stationed about 10 miles from him and that he plans to look him up.

BUCODA MILL TO RESUME OPERATIONS

BUCODA, July 22.—(Special)—Re-opening of the large sawmill of the Mutual Lumber company at Bucoda is scheduled for some time between August 1 and 10. Employment will be given 250 men in the woods and plant, about half to each operation. Repair men are overhauling the mill following its long shutdown, and trackmen are putting it in shape. The plant is of 200,000 daily capacity. Its timber supply comes from the upper Skookumchuck district. F. L. Stokes, manager, announces that former employees will be used. The woods operation is in charge of L. G. Twohy.

MORE SALMON IN DERBY RUN

George Crabill's 19-pounder withstood the challenge of ambitious weekend anglers but a new second place qualifier was posted Monday on the Poggie club Salmon Derby board at The Spar.

Then new second ranking qualifier is L. G. Twohy, and his prize was a 15-pound, four-ounce salmon landed off Steamboat. Twohy's catch pushed Lawrence Lesh down to third spot in the standings of qualifiers. Lesh caught a 15-pounder at Seal Rock the opening day of the derby.

Steamboat and Johnson's point were the leading fishing spots the past weekend.
