MORRIS BOY WAS A TUSCANIA SURVIVOR

Sunday's Okmulgee Democrat says: "At 11 o'clock last night a telegram was received by the Democrat from Secretary T. T. Blakely at Washington, stating that Earl Sumner of Morris, who was on board the torpedoed transport Tuscania, was safe. The telegram also stated that forty other Oklahomans are reported safe, but does not mention William J. Weber of Henryetta who was also on board. Weber has a brother in Okmulgee, who is anxiously awaiting news from Washington. Secretary Blakely states that the list of Oklahomans saved is not yet complete."

In addition the above information Mrs. R. H. Ferguson, mother of Earl Sumner, received a cablegram from him Saturday night stating that he had landed safely in England.

Sumner was a Morris barber and his name was among the first thousand drawn in the selective draft. He went to Camp Travis with Okmulgee county's first contingent.

HENRYETTA IN WAR ZONE SENDS SOUVENIRS HOME

MRS. WILLIAM WEBBER MADE PRESENT OF SHELLS WHICH SENT MISERY INTO HEART OF KAISER WILHELM.

Mrs. William Webber of this city, is in receipt of two souvenirs from the western battle front in France, sent to her by her husband William (Bill) Webber, who is now in the thick of the fighting. The souvenirs are made from empty shells of the French 75s, and are in the form of vases, the handiwork of Private Webber, a blacksmith.

On one of the shells is the date 1914, while on the other is 1918, the first figure representing the beginning of the world's war and the second represents the year in which America began to take an active part in the great conflict. The brass is handsomely hammered and the work shows the handiwork of the maker, who apparently took great pains in his arrangement of the souvenirs.

The two shells arrived yesterday. They are empty, but their contents were possibly not spent for an idle cause. They, without doubt, fulfilled their mission—to spread terror in the hearts of Kaiser Wilhelm's fiendish hordes. They have been sent home by Private Webber as a remembrance from one who has done his part in the war and who is continuing his faithful and patriotic services for his country.

country.

The shells are now on display in the windows of the Owl Drug company on Main street, where they are being viewed by hundreds of people every day. Besides them Mrs. Webber is wearing a ring made for her by Mr. Webber from a piece taken from a German Albatross aeroplane, which was brought down by a French aviator near where Mr. Webber was stationed with American troops.

"Henryetta (OK) Free-Lance" Friday 16 Aug 1918 p 2

Mrs. William Killius left today for an extended visit in Detroit, Mich., with her son, William J. Weber and Mrs. Weber. Enroute she will spend a few days in St. Louis, Mo., with a sister, Mrs. F. P. Webber.

William Crowder 2nd marriage

Posted 01 Feb 2015 by toolman54

muskogee2 The date of the marriage is April 3, 1887. They were married in the home of Green Crowder, who was Maggie's guardian, because she was 16 yrs old. William was 25. It was his second marriage, her first of course. They were married in Monroe County, IL.
I am still searching for the marriage license of John Weber and my grandmother. She was married in between Weber and Crowder to a John Smith. I have a copy of that record also, but not the divorce record. He lived in Kimmswick, Mo. That license shows Maggie as 20 and John as 23. They were married in Jefferson County, MO.
A family story tells that when William Crowder died (of measles) in 1889, Green Crowder hired John Smith to court and marry Maggie to transfer ownership of a farm given William and Maggie when they married. It happened, and then the divorce from John Smith followed. We lose Maggie then until the census shows her married to John Weber, with children of his, hers, and theirs in the home in St Louis, in 1900.
My dad and uncle were born in Feb of 1905 and John Weber died of pneumonia in August of the same year.
At the time of his death my grandparents lived at 2113 DeKalb, in St Louis.
Hope this helps.

Divorce of William Kilius & Bessie Kilius – “Henryetta (OK) Free-Lance” Friday 30 Sep 1910

WM. KILIUS MARRIED

When Wm. Kilius recently went to St. Louis he put one over on the boys by marrying Mrs. Maggie Weber and giving no sign that he had broken into the ranks of the Benedicts. Late-ly his acts have been suspicious and the boys accused him of seeking to prepare a home, and he admits that th lady of his choice will arrive in about ten days. They will reside at the McCoy place, near the Methodist cnurch. Not to be outdone by the friends of his youth, William has gathered unto himself along with the bride a family of children whom he expects to grow up and call him blessed.

ANTE-NUPITAL VOW BASIS FOR CLAIM IN A BIG ESTATE

- Henryetta Blacksmith Wants
Share in Fortune Estimated at $100,000.

- ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—Suit for a one-eleventh share of an estate valued at $100,000 based on an ante-nuptial contract alleged to have been made in 1871, was filed at Clayton today by William Killius, a blacksmith of Henryetta, Okla., against the ten heirs of the estate of John Heintz, who died in St. Louis county in May, 1913.

The petition asserts that Mrs. Wilhelmina Killius, a widow, with one son, William, then 2 years old, agreed to marry John Heintz if he would adopt her son and treat him in every respect as their own child. With this understanding, the petition alleges, they were married in 1872. Mrs. Wilhelmina Killius Heintz died the following year.

The child was apprenticed as a blacksmith and in his young manhood moved to Oklahoma. When his stepfather died, it is alleged, Killius was not mentioned in the will, by which sums of property values from $1,000 up were bequeathed to each of the ten heirs. The suit was filed by B. L. Matthews.

RESIDENCE AND BLACKSMITH SHOP OF WM. KILIUS.

WM. KILIUS.

Turf Shoeing Shop.

An establishment that enjoys a large trade and an increasing one is that one conducted by Mr. Wm. Kilius, Blacksmith and Wagonwrights. Mr. Kilius has established and built up his large trade on the best quality of work at the most reasonable cost to the customer. Mr. Kilius is well known in this territory as a mechanic who when undertaking a piece of work knows what should be done and how to do it, and does not devote time for which the customer is charged in guessing at the repair required. When you pay Mr. Kilius for any work performed by him you pay him for time that has been spent in work, not in idle thought, or experimental trials.

In the shoeing of both horses and mules there is, as is well known to every owner, a peculiar knack that is not possessed by every blacksmith for doing this class of work in a way as to develop the best possibilities for work in the animal and at the same time do a job that will last under wear.

A department of this business which is very popular is that of the wagon painting and repairing. In the repairing and painting of wagons and vehicles, Mr. Kilius employs the best skilled labor that turns out that class of work that is recognized as superior work, and the charges for the quality of work are the very lowest that can be expected.

We speak for a continuance in the growth of his trade, which is amply justified by the quality of work and the reasonableness of the prices charged by Mr. Kilius.

Tombstone:

Father: John Weber, 3 Nov 1854 MO – 11 Aug 1905 St. Louis MO. Son of Michael Weber & Margaretha Dunbar.

According to Ancestry.com family trees, John married circa 1881 in MO to Apolonia (1852 [Find A Grave says 1832] Germany- 22 Aug 1887 St. Louis MO). But – their twins died within a few days of each other at age 1 and 10 days, and 1 and 25 days, in Apr 1889, which makes it difficult for them to be Apolonia's children, which is indicated on their death records.

They also allegedly had a son Fredrick Weber, Jul 1882 MO (who does appear with the family in the 1900 census but is not a son of John's wife Maggie) and twin sons, August M. and George J. She died of typhoid malarial fever, a resident of 3111 Francis Ave., St. Louis MO. Buried in an unmarked grave in section 135 in Saints Peter & Paul Catholic Cemetery, St. Louis, St. Louis City MO. F: 47860381. Her Find A Grave record spells her 1st name Appolonia; her MO death record spells it Apolonia.

Another complication – John W. Weber, age 27, son of Michael Weber & Margaret Campen (spelling?) married in 1881 in Monroe Co. IL to Clara Profit, age 18, daughter of James Profit & Jane Fischer. Is Clara Fredrick's mother? Monroe County IL is where Maggie Hassel married William Crowder.

Married in 1891 to Margaretha L. Hassel (?). Died of pneumonia.

Buried in New Saint Marcus Cemetery & Mausoleum, Affton, St. Louis Co. MO.

Find A Grave: 32133397

Family tree at: <https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/person/tree/62935195/person/40096972294/facts>

Mother: Margaretha ("Maggie") Hassel Crowder Smith Weber Kilius, Sep 1870 Germany – 1951 OK. Daughter of Conrad Hassel & Maria Rombul. Her maiden name also found as Schmidt on online family trees.

Married 3 Apr 1887 in Monroe Co. IL to William Henry Crowder (4 Aug 1861 Monroe Co. IL - 8 May 1889 Merrimac Point, Monroe IL, buried in Miles Cemetery, Monroe Co. IL, F: 60921115. William was the son of Green Crowder & his 1st wife, Adeline Dickerman. Maggie was William's 2nd wife. The couple was married in the home of Green Crowder. William & Margaretha had 2 children: Edward (1887) & Lucille (1889),

According to an Ancestry.com submission by toolman 54 on 1 Feb 2015, found at:

https://www.ancestry.com/mediaui-viewer/collection/1030/tree/62935195/person/40098341610/media/67e59238-2a4e-40d4-8955-39d7564cd7f1?_phsrc=hFB66625&_phstart=successSource

Green Crowder, the father of William Crowder, in whose home they married, was also Maggie's guardian, so he had to give permission for the marriage since she was age 16. William was age 25.

Following William Crowder's death, Maggie married on 23 Dec 1890 in Jefferson Co. MO to John Smith, b. ca 1867.

According to the family story cited above: Following the death of his son William, Green allegedly hired John Smith of Kimmswick ME to court and marry his daughter-in-law Maggie so that Smith could transfer ownership of a farm given to his son William & Maggie when they married. Then John & Maggie apparently divorced.

On one Illinois marriage record, John Smith's parents are listed as Andrew Smith & Maggie Herot and on the other, J.H. Smith & Coby Oyler. These are indexed versions online, not the original documents, so some spelling variations are likely also.

In 1891, she married John Weber. Their children were Henry, William John, Katharine/Catherine & twins, Andrew Henry & George Frederick.

Again widowed, she married William W. Kilius (1868-1922) in 1911. They had 2 daughters: Margaret & Berthadora Kilius. Kilius is buried with Maggie in West Lawn Cemetery, Henryetta, Okmulgee OK, F: 136798769.

Buried as Maggie Kilius in Wood Lawn Cemetery, Henryetta, Okmulgee OK.

Find A Grave: 136799763

Parents' marriage:

Is this his father's first wife? There are numerous men named John Weber in records. Or did he marry Clara Profit?

Father's 1st wife: Apolonia --- Weber, ca. 1852 Germany or St. Louis MO – 22 Aug 1887 St. Louis MO. Death year not possible if her twin sons August & George were born Apr 1888. MO death record says she died at age 35, born Germany, resident of 3111 Francis Ave., St. Louis MO. Died of typhoid malarial fever. Buried (also according to MO death record) in section 135 in an unmarked grave in Saints Peter & Paul Catholic Cemetery Old, St. Louis, St. Louis City MO.

Find A Grave: 47860381

Marriage: ca. 1881 MO

Spouse: Lillian Juanita Williams Weber, 3 Jul 1894 Huntington, Sebastian AR – 11 May 1987 Detroit, Wayne MI. Daughter of James Gideon Williams (1872 Grapevine TX – 1922) & India Iona Lake (1877 Eagle Lake TX – 1947). She was their 1st child.
