Military:

Four friends in the Bedford district—Charles H. Crofts, 307 Carlton avenue; Melville W. Miller, 70 North Portland avenue; Frederick Flux, 105 Clinton avenue, and Washington Godley Davies, 35 North Oxford street—enlisted December 12 in the 213th Aero Squadron at Mineola.

Flux, aged 30, and Davies, aged 31, were employed in the Bridge Department, the former as a foreman and the latter as driver of a repair truck. Both enlisted as mechanics.

Miller, aged 22, enlisted as a cook in the 213th Squadron. He graduated from Public School No. 12 and was for a time a student at Manual. Just previous to enlisting he was employed by the Columbus Distilling Company of Greenpoint and was a member of the Central Branch Y. M. C. A., where he was taking a course in engineering. He has considerable reputation as a bowler and won laurels on several Y. M. C. A. teams.

Miller and Davies are graduates of Public School No. 12, and Flux of Public School No. 1. Davies' mother, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Davies, has received a cablegram from him saying he had landed safely and was well.
