TUSCANIA

St. Clair, George Lawrence
1892 IN – 1963 OR

George St. Clair, kneeling in front at far left – “Daily Inter Lake” (Kalispell MT) 27 Aug 1973 p 4 – below is a 1939 copy of this photograph which identifies man #1, kneeling at far left in front, as George Sallee:

FLATHEAD COUNTY SURVIVORS OF THE TORPEDOED TUSCANIA

Pictured above are 11 members of the detachment of 13 from Flathead county who were on board the transport "Tuscania" when it was sunk by a German U-boat off the coast of Ireland on February 5, 1918. Those pictured above are: (1) George Sallee, (2) Peter J. Lavelle, (3) John D. Morrow, (4) S. J. Cairncross, (5) O. Larson, (6) E. A. Anderson, (7) F. F. Metcalf, (8) Walter Damon, (9) Henry Seemater, (10) Joe D. Basey, (11) J. J. Tucker.

Two of those from Flathead county, John McMillan and Paul Lawrence, are not shown in the picture but survived the sinking of the ship.

Of the 2,179 officers and men aboard the transport, about 200 were lost and the bodies of those recovered were buried on the Isle of Ila, Scotland.

The Tuscania was one of a convoy of 14 troop ships crossing the Atlantic at that time. Survivors of the torpedoed boat were landed at Larne, Ireland, Londonderry, Ireland and the Isle of Ila, Scotland. The scattered troops rejoined each other at Winchester, England later in the month.

Seven survivors of the sunken vessel held an annual reunion last Sunday at the home of Joe Basey. All but three of the Flathead men on board the ship, still live in this section of the state.

Marriage license on 25 May 1946 of Elmo Francis St. Clair to Melba Morehead -
<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3Q9M-C91J-T74B-7?cc=1534448>

Melba St. Clair passed away peacefully on November 24, 2012. She had been a resident at Prestige Park Adult Home in Covington, Washington for the past 3 years while suffering from Alzheimer's disease. Melba was born February 13, 1921, at Perry, Oregon, the first child of David and Twila Johansen.

When Melba was about age 7, the family moved to Pondosa, Oregon, and later to Union, Oregon, where she graduated from Union High School in 1939. In 1944, Melba married Lyle E. Morehead of LaGrande. Lyle was a pilot in the Army Air Force, flying P-38 fighter planes. Not long after their marriage, he was sent overseas and was killed in Italy on May 17, 1944. He is buried in the U.S. Military cemetery at Florence, Italy.

Melba moved to Seattle to obtain employment and while there, she met Elmo Francis "Saint" St. Clair, who was serving in the United States Navy. They were married on June 1, 1946, at Longview, Washington. They settled in Taft, Oregon, and started what became a very successful carpet, linoleum and tile business called Custom Craft. Saint was very talented at what he did and Melba kept the store and did the book work. They were a very good team. They bought a very small home and over the years built it into a very lovely larger home, doing the designing and work themselves. They would remain there for over 60 years where they raised their two children, Dee Ann and Dennis. They were very active in the community and Saint served as volunteer Fire Chief for many years. Saint passed away in September of 2008 and Melba went to Maple Valley, Washington to live with her daughter Dee Ann Chamberlin. By this time Melba was suffering from Alzheimer's and after the unfortunate passing of her daughter, moved to Prestige Park Adult Home, where she received excellent care until her passing.

Melba was a very talented pianist and loved all kinds of music. She was an excellent homemaker and cook and loved having extended family and friends in for holidays and celebrations. We enjoyed many wonderful meals at their home. As a couple, Melba and Saint enjoyed going deer hunting, mostly into central Oregon and did that every Fall for many years. They made many trips to Eastern Oregon to visit family and friends in Union and Joseph and loved fishing the beautiful streams there.

Melba is survived by her son Dennis (Karen) St. Clair of Lebanon, Oregon; two granddaughters, Deborah (Jonathan) Price of Spokane, Washington and Ginger (Paul) Soule of Buckley, Washington; a grandson, Scott St. Clair (Josie) of Salem; and three great-grandchildren; a sister, Wanda Orton of Auburn, Washington; and a sister-in-law, Bonnie Deneke of Portland; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Elmo Francis "Saint" St. Clair; her parents David and Twila Johansen; a daughter, Dee Ann Chamberlin and her brother, David "Swede" Johansen. Melba will be greatly missed by all she leaves behind.
