Mrs. Brittain honored by Calvary Baptist Church

Calvary Baptist Church near Forest was packed to capacity Sunday, July 29, to recognize and honor Mrs. Eunice Clark Brittain for her many years of faithful service. Mrs. Brittain was recognized and presented an orchid corsage by interim pastor, Rev. Oster Daniels during the morning Service. Bro. Daniels' message was on "The Love of God" with the text being John 3:16 which was one of Mrs. Brittain's favorite Bible passages.

The morning service also included several of her favorite hymns. Special music entitled "One Day at a Time" was sung by Mrs. Genell May, one of Mrs. Brittain's ten granddaughters. The song conveyed a part of Mrs. Brittain's philosophy of life.

Following the morning service, everyone enjoyed a covered dish luncheon in the church fellowship hall with a big birthday cake for Mrs. Brittain's 89th birthday which was July 31. For the afternoon service, special music was presented by Mrs. Jona Boone, of Jackson, one of Mrs. Brittain's 17 grandchildren who sang "Surely the Presence of the Lord is in This Place", and by Mrs. Debbie Tischer, of Brandon, another granddaughter, who sang "The Longer I Serve Him, the Sweeter He Grows" as a fitting benediction for the service.

Other special music was presented by a group whose members are Mrs. Imogene Byrd, of Clarksdale, Mrs. Lillian Lay of Pearl, Mrs. Virginia Lee Hartley of Vicksburg, Mrs. Linda Stegall of Mendenhall, Mrs. Genell May of Forest, all granddaughters, and Mrs. Dawn Pope of Pearl and Mrs. Louise Bell of Forest. This group sang together at revivals and on the Forest radio station when they were teenagers.

The highlight of the afternoon service was a "This is Your Life" presentation emceed by Br. Daniels. Several surprise guests were present and gave short testimonies of Mrs. Brittain's influence on their lives. These included Mr. Max Loper of Philadelphia who was a neighbor of Mrs. Brittain's for many years; Mrs. Jessie Gunn and Miss Sina Cox, also neighbors; Mrs. Almon Breland of Pearl and Mrs. Mae Rushing of Forest who worked with Mrs. Brittain at the Harpersville School lunchroom many years ago.

Other speakers were Mr. Billy Mack Stubbs and Mr. Sonny Stubbs, both members of Calvary Church. Letters of commendation from former pastors were read. The service concluded with the presentation of a gift Bible from the church and a clothesline on which had been hung birthday cards and love offerings from family and friends.
