Children:

Eugene "Gene" M. Weber, age 90, of Bayfield, passed away with his loving family by his side and with his notable dignity and strength on Wednesday, March 2, 2022 at his home. He was born to William G. Weber and Ida (Beebe) in Washburn, WI on September 25, 1931.

Gene was the silent strong type, when he spoke everyone listened. He was the moral guide for his family, always the solid voice of reason and steady hand of comfort.

Love has graced Gene's life many times but never more so than when he met his wife, Violet (Compton). They shared 68 years together and had one daughter, Jacqueline. Together they traveled all over, and eventually bought a winter home in Florida where they enjoyed the company of many close friends.

After graduating from Washburn High School, Gene enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard in 1952 where he made many friends and lived in many different places. After serving, he worked many different jobs from DuPont, to working in his Apple Orchard and delivering apples. He eventually became the Founding Member, Co-Owner and Operator of C&W Trucking. You can travel almost anywhere in the Bayfield peninsula and see something Gene helped build.

Gene had many hobbies including hunting, fishing, gardening, going to auctions, camping and carpentry. He was always most comfortable on a tractor, he fixed and traded tractors through the years.

His most treasured role was always being a father and grandfather. His daughter Jackie has always been a phone call away and has been by his side for every appointment in good times and bad. They had a bond that will never be broken. One of Gene's last words were to his daughter, He said "I love you, and thank you for all you have done for me". And then the grandkids, He made an absolute point to be a huge part of his grandchildren's lives. He always had a vehicle to borrow and great advice to give. He has told his grandkids for over 30 years now that "If I died tomorrow, I've had a great life, I've done it all, and don't be sad for me".

He is survived by wife Violet (Compton), daughter Jacqueline (Clayton) Cadotte, and grandchildren Erin (Brian) Zupke and Corey (Sarah) Cadotte. Sister Carol Bodin, sister-in-law Shoddy Weber, and great-grandchildren Margaret (Dalton), Maben, Regina, Evangelina, Violet, Decklyn, Clayton, and Cooper Eugene. Great-great grandchild Barrett. Especially close sister-in-law Judy Meierotto and her family. Special friends and considered family Karen and Tom Browning, and the Browning family of Montana. And many loving nieces and nephews. And way too many life long friends and extended family to mention from near and far.

He is preceded in death by his parents, brothers Bob and Bud, special friend Harold Maki, and many more friends and relatives.

A memorial service led by Deacon Roger Cadotte will be held 11:00 am, Tuesday, March 8, 2022 at the Bratley Funeral Home in Washburn. Visitation will begin one hour prior to the service at the funeral home. Military Honors by the Apostle Island Honor Guard will take place at the end of the service.

WEBER MASS WILL BE READ ON FRIDAY

Local Woman Dies Suddenly While Visiting in Northern Wisconsin

Mrs. Elizabeth Weber, 79, of 205 N. Maple street, who left here Friday noon for Bayfield for a visit with her son, William, died at 7 o'clock Monday morning at a Washburn hospital.

She suffered a heart attack Sunday morning and early the next morning was taken to the hospital.

The body has arrived in Marshfield and is lying in state at the Rembs Funeral Home, where the Altar Society of St. John's Catholic Church, of which she was a member, will recite the rosary Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The general rosary service is scheduled for that evening at 8 o'clock.

The Requiem High Mass will be read Friday morning at 9 o'clock at St. John's Catholic Church, the Very Rev. Michael J. Kelnhofer in charge of the rites. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery at Hillside.

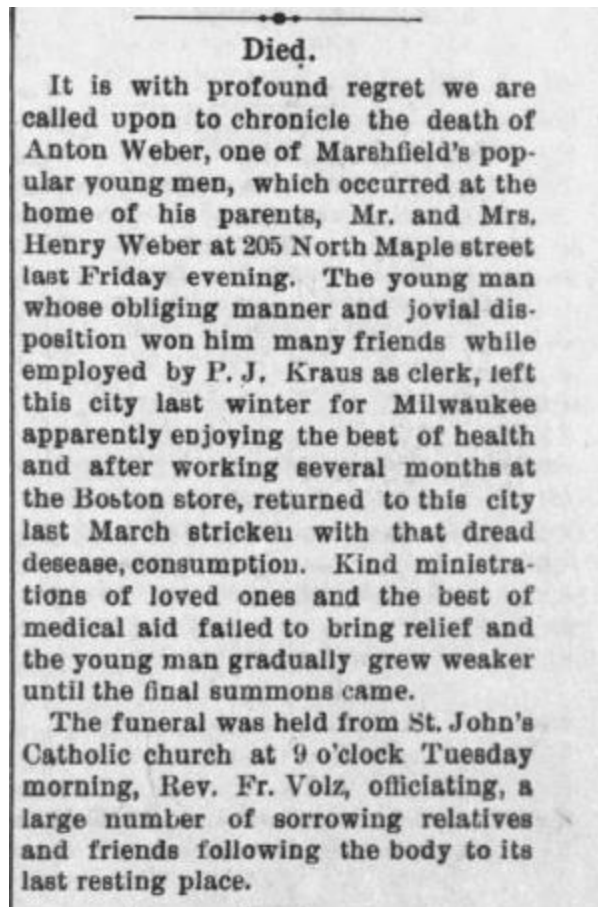

Mrs. Weber, nee Kauth, was born at Kaukauna Nov. 17, 1866, and spent most of her life in Marshfield with the exception of about 15 years prior to returning to Marshfield 22 years ago.

She is survived by five children, William Weber, Bayfield; Miss Eleanor Weber, Marshfield; Mrs. John (Elizabeth) Hirsch, Eau Claire; Mrs. Ellen Meyers, Marshfield; and Mrs. Gordon (Lucille) Ebbe, Arcadia, Calif. Four sons preceded her in death, Anton, Henry, Albert, and Joseph, the last named on July 9 of this year.

There are 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL

"SHINE" AT BLODGETT BARBER SHOP USES REVOLVER.

Burkhart Breseman Narrowly Escapes Being Victim of James Sublett—Disappears after Shooting and while Pursued Telephones for Officer to Come and Arrest Him.

Yesterday afternoon a sensational shooting affray occurred at L. A. Wright's store on Central avenue when Jim Sublett, the colored "shine" at the Hotel Blodgett barber shop, attempted to take the life of Burkhart Breseman, assistant at Wright's bakery.

The bullet missed its mark by only a few feet and buried itself in the counter. Placing the smoking revolver in his hip pocket as he left the store Sublett ran north on Central avenue to the Hotel Blodgett barber shop, passed through the basement and disappeared. Officer Griffin and a posse of citizens started at once in pursuit and traced the culprit to the north side. Less than a half hour after the shooting Sublett telephoned from the Marshfield Brewing Co.'s office to Geo. W. Wagner, one of his employers, asking him to send an officer there as he wished to give himself up. Upon the arrival of Officer Griffin he handed over his revolver and was escorted to the lockup.

It seems there had been considerable the lockup.

It seems there had been considerable ill feeling between Breseman and Sublett, dating from two days before when the latter is alleged to have said, "if you monkey much with me I'll cut your throat with a razor."

Three persons witnessed the shooting which occurred about 2:30 o'clock; Breseman, who narrowly escaped being the victim, Anton Weber and Miss Agnes Bloomer, the last named two being clerks in the store. Sublett had been delivering himself of a rather forceful argument on the social equality of whites and blacks, addressing himself particularly to Miss Bloomer. His talk becoming too personal and pointed to please Breseman, the latter ordered the darkey to leave the store, at the same time coming from behind the counter as if to enforce his demand. With a vile epithet Sublett, who was standing near the door leading to the street, drew the revolver from his pocket and fired. Breseman saw him reaching for his hip pocket and beat a hasty retreat followed by the other two occupants of the store.

The report was heard by a number of people who happened to be in that vicinity, some of whom saw Sublett return the revolver to his pocket and run toward the Hotel Blodgett. In a few minutes a large crowd had gathered and the excitement was more intense than has been witnessed here for some time. It is probable that if the negro's shot had resulted fatally he would have been handled roughly by the crowd when overtaken.

At the police station Sublett assumed an air of bravado, but a deathly pallor showed through his yellow skin. As he glanced at the faces peering through the several grated windows he remarked to Officer Griffin "This is no safe place to put a man. I could be shot through one of those windows." The officer assured him he was in no danger from that source.

In answer to a News reporter's queries Sublett said that he was nineteen years of age and that his parents live at Murfreesboro, Tenn., from which city he has been absent for the last nine years. He came to Marshfield from Minneapolis two months ago and shortly after his arrival purchased the revolver at one of the local hardware stores. He said it was his intention to send it to a friend in Chicago. He kept the gun in his trunk until yesterday morning when he transferred it to his pocket, with no intention of shooting anyone. "I'm a fool to ever carry a revolver," he said "for I am quick tempered and easily lose my head when anyone hurts my feelings. I am sorry I used the revolver but glad that no one was hit. It was done more in self defense than anything else for Breseman rushed at me with a candy pail in his hand." This last statement is denied by the employee of the store.

Sublett will have his hearing today before Municipal Judge Andrews, and Dist. Atty. Brazeau will be on hand to prosecute the case.

FOUND GUILTY.

JAMES SUBLETT MUST SERVE TERM IN STATE'S PRISON.

Colored "Shine" Who Attempted to Shoot
Burkhart Breseman in Wright's Bakery on March 11th last—Entered a Plea of Self Defense—Sentence will be not Less than One Year nor More than Five.

James Sublett, the former colored bootblack at the Hotel Blodgett barber shop, was found guilty on Tuesday of assault with intent to kill Burkhart Breseman and will be sentenced by Judge Webb at the expiration of this term of court. The law specifies that the term in state's prison for such an offense shall be not less than one year nor more than five. Sublett, through his attorney, J. W. Cochran of Grand Rapids, entered a plea of self defense.
The jury was out but a short time when a verdict against the defendant was brought in.

Sublett went on the stand in his own defense and testified that Breseman struck at him with a candy pail after hot words had been exchanged and to protect himself pulled out the revolver and shot on the spur of the moment.
He denied having purchased a ring for Miss Agnes Bloomer, the young lady over whom the quarrel started, but had intended to mail it to his sister and simply called at Wright's store to ask Miss Bloomer's opinion of it. Breseman, Anton Weber and Miss Bloomer, the three witnesses of the shooting, testified that Breseman did not strike at Sublett with a candy pail. That he ordered the negro to leave the store on account of his persistent and unwelcome attentions to Miss Bloomer and immediately thereafter Sublett shot at Breseman and ran from the store.

HENRY WEBER DEAD

Well Known Young Man Responded to Final Summons Friday.

Death entered the home of Alderman and Mrs. Henry Weber, Sr., Friday and removed one of the members of the family, namely, Henry Weber, Jr., an excellent and well known young man of this city. He was in the prime of life, twenty-three years old, and his loss came as a severe blow to his relatives. He was born and reared in this city and was a barber by trade. Besides his parents, he leaves four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. John Hirsch of Bayfield, Nora, Helen, Louise, Marshfield, Joseph Weber, Marinette and Wm. Weber of Marshfield. The funeral was held from the Catholic church in this city at 9 o'clock Monday forenoon.

LARGE STORE BURNED.
Connor Lumber Company Sustains
Heavy Loss at Laona.
 (Special to The Northwestern.)
 Marshfield, Wis., March 14.—The Connor Lumber & Land company's big store building and contents at Laona, was totally destroyed by fire Friday. Their warehouse No. 4, containing surplus stock, and the hotel Gordon also caught fire and suffered heavily. The loss is estimated at $45,000, partially covered by insurance. The origin of fire is unknown. The company is already making preparations to rebuild. Henry Weber, aged twenty-two years, son of Alderman and Mrs. Henry Weber, died Friday after a lingering illness. Deceased was a member of the Equitable Fraternal union. Joseph, a younger brother, home from Menominee, is confined to his bed with pneumonia. C. E. Blodgett has a crew of men at work on his hotel annex, laying brick for a third story. Mr. Blodgett also contemplates more enlargements on the hotel proper. Mayor A. G. Felker has announced himself as a candidate at the spring election. Present indications are that he will have no opposition.

The little child, not two years old of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber of the North side, died early Sunday morning from the effects of arsenic poisoning. During Saturday afternoon Mrs. Weber, in cleaning a room, temporarily removed a plate of poison fly paper from the top of a bureau to a window and as the mother was busily engaged she did not notice until too late that the little boy, who was playing in the room had taken up the plate and drank of the poisoned water. Everything was done to relieve the child but of no avail and death came at about 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

Waupaca Airman Will Go Overseas

Waupaca — Lieutenant Gordon K. Ebbe, son of Mrs. Della Ebbe, will leave Sunday for Honolulu and further foreign service, according to word just received by his mother, who was preparing to spend the month of September with her son at Coronado, Calif. For the past two months Lieutenant Ebbe has been in Norfolk, Va., as an instructor, and previous to that was test pilot and instructor at San Diego since April 1942 when he returned to the United States after three years of foreign service. Ebbe ferried a B-24 bomber from his San Diego base to Norfolk in just 12 hours.

Before coming to the United States a year ago, Lieutenant Ebbe was shot down in the Dutch East Indies and lost for two days. Before going to Java, Gordon was in the Philippines at the Cavite air base.
