SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS WON'T PARADE

Alabama veterans of the Spanish-American war will not take part in the Roosevelt parade next Tuesday.

This was decided at a meeting in the city hall yesterday afternoon when a state organization was perfected. Col. T. O. Smith was elected president of the permanent organization, and Lieut. Clyde Harkins secretary.

Lack of uniforms and men was the reason given for not taking part in the parade. It was pointed out that it would be impossible to get a creditable showing of uniformed veterans of the late war together in time to take any part in the pageant arranged for the President. Out of the total number present only sixteen had uniforms, and some of these are members of the National guards, which will be in the parade. Much enthusiasm was manifested, however, when the question of organization came up. After the association was formed, twenty-eight names were obtained. Organization will be completed at a meeting to be held at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon.

The meeting yesterday was the result of a conference of a number of officers of the Spanish-American war last Wednesday night. They thought it an easy thing to get a company of at least seventy-five or a hundred veterans together, and issued a call. At 3 o'clock thirty men gathered in the armory of the city hall. When the meeting was called to order, Col. T. O. Smith was elected chairman, and Lieut. Byron Dozier secretary. Colonel Smith explained the objects of the meeting, saying it was for the purpose of deciding on the feasibility of entering the parade and to determine whether or not a permanent organization should be formed.

The following names were enrolled as members of the new organization:

C. W. Black, 1801½ Second avenue, Second Alabama; L. J. Beau, Irondale, First Alabama; P. W. Gooch, Bessemer, Company M, First Alabama; S. L. Cox, 2716 Thirty-first avenue, Company A, First Alabama; E. W. P. Lapsley, 2117 Fifth avenue, Company D, Second Alabama; W. F. Wood, 5509 Second avenue, Company A, First Alabama; M. Phelix Wood, 5462 Second avenue, Company A, First Alabama; Duke Redmayne, R. F. D. No. 7, Company K, First Alabama; J. O. Posey, 900 Central avenue, Company L, Second Alabama; Arthur L. Chamberlain, 1901 Elghth avenue, Company L, First Illinois; Samuel H. Brown, Bessemer, Company M, Fifth United States Volun-

VETERANS BAND TO GET LIGHT WINES AND BEER

Urging the legalizing of beer and light wines by amendment of the Volstead act or other legislation, the Veterans' Beer and Light Wine Association of the United States has been organized in the District.

Barring from its membership any person connected with the liquor traffic, the association aims to crystallize and give expression to what is said to be the wish of a great number of ex-service men for a reasonable interpretation of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Richard Seeley Jones, editor of the Stars and Stripes, is president of the newly formed organization; Col. Ransome H. Gillette, of the Twenty-seventh division, A. E. F., now a member of the New York State Assembly, vice president; Kenneth McRae, commander of George Washington Post, American Legion, secretary, and Arthur L. Chamberlain, formerly of the Twentieth Engineers, of Houston, Tex., treasurer.

Capt. Edward Stafford, formerly of the quartermaster corps of the army, a Washington lawyer, has filed in the District court the articles of incorporation. The association claims not to be in favor of repealing the prohibition amendment.

"Washington (DC) Times Herald" Monday 22 Mar 1920 p 8

All manner of expressions were drawn out by the sudden shock of the news in Washington.

"I just wish I could get my hands on that Kaiser," said Mrs. Arthur L. Chamberlain, of 1326 A street southeast, wife of Lieut. Arthur L. Chamberlain, Twentieth Engineers.

Like to Get Kaiser.

"Yesterday, when I heard about the sinking of the transport, it just went all over me right then and there. I went to see Secretary of War Baker and then to the 'dt' funny' at First and B streets, where they don't tell you anything, and then I just started for Berlin—in my mind.

"You know, seriously, I would like to get my hands on that Kaiser. I'd show him a thing or two."

Lieutenant and Mrs. Chamberlain came to Washington when Chamberlain went into training at American University with his regiment. When he was transferred, Mrs. Chamberlain decided Washington was a pretty good place in which to live, so she remained.

Today she is anxiously waiting more news from her husband.

"HONEST JOHN" IS KILLED.

Former Kenosha Boy is Killed in a Railway Accident on the Ft. Wayne.

A letter was received in this city this morning announcing that John Brooks, a son of Joseph Brooks, a resident of this city, was killed in a railway accident last night. The accident occurred on the Ft. Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville road, on which Brooks was employed in the capacity of an engineer. The letter, which was written by the father of the deceased, gave no details of the accident in which the son lost his life, and no notice of the affair can be found in the outside papers.

The deceased, who was about thirty two years of age, was born and raised in this city. He was better known in this city under the name of "Honest John" Brooks. For many years he worked about the livery stables in this city, and was employed by Griffin and Kupfer as a cab driver.

He left Kenosha about seven years ago and went to Chicago and started in work on the railroad. About a year ago he was advanced to the post of engineer, which position he was occupying when he met with his unfortunate death. It is not known what disposition will be made of the remains, but they will probably be brought to this city for interment.

Prayer Service Scheduled Here for Fred E. Brooks

A prayer service will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Oak Hill Cemetery for Fred Eugene Brooks, 86, a former Battle Creek businessman who died Tuesday afternoon in Clearwater, Fla.

Mr. Brooks died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. G. (Dorothy) Pepper, where he and his wife had been living for some years. Before retiring 14 years ago, Mr. Brooks owned and operated the F. E. Brooks Co., dealing in fuel, ice and gasoline, for 26 years. He established the business here in 1918.

GTW Engineer

Mr. Brooks was born June 24, 1872, in Detroit, a son of Joseph and Margaret (McGraw) Brooks. He married Maude Powell in 1898 in Battle Creek and later became an engineer on the Grand Trunk Western Railroad. The first Mrs. Brooks died in 1933, and Mr. Brooks married Lulu Dunlap, also a Battle Creek resident, three years later. Mrs. Brooks oper-

Battle Creek resident, three years later. Mrs. Brooks operates a real estate business in Clearwater.

Mr. Brooks was a life member of the Masonic orders and of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Division 33.

He was closely associated with both Battle Creek and Michigan history. McGraw street in Detroit was named after the farm owned there by his maternal grandparents. The father of his first wife, Alden B. Powell, was a local pioneer and was for many years sheriff of Calhoun County.

Pride in 'Columbia'

Mr. Brooks prided himself on naming Columbia avenue. He said that he disliked its former name, Boulevard Rural, and consequently painted two signs with "Columbia Avenue" and nailed them to a post on the corner of what now is Columbia and S.W. Capital avenues. The name stuck.

In addition to his wife and daughter, Mr. Brooks is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Grace (Brooks) Fish, four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. His remains were cremated in Florida and the ashes brought here for burial in the family plot. The prayer service will be conducted by Willard A. Bergey, a friend of the family and a Christian Science reader. Mr. Brooks attended the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Mr. Brooks' widow will continue to live with her daughter, Mrs. Pepper, in Clearwater.

Former Local Man Dies in Florida

Fred E. Brooks, a former Battle Creek business man who was in the fuel, ice and gasoline business here for several years, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. G. (Dorothy) Pepper in Clearwater, Fla.

His first wife was Maude Powell, a daughter of Alden B. Powell, a local pioneer and former public official. The old Powell homestead was on Main street near Alden street.

In addition to the daughter, Mr. Brooks is survived by his second wife, the former Lulu Dunlap, also a former Battle Creek resident; another daughter, Grace (Brooks) Fish; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. Brooks was a life member of the Masonic orders and of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Division 33.

Mrs. Pepper operates a real estate business in Clearwater.

Information on Arthur Louis Chamberlin has been difficult to research. Neither Ancestry.com nor FamilySearch.org indicates his parents or provides a family tree.

No document or newspaper accounts for his birth, marriage, death or career lists his parents – although he is mentioned in his apparent mother's and sister's obituaries.

This research is based on the supposition that the information in the 1880 census record is basically correct and that is the correct "Arthur Chamberlin."

Complicating the research is that his surname is misspelled CHAMBERLAIN a majority of the time in newspaper articles.

Father: John Henry Chamberlin, born circa 1847 likely in Canada, and in Ontario, Canada – died sometime between 1885 Chicago IL city directory & 1888 (when Mrs. Dell Chamberlin is listed) or 1896 (when she is listed as the widow of John H. Chamberlin).

According to the 1880 census, J.H. Chamberlin was born in Michigan. Arthur reports his father was born in Michigan when answering questions in the 1910 census.

In the 1900 census, while in the Army in the Philippines, Arthur reports his father was born in Missouri.

In 1920, Arthur reports his father was born in Canada (English) while in 1930 he reports his father was born in Canada (French). His apparent daughter Edith's marriage record reports her father was born in Ontario, Canada.

What appears to be John's marriage record lists his birth in Canada.

The one constant in records for what appears to be the correct John is that he is a shoemaker.

Is he the John Chamberlin, age 13, born Canada, living in Corunna, Shiawassee MI with his mother Mary Chamberlin, age 50, born Ireland, a servant?

Is he the John CHAMBERLAIN, age 23, born Canada, a shoe maker, single living in a boarding house operated by Mary Woodard in Detroit, Wayne MI (line 38)?

There is a J.H. Chamberlin, born 1849 Canada, resident of 338 W. 47th St., Chicago, Cook IL who died in Cook Co. IL on 15 Sep 1908. He was a glove maker. His body was donated to the Chicago College of Medicine & Surgery.

Find A Grave:

Mother: Frances Adell (Della/Dell/Adella) Decker Chamberlin, 1861 Orion, Oakland MI or 1861 (headstone) or ca. 1856 MI (1880 census) or Sep 1859 (1900 census) MI – 5 Jan 1904 Cook Co. IL. (6 Jan 1904 on headstone)

Her father was Moralders Decker, 23 Jan 1852 Oxford, Oakland MI – 14 May 1932 Detroit, Wayne MI. He was the son of Alanson Decker & Sylvia Ann Decker & is buried in Marlette City Cemetery, Marlette, Sanilac MI. F: 60112792. Moralders is also found listed as Roll or Rall in 1900, 1920 & 1930 censuses.

Her mother was Margaret/Margarette McGraw, the daughter of James McGraw (1802-1878) & Maria Rotnour (1801-1880). In the 1850 census for Orion, Oakland MI, James McGraw (48 Ireland, farmer) lived with wife Maria (49 NY) & their children: James (17 MI), Margaret (12 MI), Francis (8 MI, male), Maria (7 MI) 7 Miles Swift (5 MI).

According to Fred Brooks's obituary in the "Battle Creek (MI) Enquirer" of Sunday, 23 Nov 1958, page 3: "He [Fred] was closely associated with both Battle Creek and Michigan history. McGraw street in Detroit was named after the farm owned there by his maternal grandparents."

Margaret McGraw married Moralders Decker - recorded as Margarette McGraw & he as Moraldus Decker - on 23 Oct 1855 in Oakland Co. MI.

According to the 1880 census, Dell Chamberlin was born in Michigan. Her daughter Edith's marriage record indicates her mother was born in Michigan. In the 1900 census, while in the Army in the Philippines, Arthur reports his mother was born in Missouri. In the 1910 census, she lists her birthplace as Illinois.

Adell's sisters, who sometimes used their stepfather's surname of Brooks, were:

Estelle Decker Bellows, 28 Jul 1862 MI – 3 Jun 1908 Chicago, Cook IL. Wife of Frank Waldo Bellows, whom she married in Milwaukee, Milwaukee WI on 27 Sep 1882. She is listed as Estelle Brandt on their marriage record, the daughter of Maraldus Brandt & Margaret

There is also an accompanying stone for Belle Decker, b. 1867, death date unknown, at F: 11452438. But she remarried & is buried in the same cemetery as Clinton but as Belle Schnable. – In the 1912 Detroit MI city directory Belle Herbert, widow of Clinton S., resides at 852 – 14th Ave. – By 12 Sep 1918, when Eugene Ernest Frederic Schnable registers for the WWI draft, he gives a birthdate of 19 Aug 1876 & lists his next-of-kind as Mrs. Bell Herbert Schnable. His birthdate is more likely 19 Aug 1877 in Germany (on his MI death certificate); he died 9 Jul 1951 Detroit, Wayne MI in a 2-car collision. – In the 1920 census F.E. Eugene Schnable (45 NY, parents b. Germany) lived in Highland Park, Wayne MI with wife Belle (43 NY, parents b. Germany). He was a superintendent, electrical supplies. – In 1930, F.E. Eugene Schnable (52 NY, parents b. NY) lived with wife Belle (63 MI, parents b. MI) in Detroit, Wayne MI. Wartime:

Spanish-American and WWI veteran, but not WWII as indicated on his tombstone & written note on Arlington interment card

All manner of expressions were drawn out by the sudden shock of the news in Washington.

"I just wish I could get my hands on that Kaiser," said Mrs. Arthur L. Chamberlain, of 1326 A street southeast, wife of Lieut. Arthur L. Chamberlain, Twentieth Engineers.

Like to Get Kaiser.

"Yesterday, when I heard about the sinking of the transport, it just went all over me right then and there. I went to see Secretary of War Baker and then to the 'dt 'unny' at First and B streets, where they don't tell you anything, and then I just started for Berlin—in my mind.

"You know, seriously, I would like to get my hands on that Kaiser. I'd show him a thing or two."

Lieutenant and Mrs. Chamberlain came to Washington when Chamberlain went into training at American University with his regiment. When he was transferred, Mrs. Chamberlain decided Washington was a pretty good place in which to live, so she remained.

Today she is anxiously waiting more news from her husband.
