Tuscania Survivors Reminisce

are the Rev. Harry Vanderburg, Henry Schwarting and Stanley E. Hult. The painting was loaned by a fellow survivor, G. E. Wiseman of McAllen, Tex., whose daughter, Mrs. Ray Ulsrud, lives in Tucson.

Five Survivors Of Torpedoed Ship Share Memories At Reunion Here

By ERIC CAVALIERO

Five men who have in common only an explosive moment in their lives relived that instant here last night.

The event occurred at 5:55 p.m., Feb. 5, 1918, when a torpedo from a German submarine slammed into the British ship, Tuscania.

The former liner carried about 2,400 troops, many of them members of the 32nd Division of the Wisconsin National Guard en route to France as part of the American Expeditionary Force.

SOME 246 MEN died when the ship sank in the dark waters of the North Atlantic, about 20 miles off the Irish coast. The five who got together at the Desert Inn were among the rescued.

They were Stanley E. Hult, 73, of 350 N. Silverbell Road; Wesley L. McCalley, 67, of 4514 E. Water St.; Floyd Longyear, 74, of 7355 N. La Oesta Ave.; Henry Schwarting, 71, of 544½ S.

ry Schwarting, 71, of 544½ S. 4th Ave., and the Rev. Harry Vanderburg, 71, a winter visitor from Mukwonago, Wis.

At the reunions, five different stories were told of how each withstood the torpedoing.

The veteran survivors told of men who jumped overboard and drowned; of the lifeboat that was being lowered and tipped, spilling eight soldiers to their deaths on the deck; of the boats that smashed on the rocks after successfully getting away from the stricken ship.

AND LONGYEAR had his own terse description of the difficulties of grabbing a rope in mid-ocean.

"It was," he said, "like trying to hold a pig by the ear."

Speaking of the explosion, the former sergeant, who served with the 20th Engineers, said: "You knew it was a torpedo the minute it hit. All I recall was a big bang. It seemed as though the ship moved two feet."

Hult took up the story:

"I got into a lifeboat," he said, "and right away it flooded. We hadn't put the plugs in the drains. The lifeboat didn't sink because of its watertight compartments. It took on enough water, however, so that we were in hip-deep.

"THERE WERE roughly 70 in the boat, all standing," added the former Chicagoan, who has lived in Tucson since last October. "We floated around for about 90 minutes before a British destroyer picked us up."

McCalley rolled his wheelchair over to the table.

"I was confined in the state-room with scarlet fever and pneumonia," he said. "My stay in the water left me with bad circulation. The doctors called it Berger's Disease. I went on to fight on four different fronts. But what happened that night must have had some after-effects — I've been in this wheelchair for 36 years."

"I was down in the hold cleaning my rifle," said Schwarting. "There was quite a jolt, and then I was in the water. I couldn't swim. But when I came up for the second time someone dragged me over to a lifeboat."

"I was just a soldier," said the Rev. Mr. Vanderburg. "But even in those days they used to call me 'the preacher.'"

"I WAS KNEELING down, going through my locker. Of course, someone always has to make fun of the preacher. And one of the boys asked me if I was praying."

"No," replied the young man who had immigrated from his native Holland a few years before the war, "I'm saving one of my souvenirs. I think we're going to be torpedoed."

Just then there was "a noise like thunder." The ship had been hit.

The Rev. Mr. Vanderburg leafed through his wallet and produced a faded photograph of a girl — a younger version of the woman by his side.

"And this," he said, holding up the picture and smiling at his wife, Gertrude, "was the souvenir I saved."

SHIPPING ON PEWAUKEE.

New Mail Boat and Other Craft Recently Launched.

Pewaukee Breeze:—One of the most beautiful boats ever set afloat on Pewaukee is the fine new gasoline launch built this winter and just placed in commission by Jesse A. White. This boat is 23 ft. long, has a 6 ft. frame and a 2½ in. draft. It will be propelled by a 3 cylinder gasoline engine and is capable of making 12 miles per hour.

Her owner, Mr. White, recently secured a three year contract from the United States government for carrying the mails about Pewaukee lake during the summer season. As Mr. Savoy's contract continues up to July 1, the new boat will not begin to carry mail until that time. During the week there will be two deliveries. On one the boat leaves Pewaukee at 7 A. M., and on the other at 6 P. M. On Sundays there will be only the morning delivery. This launch will not enter the passenger carrying trade but will be leased to private parties for trips about the lake.

Dr. J. P. McNary, Milwaukee, has just placed upon the lake a fleet and pretty 18 ft. gasoline launch.

H. C. Weaver has already been seen on the lake this spring with his bonny launch, Margaret.

Another 20 ft. gasoline launch has recently made her appearance—and a most pleasing appearance, too—on Pewaukee lake, the property of Nicholas Ligon, Milwaukee.

Elmwood, the beautiful steam launch of Alonzo Pauling, Milwaukee, has been thoroughly overhauled, and looks more trim and attractive than ever as she speeds through the rippling blue.

Another speedy and graceful launch is the Bonnie View, named after the rightly named port of Bonnie View, the property of H. H. Schwarting, Milwaukee.
