TAHLEQUAH BOY RESCUED.

Tahlequah, Okla., Feb. 15.—(Special.)
 —Benjamin George of Tahlequah, who was aboard the ill-fated Tuscania, is safe, according to a telegram received by his father from the adjutant general. "Officially reported that Benjamin George was saved from the Tuscania," is the way the telegram read. Young George went from Tahlequah in the first draft, and had been stationed at Camp McArthur, Waco, Tex. He is the son of A. J. George, farmer who lives eight miles northeast of this place.

A LETTER FROM TAHLEQUAH BOY

The following letter from B. F. George, who was on the transport sunk in the Irish sea some months ago, telegraphed his rescue and has not been heard from since, will be of interest to his many friends:

American Expeditionary Force,
France. June 15, 1918.

Mr. Less George,
Tahlequah, Okla., U. S. A.

Dear brother: Will write you a few lines to let you know that I am O K and hope you the same and let you know that I am still waiting to hear from you I haven't got a letter in five months. Have you written to me? I have written several letters to you. Tell all hello, and write to me.

Say, I was on the highest mountain the other day that I ever saw, where there is snow in June.

I want you to write me all the news. Tell Bert I would be glad to get the Tahlequah paper, the Cherokee County Democrat. The other boys are getting papers from their home town. The boys I am with are all from Michigan.

I can't think of anything more to write, so I will close, hoping to hear from you soon.

Bye bye,

PRIVATE B. F. GEORGE.

"Hand-to-Hand Fighting."

"When the Americans entered Juvigny they found a mass of ruins over a number of caves. About one thousand Germans were left behind for rear guard action. They turned machine gun fire on the Americans but the Yankee boys went at them with bayonets and there was deadly hand-to-hand fighting. The Germans ran to the caves for shelter, but the Yankees went right in after them and those of the boches not killed were brought out prisoners. Down in Tahlequah, Okla., the home folks have reason to be proud of Benjamin George for his heroism in cleaning out German machine gun nests."

Our Council of Defense met Friday night of last week and unfurled a service flag with nine stars in honor of the nine boys who have gone from our community to serve their country in arms. The names of the boys are Benjamin F. George, James Monroe Copeland, Will Fritts, Tobe Anthony, Jack Jones, Wilson Phillips, Fred Brock, Albert Harvey and Jess Whittle. The program committee had a nice program arranged which was enthusiastically applauded. Members present decided that every man in Needmore, District No. 36 who was subject to registration under the Man Power bill for the selective service, had performed their duty. Before the Council of Defense and Home Guards were organized in this district it was very common to hear shooting around the church house at night even during church services and especially along the road after services, but now no such unlawfulness is attempted. The highways are quiet and respected, and none of our neighbors have had to pay out hard earned money because their boys liked to shoot up things. Other places bothered with the pests above mentioned will do well to organize a Council of Defense and get busy.

TOURIST CAMP MAN IS ROBBED

H. N. Cook, who runs a tourist camp and filling station on highway 10, a few miles northeast of Tahlequah, was held up and robbed Wednesday night.

Three men stopped and bought some gas from him, then one of the men poked a gun against his ribs while another man went into his cabin and secured about $15, a pair of shoes, his glasses and his flashlight.

The third man remained in the car, and when the man came out of the cabin Cook was made to get in the car and was driven some distance up the highway and then released.

Cook got Frank George to drive him to Tahlequah, when he reported the affair to the officers. Deputy Sheriff Grover Stewart and Night Law Frank Edwards got on the trail of the stickup trio and followed them, it is said, to Pryor, where all trace of them was lost.

Cook said that one of the men was at his place a week ago and bought gas from him, and that he could readily recognize the man.

RHODES-PRITCHETT POST GIVES SECOND TERM TO OFFICERS

Service Report by W.A. Morris
Reveals Much Work Done by Service Officer.

SEVENTY NEW MEMBERS

Local Organization Successfully
Undertakes Many Difficult
Tasks During Past Year.

Rhodes Pritchett Post No. 50 American Legion, of Tahlequah, re-elected the entire personnel of officers to serve the organization during the coming year. John M. Littlefield is Post Commander; James A. Gray, vice-commander; Guy Stratton, adjutant; A. E. Robertson, finance officer; Paul H. Darter, historian; Ben E. Sherman, chaplain; and W. A. Morris, service officer. Hugh Bland is present county commander.

The Legionnaires are one of the liveliest organizations in this county and have tackled several difficult jobs in the past, always putting them over in a creditable manner.

The activity of the Legion, part of which has not been called to public attention, was shown by the recent report of W. A. Morris, service officer. Morris during the past year has handled 103 service cases since November 1 1931. Of these cases the major items included the securing of relief for disabled veterans and their families to the extent of $280. This was all in denominations of from $10 to $40. Many smaller contributions were made but no record kept of the lesser amounts.

There are four relief cases still pending according to Morris' report. Five veterans have received emergency hospitalization at the Veterans Hospital in Muskogee.

The local post has also received two headstones for veterans whose graves had gone unmarked. Three adjusted certificates have been secured by the local service officer during the past year, for members.

One of the most interesting and probably the most greatly appreciated accomplishments of Morris during the past year was the location of a veteran. For eight years the father, a resident of this county, had awaited word from his son. Appealing to Morris to conduct a search for the veteran, the father learned in a short time the young veteran was in Nevada. This was accomplished through the various veterans bureaus throughout the nation. Since the location of the son, he and the father have corresponded several times.

At present their seventy paid up members for 1932 in the local Legionnaire post, however this amount will probably be much larger within the next month or so, as the present figure is but about one half of the past year's membership.

Local members include, Jess Alexander, Thomas W. Beamer, George F. Bengt, Hugh M. Bland, Grover Bishop, R. M. Hunyard, Doc Cole, James H. Carter, Dewey Carlile, James Cody, Cadill, Oscar Chandler, Daniel Cobb, Martin Cochran, Henry L. Cowan, L. L. Culver, Harold Curleychief, Paul H. Darter, G. B. Davis, Thomas S. Dunlap, Arthur C. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jones of Oklahoma City have purchased the B. F. George farm north of Tahlequah on Highway No. 10 and will move here about the first of January. Mr. Jones has been engaged in newspaper circulation work the past several years and has also worked in special merchandising plans with retail firms. He says he intends to "rest up" now and sort of retire and thought that the beautiful hills around Tahlequah would be restful and the people nice to live among.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every day the Times-Democrat's inquiring reporter asks a timely question of five persons picked at random.

TODAY'S QUESTION

To what do you attribute Muskogee county's inability to take its rightful third place in business and financial fields as the third most populous county in Oklahoma?

THE ANSWERS

B. F. George, Tahlequah: "Approximately 50 percent of the reason is that they don't try hard enough."

Fred Reid, Reid Hotel: "I think they need lower prices on electrical power. I come from a place where they had cheap power, and there was a lot of manufacturing there."

Jack Hastings, 101½ Court: "A little bit of everything, I guess."

M. A. Briggs, 133 South Third: "It needs a change in the form of government to bring some industry here."

C. A. Heath, 210 North O: "I'd say, local politics."

Find A Grave: 8666664

Mother: Margaret Elizabeth McCabe George, Apr 1866 Marion Co. AR – 24 Feb 1918 Erick, Beckham OR.

Her death date has been found in two online family trees as 24 Feb 1918 in Erick, Beckham OK.

However, Benjamin mentions only a father dependent on him financially on his 5 Jun 1917 WWI draft registration.

It would seem a likely news story that his mother had died shortly after Tuscania sunk on 5 Feb 1918, especially as the news if Benjamin had lived or died took days to reach his father - and there does not appear to be any news coverage of the death of his mother.

Unless there was some type of estrangement? Her husband Andrew lists himself as widowed in the 1910 census. And in Cherokee Co. OK county court in Nov 1915, husband Andrew petitions the court for “guardianship” of his & Margaret’s youngest child, son John Leslie George, who is a minor. It would seem that a father does not petition to be guardian of his son unless that son were legally not in his care.
