Stolen Motorcycle Located.

The motorcycle which was stolen from Julius Essig in Portland about six weeks ago, has been located in Sacramento, and a man named Peter Brozat is charged with having committed the theft. The suspected man has been arrested and will be brought back to Portland for trial as soon as the necessary papers can be prepared. Mr. Essig was visiting at the home of Benton L. Yost in Lents at the time the machine was stolen and had left it standing overnight on the porch of the house, where it was an easy matter for the thief to lead it away in the dark undetected.

A jury list of 125 names for the March term has been ordered in the circuit court. The jurors will report next Monday. The list exceeds the usual drawing by five names, as the term will be an important one and a wide field for selection will be desired in securing a jury for the trial of Walter H. Moore, former president of the Oregon Trust & Savings bank, who will be called on to meet the charge of receiving deposits when he knew the bank to be insolvent. His trial will be called on March 15.

On the same date will come the trial of Samuel Levin, who was brought from Philadelphia to answer to the charge of stealing jewelry worth $1200 from the home of M. Himmelfarb. Louis Blanchett's trial on a manslaughter charge will come on March 14.

From the following list will be chosen the new grand jury and the men who will try Walter H. Moore:

ing of John J. Dunn and Benton L. Yost.

First Lieutenant John J. Dunn, son of Judge and Mrs. Edward Dunn of Portland, is safe somewhere in the British Isles, according to a cable message received by his parents this morning.

A later cable brought word that Lieutenant Dunn was on a vessel under convoy with the torpedoed transport Tuscania, but that his ship reached port three hours before the disaster.

Mrs. Gertrude Yost, wife of First Lieutenant Benton L. Yost, today received news that her husband is safe and well. He is an officer of Company E, Twentieth engineers, one of the units on the torpedoed transport Tuscania.

The Yost home is at 7604 Fifty-seventh avenue southeast. The location of the cable office where the dispatch was sent was not given, the message having been relayed from Washougal, where Mrs. Yost's parents live.

Humphrey-Yost Clan Has Annual Reunion Sunday

EASTSIDE, Sept. 10.—(Special)—

Mingus park in Coos Bay, on Sunday was the scene of a jolly picnic group when 67 members of the Humphreys-Yost clan gathered there for their annual reunion, observed each Labor day weekend for the past 15 years. Late Sunday evening many of the relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Humphreys of Eastside for refreshments. Stories of the past, told by the older folks, were many and greatly enjoyed. Several groups went fishing on Monday or drove to nearby beaches.

The crowd was composed of descendants of three brothers, Thomas, Aaron and Will Yost and their brother-in-law, Thomas N. Humphreys, who migrated to Oregon from Pennsylvania in the 1880's. Of thrifty Pennsylvania Dutch stock, the family has played an important part in community affairs throughout the western part of the state.

the western part of the state.

Thomas Yost, first to move west, was a preacher of the circuit type, and prominently identified with the history of the Evangelical church in this state. He first settled in Sweet Home valley in eastern Linn county and later preached around Pedee and Troutdale. His last years were spent along the lower Siuslaw. He built a church at Mapleton and was known as a hard worker, depending mostly on his own labor for the support of his family. Many still speak of him as "the finest Christian and gentleman I have ever known." A son, Jesse, was drowned in the Siuslaw river when his boat capsized and the Francis Yost post of the American Legion at Florence is named for his youngest son, killed in World war I. His family was all born in Oregon. The two surviving sons are Wilkie Yost of the Klamath Falls post office staff and Wm. A. Yost, veteran boat builder, now living at Eureka, Calif.

Aaron and Will Yost were sawmill men and Thomas Humphreys was a flour miller. Humphreys spent his first winter in Oregon near Scottsburg but later moved to Kings Valley and Salem. Along with the two Yost brothers and Ewald Pyritz of Gardiner, he purchased an old-fashioned burr mill several miles east of Sweet Home. Here they built a sawmill and converted the flour mill to a roller type mill. They established the present townsite of Foster, naming it for the man from whom they purchased their property.

Will and Aaron Yost lived out their lives in the community of Foster but Humphreys later operated flour mills in other sections of the state, including the Beyerly Mills at Lewisville, the Red Star Mill at Turner and others at Myrtle Creek, Canyonville and Ashland. Most of his children still survive but one son, Lester, prominent Portland attorney, politician, and sportsman, was drowned about 19 years ago in White Horse rapids in the Deschutes river, while on a fishing trip.

Those gathering for the weekend included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pettyjohn and son, Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jonas and son, Dale, all of Westfir; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flowers of Allegany; Mrs. and Mrs. William Tucker and children, Francie, Gene and Tabitha; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tucker and son, Stephen, all of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Humphreys and Susan; Mrs. Cynthia Bush and Ted, Virginia Maxfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Humphreys and daughters Alice and Jay, all of Salem, Wilkie Yost of Klamath Falls, Maude Burbank of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Johnson, all of Newport, Grant Yost, Fritz Yost and Wm. Yost, all of Eureka, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey McTimmonds and Mrs. F. T. McTimmonds of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hensley and children, Richard, Barbara and Judy and Mrs. Cooper and son of Sutherlin, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Humphreys and Kenneth and Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Humphreys and Twila,

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Humphreys and Loretta and Tony, Charlotte and Bobby Church, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tucker and Alice and David, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Tucker and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. John Humphreys, all of Eastside.

PORTLAND (AP)—Three men got into the office of the Hoyt Park Pitch and Putt Golf Course early today on the excuse they had run out of gas. Then they put a knife to the throat of manager Percy Lewis Yost, 51, and demanded money.

Mrs. Yost, suspicious when they came in, went into the living quarters adjoining the office, locked the door and phoned police. One of the men heard her, ran outside, broke a window in the living quarters, climbed in and cut the telephone wire.

Police had the message, though, and 30 police soon formed a cordon around the area.

After a search through Hoyt Arboretum and an automobile chase, police arrested Darrell Hamblett, 23, Portland; Gerald Wayne Walker, 22, an airman from Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane; Kenneth R. Neirstheimer, 20, a transient, and two 17-year-old girls who were in Walker's car.

Notes:

Some family trees indicate that Benton (11 months old) in the 1880 census, while his father was age 21 and his mother age 20, had as siblings the two older grandchildren living with his paternal grandparents & paternal uncle in Port Barnet, Jefferson PA. The placement of the names on the census would indicate Benton was the son of Aaron & Catherine. It would have been difficult (impossible?) for his young parents to have given birth to Reuben Yost (age 6) & Netta Yost (age 5).

On Ancestry.com family trees, the parents of Reuben & Netta Yost are listed as Thomas Adam Yost & Eliza Ann Shick.
