Veterans, Wives Enjoy Reunion

Reunion days for the 32nd Division Veterans assn. meant happy days for both veterans and their wives at the 31st annual association reunion in Madison which closes today.

Anthony Przybylski, Milwaukee, (top photo, left) points out some of the details of an experience in France where he served with the division's 107th engineer train during World War I.

ron, 127 infantry regiment; and Hugh Condo, Chicago, 128 infantry regiment.

Seated next to Przybylski are Max Leventhal, Chicago, also of the 127th, and Fred Keiter, Philadelphia, Pa., 126th infantry.

While the men were telling stories at Hotel Loraine, the women, who just didn't come to Madison for the ride, carried on with their program at the Park hotel.

Mrs. Harold Foss, 2061 Helena st., left, (lower left photo) and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, 14 N. Broom st., right,

A buffet supper was served to the women before the show, and Mrs. Elmer M. Stadelman, 2309 Lakeland ave., center, lower right, chairman of the ladies' activities, shows her appreciation of the preparation along with Marilyn Ronsholdt, Racine, left, and Mrs. Burton Burns, 2725 E. Johnson st.
