BURDEN OF FINDING NUMBER IS ON MEN

Final Preliminaries of the Draft Being Completed — Drawing to Take Place Day Last List Reaches Washington.

The registration roll of Kiowa county, which is being published by the Democrat-Chief is nearly completed, and contains the number, name and address of every man registered in this county.

Every registered man in the nation must make it his business to find out his "key" number. The burden of this task is placed squarely on the registered man. He is instructed to watch the printed and posted list of names and find out his own number. In Kiowa county The Democrat-Chief will be the only paper publishing the complete list and all persons are urged to preserve their list, as it will be impossible to supply the large number of back copies that the registered men, their relatives and friends will ask for.

Continuing from the last issue, additional names are listed below:

- ROOSEVELT, OKLA.
- 1410. Mounce Lloyd Harrison, Roosevelt, Okla.
  - 1411. Albert Roscoe Harrison, Roosevelt, Okla.
  - 1412. James Benton Harrison, Roosevelt, Okla.
  - 1413. Guy Carlton Harrison, Roosevelt, Okla.

LIST OF OKLAHOMANS.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Complete lists of passengers aboard the transport Tuscania which the war department finished making public yesterday show that there were 138 Oklahoma men among the 2,177 military passengers aboard the British liner when she was submarined off the coast of Ireland, Tuesday afternoon.

Whether any of the Oklahoma men are among the casualties is not known and probably will not be known for two or three days, until after the names of all survivors who have been landed at a number of Irish ports have been checked against the transport's passenger list.

Most of the Oklahoma men are from scattering units in the Twentieth engineers, 165th depot brigade and the 157th and 158th infantry.

Although first reports stated most of the Tuscania's passengers were from Michigan and Wisconsin, the passenger lists made public yesterday show the men were from at least a dozen states.

The following list of names of Oklahoma men aboard the Tuscania is taken from the passenger list compiled by the war department at the port of embarkation, and is complete. The names of the men, their next of kin and their emergency addresses are as follows:

Albert R. Harrison, Mrs. Ellen Harrison, mother, R. F. D. No. 3, Roosevelt

the public schools in Oklahoma City,
Hobart and Roosevelt. On November 11, with Albert Harrison, a neighboring lad, he volunteered his services
"to the colors" and was sent to Camp

CLARENCE ANDERSON IS AMONG SURVIVORS

Two Other Kiowa County Boys Known to have been Saved from Tuscania —Geo. Perry Not Heard From

(From Monday's Daily.)

Clarence O. Anderson of this city who was aboard the ill-starred Tuscania, which was torpedoed by a German submarine last week, near the Irish coast, is reported by the Government as having survived.

The parents of the young man telegraphed to the War Department Saturday afternoon but received no direct answer. However, they received word from Oklahoma City announcing the fact of the young man's safety.

Oscar McCollum, of Lone Wolf, and Albert R. Harrison, of R. F. D. No. 3, Roosevelt, were likewise rescued. George C. Perry, of Lone Wolf, has not been heard from, and, of course, it is not known yet whether he has survived or not.

The War Department is publishing the list of the dead and survivors as fast as they are received. So it is expected that all will be in within a very short time.

PERRY AND KINGHAM IN LIST OF MISSING

Lone Wolf and Roosevelt Soldiers Not in Register of Tuscania Survivors—Thirty Oklahomans Believed Lost.

George C. Perry, son of Mrs. C. A. Perry, of Lone Wolf, and Merl S. Kingham, listed as being from Roosevelt, Texas, but in reality from Roosevelt, Kiowa county, Oklahoma, are in the list of the thirty Oklahomans, missing since the Tuscania was torpedoed off the coast of Ireland, Wednesday February 6.

It was not known in Hobart, until Tuesday morning that Merl S. Kingham, listed as being from Texas, was from Kiowa county. He enlisted a few months ago with Albert R. Harrison, of Roosevelt. Both remained together during their military service and embarked on the Tuscania. Harrison is listed as being among the survivors.

Howard E. Bowman, of Rocky, is also among the missing.

Late reports show that Otto Bussamus of Indianahoma, was rescued.

MERL KINCHAM AMONG MISSING!

Other Kiowa County Boys Among Survivors of the Ill-Fated Tuscania.

Merl Kingham, of Roosevelt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kingham, who was aboard the ill-starred Tuscania, which was torpedoed by a German submarine off the coast of Ireland on Tuesday February 8, is reported by the Government to be among the missing. His parents here have, however, received no word except that he was aboard the vessel. It is still possible that he is among the survivors and that in the mixture of names he has been miss named, or that he may have been picked up and not yet reported.

Albert R. Harrison has wired his mother here of his safety. George Perry, of Lone Wolf, has not been heard from. Other survivors from Kiowa county are: Clarence O. Anderson, Hobart and Oscar McCollum, of Lone Wolf.

Tuscania Survivor Writes to His Mother

Dear Mother—
Well at last will try and drop you a few lines to let you know that I still am alive and well. Had an awful experience, though. Was on the liner Tuscania which was sunk by a German U. boat, but myself and Merle were saved. I am O. K. and am feeling fine at present. Never lost very much of our company. At the sinking of the Tuscania, we only lost seven men that is seven dead and four missing, making eleven men lost out of my company, while the company's on board lost as high as fifty-two men, so you see that my company lost just about as few as any companies on board.
Your loving son,

Albert Harrison Writes.

Somewhere in France, Aug. 21, '18

Mrs. Ellen Harrison.

Dear Mother and All:

Will write you a few lines to let you know that I am well and in the very best of health. Truly hope you are all the same. I received your letters a couple of days ago and was very proud to get them and the names of the boys you sent me and would also be glad if you would send me the address of some of them. I also received the inquiry about me and my health you made through the Red Cross. Don't be worried about me for I have been through hades and haven't got a scratch.

Tell Bob that I have only four notches on my rifle but I am not sure but that I could have four more but I wasn't certain so didn't put them there, but I hope to make it forty before I start home. Mother, if Jim hasn't joined the army you keep him at home as long as possible and have him put out as much wheat as possible. That is easier raised and harvested than anything else and to keep all the cattle and mule colts that you can get pasture for. We all hope the war will be over soon and when I come home I want a young mule and a yearling to ride when I first get there. Tell all the relatives that I am just like I was when I left there except that I have gotten used to walking and when we move I carry all my belongings on my back.

Mother, I will send you my picture so you can see I am in good health. I could tell you a good deal more than I can write and I think by the time I get home I will have a good story. Mr. Young has been dead almost a month. You can read the papers and tell more about what we are doing than I can write. Anything you read about the Rainbow Division or 42nd (they are both one) and I have the honor of being a member of this Division and I am proud of it. Don't worry as I feel safe, almost as safe as if I was at home and don't worry the Red Cross with your inquiries because if anything happens to me you will be notified at once by the government but I you will never be notified of any mishap.

The Dutch are not so bad a lot as you read about. When you get close to them with your rifle and bayonet to understand what they say they throw their weapons down and stick up their hands and hollow kamerad, be merciful on me, and you are just as safe as though you would be in Paris so long as you don't turn your back to them, and you can rest assured that I won't. Well, I have written as much as I can get in this envelope. Don't expect a letter every week for there are times we can't get mail off, but I will write every chance I have. When you write tell me how things are over there. Butter is $1 per pound here, eggs a franc a piece when you can get them.

Well, I will close with best wishes to the family and relatives and friends. Goodbye.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison.
Dear Mother and family:

I have just got some of the letters you wrote me in February and I will answer them. Well these few lines leave me well. Hope they find you all the same. Well I have been on another big front since I wrote you last but everything is going nice so far. Say, you tell Mr. Lackey I got his papers he sent me and I appreciated them very much and tell him to send me some more for we very seldom ever get any papers from Oklahoma and we have quite a lot of Oklahoma boys in our company. Jim Latt is also in our Company. He said to tell May to write him a letter. Jim asked me to get you to write his mother and give her his address. He is well and in good health. His address is the same as mine.

You asked me about my allotment. Have you got all of them or not. If you miss any of them you let me know at once. You watch my Olince insurance and keep it paid up if possible for I may need it when I come back. You tell Bob that I got the letter he wrote me in February and I will answer it soon.

Well mother I am sending you my picture with one of my friends. He lived at Sauer Lake Texas.

Well as I haven't time to write much I will close so answer real soon, from your son.

Nellie Harrison Tells Brother She is Mother of the Child.

At the court of inquiry several days ago the mystery surrounding the finding of the dead child near Twin Mountains was cleared up when Albert Harrison, brother of Nellie Harrison, 19, told the story related to him by his sister. According to Albert's story the child was born to his sister while she was alone in the pasture and lost there as she was unable to take it to the house and that when she later returned it was gone.

The girl was arrested on a charge of manslaughter and her hearing set for Wednesday, March 31. According to the story told by Albert at the inquiry Delbert Ferris, now in New Mexico, is the father of the child.

GIRL ADMITS MOTHERHOOD

Dead Infant Found Near Twin Mountains Was Probably Hers—Held For Preliminary Trial.

The mystery surrounding the dead infant found a few days ago near Twin Mountains has in a measure been solved.

Lilly Harrison, aged about nineteen, who lives with her mother in that vicinity, was brought to Hobart Saturday by the County Attorney and given a thorough grilling. She admitted that she had recently been confined, but did not know whether the infant found on a farm adjoining her mother's was hers or not.

Soon after the child was born another brother of the girl, James Harrison, committed suicide, and it was during the inquest that was held over his body that Albert's suspicion was aroused, so he went to his sister and obtained a confession from her. And last week while a court of inquiry was being held at Roosevelt, and while this particular question was being probed, he told the officers what he had learned from his sister. Hence the girl was ordered to come to Hobart Saturday, to undergo a quiz, with the results as above indicated.

An information charging manslaughter was lodged against her, and the date for the preliminary trial was fixed before Justice of the Peace Andrus at Roosevelt on March 31.

In her statement she said that on Feb. 19, this year, she went to the pasture for the cows, and while there became very ill, and that the child, when born was dead, and, so far as she knew, never breathed or cried; that two or three hours afterwards, when she was able to walk, she returned to the house. She also stated that the child was a boy, while the one found on the adjoining farm was a girl.

She remained at the house two or three days, she said, and when her strength had sufficiently returned went back to the pasture where she had abandoned the child, but was unable to find it.

She also stated that she had not been in the field where the body was found and could not account for its being there.

Suspicion was cast upon two or three persons in the county, but it remained for a brother of the girl, Albert Harrison, to divulge the facts.

GIRL MOTHER HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Miss Nellie Harrison Tells Harrowing Story to County Attorney Hays—Disgrace Cause of Brother's Suicide Thursday

With a confession more harrowing and revolting than often comes to light, the mystery surrounding the finding of a new born, girl baby, in a lonely field, near the twin mountains 20 miles south of Hobart, is no nearer a solution than on the day the infant was discovered and reported to the county attorney's office here, although Miss Nellie Harrison, 19 year old child mother, who lives near the scene has confessed to giving birth to a child, and leaving it on the ground in a pasture near her home.

If the Harrison girl's story is true

If the Harrison girl's story is true, and county officers have no reason to doubt it, it is evident that two babies were born in the neighborhood, and only one of the cases have come to light. Miss Harrison is positive of the sex of her child, and says it was a boy, and was dead when brought into the world. She knows nothing of what became of it, as three days later she retraced her steps to the scene and the little body was gone.

The nude baby found on March 18, was examined by Dr. Ritter of Cole Springs, who stated its sex as a girl, and the length of the time it had been dead as ten days or two weeks. On the other hand Nellie Harrison says her baby was born on February 19, and she was positive of its sex.

Following the finding of the dead infant in a secluded spot on the lonely prairie March 17, peace officers of the county went to Roosevelt on March 18, and conducted a court of inquiry. This inquiry resulted in the filing of 31 informations for gambling and revealed the fact that two or three other women in thereabouts, where the child was found were in a delicate condition.

Albert Harrison a brother of the girl, was in Roosevelt the day of the investigation and heard enough to know that suspicion pointed to his sister. That night he went to his mother's home nearby and pointedly asked for the truth. After some hesitation his sister told him practically the same story as she told County Attorney Hayes. The disgrace was too much for another brother, James, and he took a gun and killed himself.

In substance the story told by Nellie Harrison to the County Attorney and of which no record was kept is as follows:

That on February 19 she gave birth to a child in their pasture, near a water tank. She left the house about the middle of the afternoon, presumably to drive in the cattle. Near a gully she became very sick, and for two or three hours she was prostrated and in a semi-conscious condition, and didn't know what she was doing; that she believed the child was born dead as she never heard any crying, or at least when she got up the infant was dead. After this she went back to the house, and in two or three days went back to the place and the body was gone.

The girl named the father as a man by the name of Fears, who is not now a resident of the community. She says she advised him of her condition and was told not to worry as he would marry her. She says no one was present at the birth but herself, and she is certain the baby was a boy as she made an examination before leaving the place.

She also related the incidents that occurred in her home on the evening the court of inquiry was held in Roosevelt. She says her brother, Albert, heard of the proceedings connecting his sister with the finding of the infant and came to their home that night to ascertain the facts. He asked if the statements made at the court of inquiry were true, and for some time no one answered. Finally she said she was the mother of the baby, and told him the same story she told here Saturday afternoon to the county attorney. On learning the truth from his sister, she says her brother, James, took a gun and killed himself.

Justice Andrus of Roosevelt, who held a coroner's inquest of the body of the child and that of James Harrison summoned Albert Harrison as a witness in the first inquest over the baby. This inquest was attended by Dr. Ritter of Cold Springs, who examined the body and said it was a girl and had been dead ten days or two weeks. Evidence brought out at the inquest also disclosed the facts that at least two women in the community were in a delicate condition.

After the confession was made County Attorney Hayes drew an information in Justice Andrus court, charging the girl with man slaughter. She was placed in custody of her brother, Albert, and taken to Roosevelt and arraigned. She plead not guilty, and was released on a bond of $500 for her appearance March 31 at a preliminary examination.

In all her talk to the prosecutor the girl was free to answer questions, but displayed a great deal of ignorance in all matters pertaining to the case. She was not positive as to the dates and places. It is the opinion of the officers that the developments from the court of inquiry opened an entirely new case, if Miss Harrison's statements can be relied on. Further investigations are to be made.

GAME DEPUTY UNDER ARREST

It was reported today that Deputy Game Warden A. R. Harrison after a hearing before a justice of the peace at Rio Chama was held to the action of the district court on the charge of assaulting one J. O. Sandoval. Harrison alleges that he found Sandoval hunting turkeys on January 17 on the Polvadera grant at 4:30 in the afternoon, that Sandoval could produce no license, that he attempted to place him under arrest and Sandoval cocked and aimed a rifle at him, after which he, Harrison, took the gun away from Sandoval and Sandoval fled. Sandoval's home is in Abiquiu. Harrison it said will appeal to the game protective association to support his action.

Woman files malpractice suit

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — A woman who contends her husband died after he received an overdose of radiation at St. Joseph Hospital has filed a $6 million malpractice lawsuit.

Diane Harrison, wife of the late Jerry Gene Harrison, filed the lawsuit Thursday in district court. Harrison, 40, died three years ago.

Named as defendants in the lawsuit were Drs. H.J. Murrell and Doyle Simmons, their employer, X-Ray Associates, Dr. Livingston Parsons and Marvin Sachs, a radiotherapist.

The lawsuit alleges medical malpractice, negligence, misrepresentation, fraud, concealment, lack of informed consent and battery on the part of the defendants.

The lawsuit is the latest of a number of similar ones involving X-Ray Associates and radiation treatments at the hospital.

The lawsuit said Harrison was being treated for cancer of the pancreas, "despite multiple biopsies which were benign."

The lawsuit contends that in April 1979, Harrison was operated on and implanted with radioactive iodine seeds on orders from Murrell and Simmons. The lawsuit contends the doses were calculated by Sachs.

"Mr. Harrison received three times the radiation dose that has been given experimentally to patients that are suffering from cancer of the pancreas," the lawsuit said.

Harrison subsequently "died of complications of radiation injury and multiple surgeries," the lawsuit said. "He did not die from possible cancer of the pancreas."

Another St. Joseph Lawsuit Settled

An out-of-court settlement has ended yet another lawsuit against St. Joseph Hospital concerning injuries allegedly caused by an overdose of radiation.

A spokesman for state District Judge Richard Traub, who was scheduled to try the case this month, and plaintiff's attorney Stephen Durkovich confirmed the settlement. Durkovich said the terms are confidential and had no other comment.

The suit was brought in 1983 by Robert Cotitta, who sought more than $2.5 million in damages.

It said he was treated with radiation, beginning in December 1970 when he was 16, for the remnants of a benign tumor near his spine and claimed that radiation was delivered at an excessive rate during a month of treatment, causing total paralysis up to the midspine.

At least one of the non-hospital defendants had been dismissed before the settlement.

In a development Tuesday in another radiation case, state District Judge Gerald Cole granted a defendant's motion to disinter the body of the man whose death is the subject of the suit.

The disinterment of Jerry Gene Harrison, who died in January 1981 at the age of 40, was sought to determine whether he had pancreatic cancer, which is an issue in a 1983 suit brought by Diane Harrison, his widow.

Mrs. Harrison alleges he died of complications from radiation injuries and multiple surgeries, not from pancreatic cancer.

Hospital Settles With Widow On Radiation Overdose Suit

The widow of an Albuquerque man who died in 1981 has settled out of court with St. Joseph Hospital in a 1983 lawsuit that claims he received an overdose of radiation.

Other defendants, however, remain in lawsuits brought by Diane Harrison that are scheduled to go to trial April 14 before state District Judge Richard Traub.

The case, consisting of two consolidated suits against different groups of defendants, would be the first tried out of almost 30 radiation suits filed since 1980. Most have settled out of court and a few others are pending.

Mrs. Harrison, widow of Jerry Gene Harrison, who died in January 1981 at the age of 40, alleges he died of complications from radiation injuries and multiple surgeries for pancreatic cancer.

Traub dismissed the claims against St. Joseph on a joint motion by the hospital and Mrs. Harrison that said all issues had been settled.

Suit Alleging Radiation Overdose Settled

One of the last remaining lawsuits alleging a radiation overdose was settled out of court Monday just as the trial was about to begin.

Attorneys for Diane Harrison, widow of an Albuquerque man who died in 1981, and four remaining defendants informed state District Judge Richard Traub of the settlement as his staff was awaiting the start of jury selection.

Steven Schonberg, Mrs. Harrison's attorney, confirmed late Monday that his client will receive money in the settlements reached Monday and also from her settlement about two weeks ago with St. Joseph Hospital. He said he could not discuss amounts.

Her settlement Monday was with Drs. Doyle Simmons, H.J. Murrell and Livingston Parsons, and X-Ray Associates, a professional association.

Mrs. Harrison alleged in two consolidated malpractice lawsuits that her husband, Jerry Gene Harrison, died of complications from radiation injuries and multiple surgeries for pancreatic cancer. Harrison, a 40-year-old heavy-equipment operator and father of four, died in January 1981.

J. E. Harrison Drives Mules From Arkansas to this Place

Deputy Sheriff Radford, of Southwestern Arkansas came to Roosevelt Monday night to get J. E. Harrison, whom Officer Ray Clark had in charge and who is wanted in Arkansas to answer a charge of obtaining property under false pretense. Harrison is said to have purchased a wagon and team and to have given a check for $402 to pay for the property and at the time had no funds in the bank. He drove the team through to his residence northwest of Roosevelt. He was accompanied by a son of the woman from whom he purchased the team and also two other young men. He had also given a check to the same party for $25 for a gun. The property was all recovered by Mr. Clark and turned over to the sheriff of this county.

Harrison has a wife and several children living on a rented farm five miles from Roosevelt. He had just returned from Arkansas when arrested.

Jim Harrison Suicides!

Jim Harrison, aged about 30, was found dead, with a 25 20 calibre rifle at his side in a pasture between his home and that of his brother 8 miles southwest of town last Thursday evening about 6 o'clock. He had been missing from his home since early morning.

A jury impanelled by Judge S. E. Andrus brought in a verdict of suicide. The cause of the suicide was not determined but it is thought that worry over his sister's troubles caused him to commit the act. Jim is a brother of Nellie Harrison. In company with his brother Albert, Jim had had a consultation with the girl the night before he committed suicide.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon with burial in Centerville cemetery, Rev. Thacker officiating.

Girl Of Mt. Park Community Is The Prosecuting Witness.

Hob Mills, aged 28 years, was arrested north of Carnegie Friday by the Sheriff's force and brought to Hobart where he is wanted to answer to the serious charge of bastardy. The complaining witness is a girl living near Mt. Park. Mills formerly lived in the south part of Kiowa county but recently moved over north of Carnegie where he was when arrested Friday. ## MILLS IS CAUGHT MARRIES HIS VICTIM

Hob Mills, who was charged with illicit relations with Miss Icy Harrison, the girl who was staying here and going to school, was arrested near Carnegie and landed in jail awaiting a trial for bastardy. Tuesday he agreed to marry his victim and the ceremony was performed by the county judge.

Miss Harrison under a close examination, admitted last week that she had had immoral relations with Mills, with the promise that he would marry her Christmas. Christmas came but no Mills, and her action and appearance caused the school faculty to put her under a test, and after a short time she acknowledged her relations with Mills, and his promise.

Immediately the county officers were informed with the above results.

SWORE THE BRIDEGRROOM

(From Monday's Daily.)

Hob Mills and Miss Ice Harrison were married at the court house this afternoon, Judge John Sam Carpenter officiating.

Mills, it will be remembered, was arrested last week upon a complaint sued out by his bride, and in default of an appearance bond of $1500 was confined in the county jail.

Since the trial would not come up for hearing before April, the defendant evidently thought that marriage, since it would get him out of trouble, was preferable to languishing in the county bastle so long. So arrangements were made and the marriage was the result.

Judge Carpenter made a departure when he performed the marriage ceremony. He had Mills take a very solemn and far-reaching oath—to love, cherish, protect and support the "woman whom he held by the right hand." He also had him take an oath that he would support and not abandon her.

Mills seemed willing to swear to anything reasonable in order to be married and get rid of the charge with which he was confronted.

After he was duly married he was released from custody and the newly weds went their way rejoicing.

A LIFE SENTENCE FOR JOHN CURTIS BARBER

THE JURY RETURNED THEIR VER-DICT OF "GUILTY" YESTERDAY
AT 3:30 P. M.

JURY ONLY TOOK ONE BALLOT

THEY RETURNED TO THE COURT ROOM AFTER AN ABSENCE OF ONLY 30 MINUTES.

Defendant Heard Verdict without a Change of Contenance—Able Speeches by Attorneys on Both Sides.

"We, the jurors in the trial of the case of John Curtis Barber indicted for the murder of Marion K. Farrall, find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree and assess his punishment at imprisonment for life in the State penitentiary."

This was the verdict rendered yesterday on the first ballot
by the jury in the John Curtis Barber trial for murder after being out just 30 minutes.

The case has been on trial for three days and developed unusual interest.

The defendant remained unmoved when the jury announced the verdict.

To deputy sheriff James Pierce the convicted man said as he was being taken back to the jail: "I had rather have this than 15 years; it is a whole lot better than it might have been, as the verdict doesn't say hard labor."

The prisoner is of the opinion that a life sentence does not include labor with it. In fact the convict takes the matter quite in a jolly vein.

The testimony in the Barber case being all in the judge at 9.30 proceeded to instruct the jury, his instructions covering a number of conditions and were far reaching and exhaustive covering in a most complete manner every possible phase of the case.

The typewritten instructions require 340 lines, or 5,670 words, which if printed in The Herald body type,

Attorney J. D. Lydick's Address to The Jury.

At the conclusion of the judge's instructions to the jury Attorney J. D. Lydick for the state presented in a concise and brilliant manner the array of testimony given by witnesses for the state.

He described the tragedy in eloquent words that composed a verbal picture so clear and salient that there was none who listened to him who could conceive the probability of a jury of intelligence failing to convict the prisoner at the bar.

His peroration in which the death, the burial and attendance at the grave by virtually all the populace of Shawnee the grief stricken parents, wife and orphaned children, brought tears and sobs from many in the audience including some of the jurors.

The close of his address was a master piece of eloquence and rhetoric, and the impression created was profound.

Mr. Lydick has made an enviable record as a lawyer and pleader.

record as a lawyer and pleader.
Counsel for the Defense Presents His Case.

Attorney C. C. Pittman followed Mr. Lydick and made an able effort for his client.

He had poor material upon which to work, as he knew from the first that there was little hope of acquittal; he is lawyer enough to know that the testimony of the state was overwhelming, and it was evident that the most he could hope for was a lighter sentence than murder.

Counsel endeavored to show that the testimony of the members of the Shawnee police force was dictated by Chief of Police Sims, and also minimized the evidence of the fire department witnesses as inconsistent and contradictory.

All told Mr. Pittman did well with poor material, the depositions of the defendant himself being little alluded to. His chief effort was to establish a reasonable doubt of the defendant's guilt impugning the testimony of the two girls and Tom Barrett and applying most of his argument to proving that there had been another man hidden who had struck the murderous blow. He ceased speaking at exactly 12 M.

Prosecuting Attorney Biggers Closes The Argument.

Virgil R. Biggers closed the argument for the state, beginning his address to the jury, after the judge at the request of the counsel for the defense had read an additional instruction to the jury in reference to remoteness in time of any threats uttered by the defendant.

Mr. Biggers' review of the evidence for the state was forcible and logical. He literally tore in tatters every item of testimony adduced by the defense, and showed the absurdity of the defense assuming that some enemy of Marion K. Farrall should lie in wait concealed from sight, waiting for the chance of the chief of police coming into the office of the transfer company, or waiting in a cellar way or behind a pile of boxes or lumber that in all human probability he might never pass in 15 years.

Mr. Biggers resented and flung back in vigorous words the insinuations of the counsel for the defense that the state had any need of perjured or influenced testimony. His argument was virile and conclusive and knocked out any hopes the defense may have felt.

Mr. Biggers, like Mr. Lydick, made a touching appeal for justice, not only as an enforcement of the law but as a safe guard to the people in the future.

Jury Retires.

Mr. Biggers argument closed at 2:40, he having talked an hour and ten minutes, and at 2:50 the jury retired to the jury room armed with a copy of the grand jury indictment and blank forms of verdict that could be rendered under the law.

The jury was out just thirty minutes having taken but one ballot in which every one of the 12 voted. John Curtis Barber guilty of murder in the first degree, and assessed the punishment at life imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

Prisoner Unmoved by Verdict.

At 3:30 they were recalled to the court room and their verdict was read by the court clerk. Each and every juror personally answered to his name and acknowledged this to be his verdict.

The prisoner appeared utterly unconcerned and stolid. Not a muscle of his face showing any emotion when the verdict was read.

There is universal satisfaction at the verdict rendered and high praise is accorded the jurors who rendered a righteous verdict that will redound to the good name of the new state of Oklahoma.

After the verdict was rendered several of the jurors expressed themselves very freely, some of them admitted that only reason the death penalty was not imposed was that really no man saw Barber strike the fatal blow and that while all the testimony pointed to his guilt, still they felt there might have been a possibility of some one else being the assassin and that he might yet be found.

It is a case of at least one honest and upright jury.

John Curtis Barber Again Asks Freedom

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 1.—(AP)—John Curtis Barber, oldest prisoner in time under sentence at the Oklahoma penitentiary in McAlester, today petitioned the state criminal court of appeals for his release. Barber said the state had no jurisdiction in his case.

Barber was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of a Shawnee man Sept. 17, 1907. He alleges that the state of Oklahoma never had jurisdiction in his case because he was convicted under the territorial laws existing in September, 1907. He also alleges he was sentenced to the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing and that Oklahoma had no authority to return him after statehood, Nov. 16, 1907.

The state pardon and parole board has turned down numerous clemency pleas by Barber. He escaped from the prison several times and remained free the last time for 19 years.

You are correct. However, ... what makes this complicated a bit is that Della Sarah Chance is my Great Grandmother who was married to John Curtis Barber, and then she married my Great Uncle, Ben Harrison. Della's daughter Nolan is my grandmother and she was married to Charlie Harrison, my dad's dad. So i linked the picture to Della as well as to G. Uncle Ben.

TRANSCRIPT FILED

A transcript of the proceedings of Justice S. E. Andrus court at Roosevelt, covering the case of the state vs. Nellie Harrison, charged with killing her new born infant, has been received by Ed Denison, clerk of the courts. The defendant waived a preliminary examination and was held to the district court under a bond of $500.

the term.
Nellie Harrison, charged with manslaughter, in connection with the finding of an infant body, in a pasture near her home, entered a plea of not guilty, and her present bond was allowed to stand until the case is reached in the district court.

In the meantime the case against Nellie Harrison, charged with manslaughter, was taken up. This is a case wherein the defendant is accused of having abandoned her newborn baby in a pasture near her home in the vicinity of Twin Mountains, permitting it to die from exposure.

The defendant did not go on the witness stand to testify in her own behalf. In a statement to the county attorney last spring, soon after the baby was born, she stated that it was born dead, and that when she ascertained this fact she returned to the house and said nothing about the matter. Later, she said, she returned to the place where she had left it, but was unable to find it.

The remains of an infant were found in an adjoining field not far away, but she denied that it was her baby's for hers was a boy and the one found was a girl, she said.

There was no evidence produced in court during the trial to prove that the defendant's baby had ever lived or that the remains of the baby found by neighbors were those of her child. Hence the failure to establish the corpus delicti. The result was an acquittal.

HOUSE BURNED

The house on the Bird Miller farm, three miles northwest of town occupied by Albert Ferris and family, was burned to the ground Wednesday morning early, with all the household contents. The Ferris family had come to town early that morning so that Delbert Ferris could catch the train for Hobart where he was to leave for training camp and the house caught fire presumably from fire left in a stove, with the result as above stated. A liberal donation was made up for the family Thursday.

Siblings: Albert was the oldest child of his father's 2nd family.

- Icy Lee Harrison Mills Tucker, 9 Dec 1891 Ravenna, Fannin TX - 26 Jul 1972 Paris, Lamar TX. - Age 18 in 1910, where she is listed as Ica P. - Newspapers in 1914 recounted that unmarried Icy was determined to be pregnant and had given birth to an illegitimate child, Willie Virgil Mills on 5 Mar 1914 in Roosevelt, Kiowa OK, which resulted in the arrest of Hob Mills (aka Hobbs Mills) for "bastardy." Icy had become intimate with Hob Mills while she was attending school in Mountain Park, Kiowa OK. Icy said Mills had promised her they would marry at Christmas 1913, but he did not. In lieu of legal action, he chose to be married to Icy on 27 Jan 1914 by a circuit court judge who "departed" from the usual marriage ceremony. The groom was told by the judge that he should love, cherish, protect & support the "woman whom he held by the right hand." He also made Mills swear under oath that he would support Icy & not abandon her. The reporter noted that Mills seemed willing to swear "to anything reasonable" to escape the legal charges against him. - The marriage did not last long. - On 1 Oct 1919 in Hobart, Kiowa OK, "Mrs. Icy Harrison" married Walter Tucker (1886-1958, F: 49905693). - She died in St. Joseph Hospital, Paris TX, resident of 710 DeShong Dr. of a myocardial infarction. Her TX death certificate lists her as the daughter of Joseph Harrison & Helen Sims. - Her son Willie Virgil Mills died 27 Aug 1990 in Roosevelt, Kiowa OK. - Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Paris, Lamar TX. F: 49905693
- Benjamin Thomas Harrison, 15 Sep 1884 Bonham, Fannin TX - 14 Nov 1970 Clinton, Custer OK. - Husband of Della Sarah ("Dell") Chance (1890-1981, F: 38002931) whom he married in 2 Aug 1919 in Hobart, Kiowa OK. - Della Chance had previously been married to John Curtis Barber (1885-1950, buried in the Department of Corrections Prison Cemetery, F: 13736024) & Frank N. Smith (whom she married 10 Apr 1909 in Hobart, Kiowa OK. John

Curtis Barber was sent to the OK penitentiary in 1908, convicted on 17 Sep 1907 of murder. When he died in 1950, he was the oldest prison inmate in the McAlester State Penitentiary, having entered the prison in 1908, the year it opened; he had been incarcerated in Leavenworth KS in the interval between his sentencing & the prison's opening. – John Barber applied many times for parole, which was always denied. At one point, he did escape & had remained free for 19 years. This probably explains how he managed to marry Fay Sprinkle on 30 Aug 1921 in Tulsa Co. OK. – Della & John Curtis Barber had several children, among them a daughter named Nolen (Nola) Barber, who married Benjamin Harrison's brother Charlie Noah Harrison. – Although born with the birth surname of Barber, Nolan Chance is the name used on her children's AZ birth certificates. – Veteran tombstone, service from OK, private in US Army in WWI. – Buried in Arapaho Cemetery, Arapaho, Custer OK. F: 38002975

- Joseph Winchester ("Shorty"/"Joe") Harrison, who became Darwood Ward Dalley & is buried under that name, 8 Jun 1898 Ravenna, Fannin TX – 11 Jan 1981 Austin, Travis Co. TX. – SSN 461-22-8820. – Age 13 in 1910. – Also known as Darwood Ward (Charles) Harrison and Charlie D. Dalley. – His TX death record lists his parents as Charlie Dalley & Mary Simms. – As Joe Harrison, he married Alma Cleo Ferris (10 Mar 1899 – 21 Jan 1966, buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Tulsa, Tulsa OK, F: 132809428). whose 1st name is sometimes listed as Almer, on 25 May 1919. They had a son Cecil Harrison, born 17 Feb 1920, died 24 Jul 1991. – In the 1920 census, Alma Harrison resided with her parents in Mountain Park, Kiowa OK as of 29/30 Jan 1920, age 20, b. OK, listing herself as widowed. She is only a few days away from giving birth. She lived with her parents George A. & Zora B. Ferris & her other siblings. he then married – Records found online do not include a legal name change, or a divorce by either Alma or Joseph/Charles/Darwood. Joe's departure from OK coincides with the family crisis occasioned by the charge of manslaughter against his sister Nellie & his brother John's suicide in response to Nellie's situation. – Unanswered questions: Did he just vanish, and was declared dead? Did Joe and/or Alma divorce? Did Joe "fake" his death? Was this linked to the fact that his wife Alma Ferris was the sister of Delbert Joseph Ferris, the alleged father of his sister Nellie's baby? – As Mrs. Alma Harrison, age 23, married once before, widowed, she married in Jackson Co. OK on 17 Jun 1922 to Charley Harden, age 35, married once before, farmer. Both were residents of Snyder OK. – Alma's husband was Charles L. Harden (1887-1958, F: 132809429). Notes:

The Harrison family experienced a crisis in 1920 originated by Albert's sister Nellie Harrison, reported as around 19 years old. She found herself pregnant by a man identified as "Fears" or "Delbert Ferris" (since relocated to New Mexico). Her brother Albert testifies in court that Delbert Ferris was identified as the father.

While out herding cows at the family farm owned by her mother, where Nellie lived, reported as 20 miles south of Hobart OK at Twin Mountains, Nellie (identified in one report as "Lillie") gave birth unassisted in a field on 19 Feb 1920. She said she then blacked out. Coming to 2-3 hours later, Nellie found her baby boy was dead, and claimed he had never breathed.

She returned to her mother's house, leaving the baby at the birth site, and recovered for 2-3 days. Then Nellie returned to the birth site, where she could not find a body.

But the body of a newborn infant was discovered on 17 Mar 1920 in a field adjoining the farm of Nellie's mother. The baby was determined to be a girl when examined on 18 Mar 1920 and to have died 10 to 14 days earlier. This date was after Nellie claimed to have given birth.

Nellie's brothers Alfred and John became suspicious after the body of the baby girl was found – presumably because they had noticed Nellie was pregnant – and interrogated her. She confessed to delivering a baby but insisted it was a boy, born/died 19 Feb 1920 . Her story about the baby's sex & birthdate never wavered.

Agitated by this situation, her brother John shot and killed himself with a gun following the brothers' interview, dying 18 Mar 1920. Some reports say it was the next day after the interrogation by the two brothers. Nellie was arrested in May 1920 and charged with manslaughter. A trial was held in Dec 1920 and she was acquitted.

Around this time, their brother Joseph Winchester (Joe) Harrison apparently vanished from the Kiowa Co. OK area, leaving behind his wife Alma Ferris Harrison and (not yet born?) son, and resurfaced in Texas, first known as Charles Dalley and then as Darwood Ward Dalley.

Alma Harrison tells the census enumerator in 1920 that she is widowed. Only "Mrs. Joe Harrison" is listed in the newspaper as the parent of a baby son born 26 Feb 1920.

It would seem, from genealogical records, that Joe Harrison's wife Alma Ferris was the daughter of George Albert Ferris (1872-1940, F: 76680363) & Zora B. Hooser (1879-1947, F: 76680366). Delbert Joseph Ferris is also the son of George & Zora Ferris. He was born 29 Jan 1897 in Tishomongo OK & died 10 Jan 1952, buried in Stafford Cemetery, Stafford, Custer OK, F: 81762016.

Perhaps Joe Harrison's decision to leave town and reinvent himself also was due to his sister Nellie's baby, since it would seem that his brother-in-law Delbert had impregnated his sister Nellie.

As Charles W. Dalley, "Joe" remarried, in 1926, to Carlton Mullings.

Upon the death of "Darwood Dalley" in Jan 1981, his obituary lists no parents nor any siblings, although sisters Minnie, Miner & Ella would have been alive. There is no "Harrison" mention.
