Life:

Two Are Passed by Local Board and One Exempt

The local draft exemption board yesterday examined two men for military service. They were Baxter M. Kavanaugh, who registered in Los Angeles county, Calif., and Leonard Dewalt Wolford, registered in Garfield county, Wash. Both men were pronounced physically fit for military service. Kavanaugh filed a claim for exemption.

The board yesterday allowed the exemption claim of C. A. Osen, who is registered in Milwaukee, Wis., and who was examined by the board here on August 28. His claim was that he had dependents, a wife and two children.

By Courier Correspondent

WHEELER—Leonard Wolford of Wheeler suffered the loss of a hand in an accident on a Fort Peck derrick barge last week. He was working high up on the boom of the barge, where he had climbed to do some repair work. Machinery was inadvertently thrown into gear and Mr. Wolford's hand was caught, cutting it off.
