DECADE HAS PASSED SINCE THE TUSCANIA SANK NEAR IRELAND

New London Survivors Give Disaster Details on Tenth Anniversary

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—With the passing of the tenth year since the sinking of the Tuscania, survivors of that ocean tragedy Sunday recalled the event in which about twenty five men of this city were directly involved, as members of the expeditionary force enroute to France. In that disaster died Corporal Clifford Norris and Corporal William Spencer, in memory of whom the local chapter of the American legion was named. Surviving relatives are Mrs. Louis Kurszeveski, John Spencer, Oscar Norris, Mrs. John Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Norris, Sr.

Grief of the relatives of Corporal Spencer, who received the news officially Feb. 18, was unsoftened by details which reached the parents in a majority of the cases surrounding the 209 deaths, due to the fact that no details surrounding the manner in which the young soldier met death were ever given. Even the manner in which he died has never been determined and the body was never found. The body of Clifford Spencer, however, was returned to his home here, and buried in the family lot at Manawa. It has annually been decorated by members of the Norris-Spencer Post.

Commander H. A. Borchard of the Legion post stated Sunday that the post colors would fly at half mast on Monday in memory of the heroes, who were first of this community to die in the service of their country during the war.

Memories of the tragic night of Feb. 5, 1919, were reviewed by veterans who were on the ill fated boat at the time it was sunk by a torpedo from the German submarine, UB-77, at 6:45 p. m. Byron Christian, a member of the contingent of Wisconsin men, was perhaps the last person to talk with the two men. According to Mr. Christian, both Norris and Spencer were on life boat duty on an upper deck, thus removed from the remainder of the New London boys. He had been with the two not more than fifteen minutes before the vessel was torpedoed, and recalled the conversation which took place at that time. The two, always pals, had been relating to Mr. Christian, a hunting and trapping trip in the northern woods on which they had become lost. Norris concluded the talk thus:

"Well, Bill, we got out of that scrape together, and if the old ship sinks we'll both go down the same way."

It was shortly after this that with the Scottish coast appearing in a long, gray mass, to the port side, and with the welcome sight of land after the long days at sea, that the two torpedoes from the UB-77 were fired. Immediately the vessel began to list, decks and hatchways were crowded with men, lights were extinguished, and there was a chill of fright in the silence. Life boats were launched, but through wreckage and mismanagement, many of them were wrecked in launching. The sea was soon filled with drowning or swimming men, some on rafts, others with or without lifebelts. In boats half filled with water, men sat long weary hours, and it was from exposure that many deaths occurred.

In the village of Buncrana, Scotland, men were billeted in peasant homes, and also in Scotland. Forty-nine men were laid side by side in one grave in Scotland, and a flag was made by four Scottish women of a village that the colors of their own nation might drape the coffins of the dead Americans.

Survivors of the tragedy from this city or community are: Com. Henry J. Pettigrew, Jacob Schneider, Leland T. Meany, Arthur J. Hanschel, Ralph A. Mayo, Francis Barlow, Laurel J. Conate, Charles P. Foley, Elmer Hebbe, Arthur Otto, John Allen, Archibald Beaudoin, Martin D. Bongers, Byron E. Christian, Harry B. Collar, Frank J. Davis, George Doman, Leonard T. Meshke, George Schoenrock, Arthur L. Steffen, Harvey J. Travers, Martin Winter, Gustave Rollefson, Arthur Gantwell and George Grawvunder.

MEQUON

Labor Day was a gala day for the Mequon Indians, a baseball team consisting of the married men on the east side of the car tracks, as they carried away a very wonderful victory of 38 to 9 over the Mequon Tigers a team made up of the married men west of the car tracks. Not alone did the westers forfeit the nine inning game, but had to put up a treat in form of a one-eight barrel of beer in bouquet form delivered by the Schmechel & Boelke Floral truck. Every play permissible in soft ball leagues was demonstrated—1, 2 and 3 base hits, home runs, fouls, slides, stolen bases, walks, etc. plus fumbles and errors; even "Coo Coo Christiansen" was represented by the stunts pulled off by Elmer Hebbe, such as juggling beer glasses, balancing full glasses on his head in serving the ladies in the bleachers.

MEQUON

The baseball game between the Mequon Tigers and the Mequon Indians took a sad ending for the Indians, the score being 11 to 9 in the Tigers favor. The batteries and lineup were somewhat changed but of little importance. The winning battery was pitcher Carl Gruenewald and catcher Mr. Webb. Mr. Carl Gruenewald, despite an injured finger, kept on the job. He being the manager also reaps the honor of a well managed lineup. Mr. Ben Pierner, manager of the Indians changed his pitchers so often that the score keeper couldn't keep tract. His catcher, Mr. Elmer Hebbe, was blameless as his mind was on his new born baby girl. The losing team has without a question some wonderful material in John Post, Ray Pierner, Cousin Hugo Pierner, Milbrath, Prahl, Erich Schwanz, a pipin, Werner Miller, a shark, etc., only they lack a little practice to prevent less errors. All through the game some real talent was displayed and at the end of the ninth Ed. Gruenewald topped it off with a miraculous catch which brought the house down but failed to win the game. Both teams wish to thank their fans for the wonderful audience and support they gave; also in helping to drink the beer which again was brought out on the field by Mr. Raymond Boelke with the covered wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hebbe are the proud parents of a baby girl born on Wednesday.

MEQUON

All aboard for the Mequon baseball diamond next Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8th at 2:30 when the Mequon Indians will play the Thiensville Wild Cats. Mr. Carl Gruenewald, the manager of the Mequon Indians and his troupe Moe Webb, Ervin Jaeger, Al. Heidel, Erich Schwanz, Elroy Jaeger, George Lucht, Walter Radke, Henry Mechler, Eddie Lucht, Elmer Hebbe, Clyde Ludwig and Bill Schober as umpire, are all set to beat Mr. Ed. Wiese and his Wild Cats. Whew! what a lineup! There must be a nigger in the fence somewhere to need such a bunch of material—C. J. Plautz, P. J. Hiltgen, Jack Albers, Eugene Milbrath, Ray Gierach, Walter Rowe, Walter Bublitz, Alfred Hadler, Oscar Bublitz, George Kroeger, Henry Wippert, A. P. Gilbert, Jim Wood, Walter Hoffmann, Rubin Hein, Harry C. Steffen, Otto Weisjahn, Arno Hilger, and two umpires Martin Blank and Joe Anzia. Well Mr. Blank might need a substitute after all the excitement that took place at his home on Monday when a baby boy arrived. Dr. Carthaus is salve and bandage carrier.

Both teams consist of married men and a good and exciting afternoon is looked forward to by all the baseball fans. Mequon rooters are gargling their throats and buying Lozengers so you can expect plenty of noise.

NEW LONDON — Voters, who, a week ago, seemed faced with a no-contest and virtually no-candidate election, will have contests in three of five city council seats up for election this spring.

Two races developed Tuesday as the deadline for filing nomination papers was reached.

Ilo Johnson, 1505 Smith St., incumbent Fourth Ward alderman, filed nomination papers early Tuesday and became an opponent of Jerome Freiburger, 1306 Oshkosh St., who filed papers Monday.

Avalt Tohm, 615 Wyman St., incumbent Second Ward alderman, was the lone candidate for city office as late as last Wednesday. He gained an opponent late Tuesday as Elmer A. Hebbe, 609 W. Pine St., filed nomination papers.

The third contest developed Monday when James Besaw, 813 J Shiocton St., filed nomination papers to oppose incumbent Byron Christian, 308 Lyons St., in the Fifth Ward.

Election Papers Available for Six New London Posts

NEW LONDON — Nomination papers for five aldermanic seats and city attorney are now available at the city clerk's office.

The one at large contest arose when no candidate sought election as city attorney last spring, resulting in the appointment of Charles G. Egli, attorney in the firm of Werner, Egli & Beyer, until the next election.

Aldermen whose terms expire during 1969 are Gilbert Kroll, 1st; Elmer A. Hebbe, 2nd; Grace Stern, 3rd; Jerome Freiburger, 4th, and Byron Christian, 5th.

Christian has resigned from the council effective today and a replacement will be elected by the council at the Jan. 7 meeting to serve until the election.

The 75-year-old 5th Ward representative cited poor health as a reason for resigning.

Nomination papers for the offices must be filed with the city clerk by 5 p.m. Jan. 28.

The Tuscania?

Remember the Tuscania?

McKinley Robinson of Appleton does. So does Archie Beaudoin of New London.

Robinson and Beaudoin and numerous other Fox Valley soldiers bound for European duty were aboard the Tuscania when the big British transport steamer was torpedoed by a German submarine off the Irish coast about suppertime on Feb. 5, 1918.

The Tuscania stayed afloat for about two hours, enough time for most of the more than 2,000 British and American troops to abandon ship safely. But more than 200 of them died, including James P. Hawley of Neenah and Clifford Norris and W.B. Spencer of New London.

"All Appleton Boys Saved," screamed the banner headline across the top of the front page of the Appleton Evening Crescent on Feb. 11. One who was saved was Arthur Hantschel. He's dead now, but his brother, Erwin, of Appleton, came to the office recently with a fragile, yellowed newspaper front page dated Feb. 10, 1918 that listed the names of all Wisconsin soldiers who survived the disaster.

Many of them are no longer living. I found two who are, and asked them what they remembered about the day the Tuscania was torpedoed.

Beaudoin was 20 years old — "I still had my mother's apron string in my hands." The soldiers were supposed to land in Liverpool the night of Feb. 5.

There was an uneasiness on the Tuscania, because everyone knew there were German U-boats in the area. Against regulations, Beaudoin and a buddy went up to the third deck, thinking it would be safer there. "I looked straight ahead and could see a light flashing," probably from shore, seconds before the torpedo hit, Beaudoin said.

There was no warning it was coming. No sighting. No sound. "But, so help me God, I felt it coming," Beaudoin said.

"The whole boat sort of shivered" when it was struck, he recalled. A second torpedo missed its mark. The first one hit the coal bin. That, Beaudoin said, was fortunate, because the pumps could be used for a while as the men escaped.

wine as the men escaped.

Beaudoin saw men disappear when they leaped into the water or when they couldn't make the leap from the listing Tuscania to the destroyer that pulled alongside for the rescue. Beaudoin made the leap, when the Tuscania was "about 45 degrees down."

The Tuscania survivors used to hold reunions. Now there is seldom even any talk about that cold night off the Northern Ireland coast 60 years ago, Beaudoin said.

Robinson also was 20 years old on Feb. 5, 1918. He had left his homeland in Waco, Texas, a member of the 127th Medical Company.

He doesn't recall just where he was on the Tuscania when she was torpedoed, "but I probably was under cover somewhere, because it was cold out.

"There was a lot of screaming and hollering" where he was, Robinson recalled. He said he "nearly drowned" before being rescued from a lifeboat. Robinson escaped the Tuscania with soaked clothes, nine cents and a pouch of Durham chewing tobacco.

According to The Crescent, there were many tense days in Appleton as families and friends waited for the War Department to release the names of Tuscania casualties and survivors. The Crescent of Feb. 8, 1918, stated, "Mothers who could scarcely restrain sobs, fathers whose voices trembled and sisters and sweethearts vainly besieged newspaper offices by telephone and in person to learn the fate of a boy thought aboard the Tuscania."

On Feb. 11, The Crescent published the pictures of the Appleton survivors and the names of other area soldiers who were safe in Scotland and Ireland.

Survivors from Appleton were Robinson, Hantschel, Eric Galpin, Theodore Briggs, Henry J. Pettigrew, Jacob F. Schneider, Irwin H. Meidam, Worth L. Bushey and Paul VanWyk. New London soldiers who were saved were Beaudoin, Byron E. Christian, Frank I. Davis, George E. Doman, Martin D. Bongers, Charles Foley, Leonard Meshke, Elmer A. Hebbe and R.A. Mayo.

Others from the area who survived were Laurel Conant, Harry B. Collier and Arthur L. Steffen of Hortonville; Alexander Steward Jr., Martin C.W. Winter, John C. Barth and Hilding Fagerdahl of Clintonville; W.A. Reichel of Leeman; George D. Danley of Iola; Martin T. Evenson of Manawa and A.E. Steffenhagen of Neenah.

Kaukauna First Foe on Gridiron

New London Depends On Bodoh, 170-Pound Fullback, for Yards

New London—Four days remain until Coach Greg Charlesworth's Washington High school Bulldogs take to the city athletic field gridiron against the Kaukauna Galloping Ghosts, and the only comment the local mentor has made is "things don't look too good."

Fundamentals were stressed in last week's practice sessions, with particular emphasis on pass defense and line blocking. By Saturday the New London coach could still not name his starting team.

Jim Bodoh, 170 pound junior letterman, will be counted on for a good deal of the ball-toting. His understudy at fullback is Junior Kleinbrook. At quarterback Charlesworth is expecting things from Erceel McPeak, with Jerome Freiburger, Donald Crain and Robin Lyon also working at that position.

Captain Delford Hanke is expected to do a lot of bolstering in a rather small line. Tom Saterstrom is also working at that position as well as at center. At right end Friday night will be either Louis Stern or Maynard Blink. At right guard, either Keith Schoenrock, John Beckman or Gene Rohan.

TOWN ASSESSED FOR DAMAGES

Hebbe Awarded Damages Against Town of Maple Creek.

The case of Fred Hebbe against the town of Maple Creek was decided last Saturday in the Waupaca circuit court in favor of the plaintiff. This action was commenced nearly two years ago, and was brought by Hebbe to recover damages for injuries to his horse, wagon and harness, and expense and doctor bills for treating his wife, all of which occurred in consequence of a defective highway in the town of Maple Creek on Dec. 3, 1899. The case first came to trial in Outagamie county before Judge Goodland, and Hebbe was defeated. An appeal was taken and the supreme court ordered a new trial. This was brought before Judge Webb in Waupaca county on a change of venue and resulted in a victory for Hebbe as above stated. The amount of damage claimed was $330. It is not yet known whether the town will take an appeal. Should Hebbe eventually win in this case it is understood that another case will be brought in Mrs. Hebbe's name for $3,000 damages for injuries sustained by the accident.—New London Republican.

PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF THEFT

Frank Lunquist Sentenced to Thirty Days at Hard Labor

Cambridge, Wis., Jan. 13—A week ago a man entered the Bank of Cambridge asking for money which he said Fred Hebbe, of Oakland, owed him. He offered Mr. Hebbe's pass book as a guarantee that Mr. Hebbe had sent him for the money. Cashier Gould, of course, refused the money on a pass book, and the man left. Nothing was then heard of him until a sight draft for $125 from a Milwaukee bank reached the International Bank, accompanied by this same pass book and bearing the Fred Hebbe signature. The former experience suggested to Mr. Gould that there was something wrong, and Lewis Benson, whose farm Mr. Hebbe is working, started investigation. It was discovered that a man by the name of Frank Lundquist, who worked a short time for Hebbe, had stolen a few articles and some money before leaving Hebbe's home and had forged his name to the draft which the Milwaukee bank had sent here for collection. Sheriff Wegeman was notified, and when Lundquist called for his money he was nabbed and taken to Jefferson where he pleaded guilty to the charge of theft and was sentenced to thirty days of hard labor. When he has served this sentence he will have to answer to the charge of forgery.
