J.W. "Doc" Roberts

Services for James W. "Doc" Roberts will be at 11:30 a.m. Friday, October 11, 2002 in the chapel of Melancon Funeral Home with the Rev. Doug Milliron officiating, followed by the Masonic service. Entombment will be in the Garden Covenant Mausoleum in Pythian Cemetery under the direction of Melancon Funeral Home.

J.W. "Doc" Roberts, living in Baton Rouge and a longtime resident of Eola, quietly went home on Monday, October 7, 2002 while residenced for rehab after hip surgery in August.

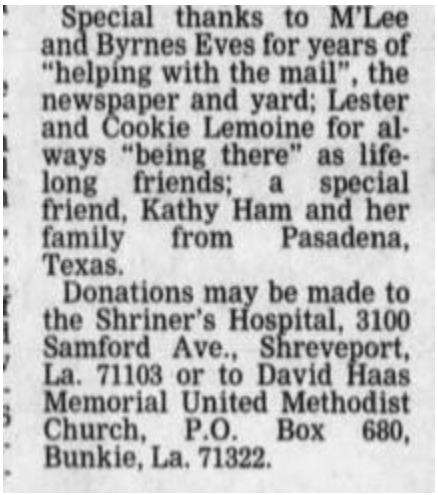
Born February 6, 1902 in Cameron County, Texas into a family of 11 siblings, this life-loving renaissance man and his wife of 77 years, Anna (deceased July of 2000) came to Eola in 1939. Except for 1958-67 when they lived in Mission, Texas, they were "Louisiana residents" by choice. J.W. returned to close the Anchor Gasoline plant that he helped build and run for 30 years. During his years at Eola he was an active member of the David Haas Memorial United Methodist Church, the Masonic Lodge, the Shriners, and the Scottish Rite (50 year lifetime member). His nickname "Doc" was from the work at Anchor Gasoline where his skills were such that he could "doctor" any engine needing repairs simply by listening to its performance. He will be remembered by friends and family as a generous, quick-witted, compassionate man who showed up for lodge cookouts into his 90's, enjoyed a brisk game of dominoes, enjoyed good home-cooking, loved his family and was Anna's "white knight" during her lengthy illness prior to her passing.

While in Baton Rouge he made more friends at Sunrise Assisted Living where he stayed after a hip replacement in December of 2000. A joyous 100th birthday bash on February 6, 2002 included a concert of music he loved by a gospel/bluegrass band.

Family who will miss him greatly includes son James C. and wife Linda of Natchitoches; daughters, Dorothy Thornhill of Baton Rouge and Patricia Messer of Pasadena, Texas. Grandchildren include James C. and Linda Roberts and Brian Thornhill of Baton Rouge, Chris and Kim Messer of Fort Scott, Kansas and Cheryl and Brad Taylor of Beaumont, Texas. He is also survived by six great-grandchildren.

Thanks to friends for cards and communications during the last three years he was in Baton Rouge. He had far away nephews and nieces who kept in touch.

Special thanks to M'Lee



Special thanks to M'Lee and Byrnes Eves for years of "helping with the mail", the newspaper and yard; Lester and Cookie Lemoine for always "being there" as lifelong friends; a special friend, Kathy Ham and her family from Pasadena, Texas.

Donations may be made to the Shriner's Hospital, 3100 Samford Ave., Shreveport, La. 71103 or to David Haas Memorial United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 680, Bunkie, La. 71322.
