Robert B. Shimer, Miss Woolever Wed

Miss Katherine R. Woolever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bruce Woolever, Montoursville, and Robert B. Shimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Shimer, Milton, were married Saturday at 4 p. m. in Montoursville Methodist Church.

Rev. Charles F. Himes, pastor of the Woolrich Methodist church, and Rev. Lawrence W. Lykens, pastor of the Montoursville church, performed the ceremony amid white tulips and snapdragons arranged in altar vases. Palms and branches of forsythia completed the decorations.

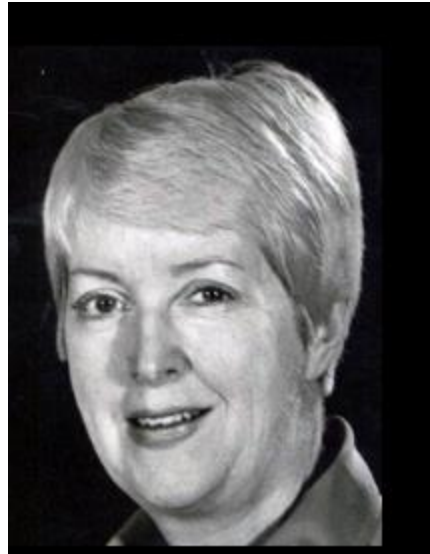

The bride was attired in a ballerina-length gown of white imported chantilly lace, an off-the-shoulder neckline was covered with a tiny jacket of matching lace, and the bodice was fashioned with a wasp-waist.

The bouffant skirt over tulle and satin was styled with butterfly paniers. Her Dutch cap encrusted with pearls held her finger-tip-length veil of sheer French illusion. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Naomi L. Woolever, maid of honor for her sister, wore a yellow sleeveless ballerina-length gown with a bodice of appliqued chantilly lace designed with a yoke of sheer nylon marquiset.

Miss M. Joan Evenden, of Williamsport, the bridesmaid, chose a ballerina-length gown of white imported Swiss organdy over pale orchid taffeta. The neckline was embroidered with edelweiss. Charles W. Yerkes, Jr., Williamsport, was best man.

A reception for 150 guests followed at the church social room. For a wedding trip through the South, Mrs. Shimer chose a navy wool suit with white linen trim, red accessories, a white topper and a white orchid corsage.

 Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Edith Woolever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Woolever, to John Herbert Rupert, of Pittsburgh, on September 10 at the home of the bride's parents.

Marriage of sister Edith Ellen Woolever Rupert (1885-1962) – “Williamsport (PA) Sun-Gazette” Tuesday 2 Sep 1913 p 1

Figuring in the races for the 38 seats up for election in the United States Senate is the son of a Plunketts Creek Twp. native now residing in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Emerson H. Rupert, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Rupert, of St. Petersburg and the nephew of S. Bruce Woolever, of 326 Montour Street Montoursville, is the Republican candidate for the Senate from the state of Florida. He opposes George A. Smathers, Democratic incumbent.

Mr. Rupert's mother, the former Edith A. Woolever, was born in Plunketts Creek Twp. and was a resident of Montoursville for many years.

Mr. Rupert, who made his first venture in state-wide politics in 1960 when he lost the bid for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Florida, spent his summers as a boy and a young man in Montoursville with his grandparents, the late C. Coleman and Emma Loder Woolever. His father-in-law, the late John H. Graybill, was a Williamsport resident, having been educated in the city schools and later graduated from Bucknell University.

A management engineer by profession and owner of a St. Petersburg hotel, Mr. Rupert was in the office of the Secretary of War in Washington during World War II where he was chief of the Industrial News Office. During the Korean war he was attached to the office of the Secretary of Defense in the Pentagon. He was later appointed to the Executive Office of the President where he served until 1953 when he resigned to go abroad.

A native of Pittsburgh, Mr. Rupert was graduated from the Pennsylvania State University in 1940. He attended the University of Pittsburgh and American University.

He is married to the former Eleanor Graybill. The couple has three sons. The Ruperts visited relatives in Lycoming County last summer.

Son of Edith Woolever Rupert runs for the US Senate from FL – in the 6 Nov 1962 election, the Democratic incumbent George Smathers received 70% of the vote – “Williamsport (PA) Sun-Gazette” Saturday 17 Mar 1962 p 2
