Hipsman, Peter Thode

1892 Denmark (then part of Germany) – 1971 CA

For that, you have to find the as amended part — because that seventh section wasn't added until 1918 and — stripped of a great deal of boilerplate — what it says is this: if you served in the American Army or Navy or Philippine Constabulary during World War I and you were honorably discharged, you could be naturalized without first filing a declaration of intent to become a citizen and without proving that you'd lived in the United States for five years.⁴

It was, then, a way for military veterans to get to become citizens faster and with fewer prerequisites and less paperwork than anyone else.

So... did anybody actually take advantage of this law?

About 150 or so, in just this one district (and every district should have its own records of these), between the 23 July 1919 naturalization of Barbabeo Di Barnabei, an Italian national, who served in the Hospital Detachment, Medical Corps, at Hoboken, New Jersey, and got support for his naturalization from his sergeant and his colonel⁵ and the 26 March 1923 naturalization of Peter Thode Hipsman, a Danish national, who served in the U.S. Army and was discharged 11 June 1919.⁶

Each of the records, then, tells a double story: a story, first, of an immigrant, with the usual wonderful genealogical information about date and place of birth, arrival in the U.S. and the like; but a story as well of military service, often with specifics about the unit and the time frame — for soldiers whose records may have been lost in the 1973 fire at the Federal Records Center in St. Louis.⁷

Double Ring Ritual

Miss Ella Ruth Hipsman Is Bride of Benedict Erhardt

Before an altar decorated with palm leaves and white carnations in the New Apostolic Church in Oakland, Ella Ruth Hipsman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hipsman, of 631 South Forty-first street, exchanged marriage vows with Benedict Erhardt.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Reverend Andrew Lydgisen at 7 o'clock in the evening. The benedict, who has resided at 434 Bissell avenue, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erhardt, of Mott, North Dakota. He attended schools there.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a strapless dress of nylon and lace, the bodice of which was covered with a long-sleeved lace jacket. A Juliet cap held her veil and she carried white roses centered with an orchid and tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Doris Lydgisen, daughter of the minister, was maid of honor. Her pink ballerina length gown of satin and net was complemented with a matching hat and she had orchid colored carnations. Miss Rosemary Bolicove, the sole bridesmaid, wore a frock identical to the honor attendant's in orchid and had pink flowers.

Best man duties were assigned to Frank Kratz and John Erhardt, the bridegroom's brother, ushered.

Wedding guests greeted the newlyweds at the Hotel Don for the wedding reception. Mrs. Hipsman was in lilac lace with navy accessories and an orchid.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt will make their home in Emeryville. Their engagement was announced a year ago.

Tenacity Pays Off in SS Game

*She Wins $100
After 17 Months*

Elizabeth Hipsman, 2824 MacDonald Ave., Richmond wins $100 in The Examiner's Social Security Game. A player since the inception of the game in July, 1961, Elizabeth has faithfully submitted her social security number four times a week and this is her first win.

"I was never so surprised in my life," Mrs. Hipsman exclaimed. "Having played the game for so long, checking the winning numbers each morning has become a way of life. I honestly never expected to win but I couldn't give up playing. This is a wonderful game and I hope it goes on forever."
