BOYS ASK HERALD TO SAY THEY ARE SAFE IN ENGLAND

A letter was received by The Herald today from four Whatcom county men who were on the transport Tuscania, sunk last month by the Germans, in which they announce their safety. The letter was sent from Manchester and was dated February 27. It follows:

"Believing that we were the only boys from Bellingham on the Tuscania at the time of its torpedoing, we take the liberty to write to your paper, hoping you will print same to assure our many friends of our safety.

"There is lots we would like to say, but fearing the censor would stop the whole letter, we will make it as brief as possible. There were on board: Thomas Elmore, of Ten Mile; George Sterling, of Ten Mile; Charles McIntosh, of Bellingham; Oswald Robertson, of Bellingham. Roderick McDonald was taken off the ship at Halifax.

"We wish to thank the Red Cross society for their good work.

"We also wish to state that Bull Durham is one shilling or 24 cents a sack here. Same will reach any company at the front—for example, 'John Doe, Co. D. 6th Bn., 26th Eng., American Expeditionary forces, via New York.'"

There were other Whatco mecounty boys on the Tuscania but apparently the writers of the letter were not aware of the fact.
