Freehold Driver Seriously Injured

Howard Gordon, 42, Suffers Leg Fracture In Marlboro Road Crash.

(Staff Correspondent)

FREEHOLD, May 4.—Blinded by a heavy rain, Howard Gordon, 42, Broad street, this place, an employe of the state hospital at Marlboro, and Charles Hornecker, East Orange, collided on the Marlboro road, north of here yesterday. Gordon sustained a fractured right leg, possible fracture and lacerations of the skull.

Charles Volmer, 35, Irvington, a passenger in the Hornecker car, was treated at Freehold hospital here for lacerations of the right knee and chin. Hornecker was treated at the scene by state police for slight injuries.

After first aid had been administered Gordon at the office of Dr. Howard Mason, West Main street, this place, he was taken back to the Marlboro hospital. He was enroute to his home about 5 p. m., when the crash occurred. The Hornecker car was proceeding in a northerly direction. Police believed the two cars were too near the center line of the highway. Their drivers apparently failed to see each other until too late to avoid the collision. There were no arrests or complaints, state police reported.

Florist Shop Adds Floral Designer

Myers Florists at Collinsville announced yesterday that Miss Chris McKinney, a native of Georgia, has joined the firm as a floral designer.

Miss McKinney comes to Henry County from New Jersey after several years of experience in floral business. She has worked in the past for Gresham Florists, one of the leading flower houses in the South, and with Charles T. Hornecker, a leading New York area floral designer.

While she was still residing in Georgia, Miss McKinney began work in floral arrangements as a hobby while teaching school. She operated her own shop at Cordele. For the past eight years she has devoted her full-time to the floral profession.

Ted Myers, Sr., owner of the firm which he established at Collinsville in 1948, has also announced that Miss Bess Page has been added to the personnel there as bookkeeper.

Peter Smith Wed In East Orange

Miss Marilyn Ethel Hornecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hornecker of Park End place, East Orange, became the bride on Saturday evening to Peter Jeremy Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thayer A. Smith of Forest drive. The ceremony was performed at 8 p.m. in Munn Avenue Presbyterian Church by Rev. Dr. C. Marshall Muir and a reception followed at Orange Lawn Tennis Club.

Miss Shirley Peer of Morristown was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Smith, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Helen Thomas of Millington, Miss Joan Mentz of East Orange, Miss Jean Roberts of Danielson, Conn., Miss Jane Hamilton of Garden City, L. I. and Miss Dorothy McMin of Orange. Robert Smith was his brother's best man and the ushers were another brother Donald Smith, Robert M. Kelly of Atlanta, Georgia, Jon Montan of Montclair, Orton Hicks Jr., of Great Neck, L. I., Robert Owens of Kew Gardens, L. I. and George Penn Lewis, Jr., of Montclair.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a candlelight satin off-the-shoulder style gown with an illusion bonnet. Her bouquet was of white orchids. The honor attendant wore an Amberlight tissue taffeta frock and the other attendants were attired in Peacock blue tissue taffeta. All wore maline bonnets to match their gowns and carried colonial bouquets.

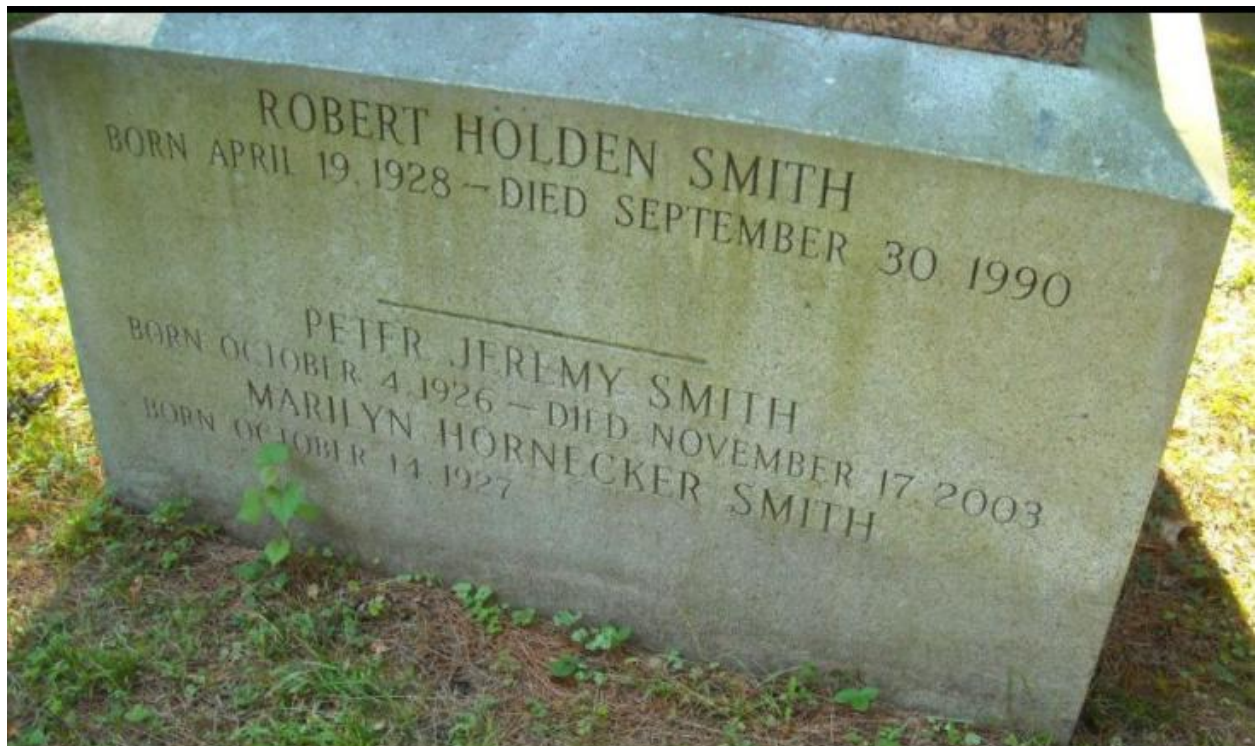

The bride, an alumna of The Beard School, Orange, was graduated earlier this month from Colby Junior College as a medical technologist. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Holderness School, Plymouth, N. H., and is attending Dartmouth College, where he is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He served two years in the Army.

Donald Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thayer A. Smith of Forest drive, is in Roseburg, Oregon this summer. Donald, a pre-medical student at Dartmouth College is an attendant at the V.A. hospital at Roseburg. His brother, Peter, who graduated in June from Dartmouth is now taking a course at the Television Workshop in New York. Peter and his wife, the former Marilyn Hornecker, are now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hornecker of East Orange, and are planning to move to Short Hills in the near future.

OCTOBER 1948 | FRANCIS R. DRURY JR., WILLIAM C. FELTON

While reading the Buffalo Courier-Express the other evening we noted that Robert Heussler sailed for China to spend the summer at the University of Pekin. In the fall he will go to Shanghai, where he'll be for the next two years.... Ignatius Tikellis was graduated from the Harvard Medical School and is now interning at the Delaware Hospital in Wilmington.... From Pat and Charlie Bodley we hear that they are now the proud parents of Miss Karen Sue Bodley, born June 15.... Lowell Thomas Jr. is now engaged in traveling and gathering material for future lectures. "Sonny" is in Iraq with a military team.... We received word from Western Reserve University that Jim Jones and Milt Fromson were awarded degrees from that institution in June.... Francis R. Drury Jr. and William C. Felton are still dominating the scene in the Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester, N. Y.

Among our graduates were Miss Barbara Ann Schmid and Lt. Richmond vanden Heuvel, presently stationed at Quantico, Va.

Married in Auburn, Maine in July were the Miss Sally Ann White, and Ed Byrkit. Ushering at the ceremony was Rube Samuels. Ed and Sally plan to live in Pittsburgh this fall, where Ed will continue his engineering career. At East Orange, N. J., Miss Gertrude Evans became the bride of Dwight Smith. The bride is a graduate of New Jersey College for Women. Dwight is with the Boston and Maine Railroad in Plymouth, Mass. Miss Anne Williams of Wilmington was married to Ben Brewster. After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple plan to make their home in Plymouth.

At a June wedding in Worcester, Miss Verah Cotton married Frederick R. Johnson. "Cotton" will continue his graduate studies at Harvard this fall after a Indiana Univ. at Thayer School of Engineering. He is now a milling foreman at Lodi, California, and is interning at Lehigh Hospital.

Ed Adjemian of Toledo, taking a leave from Rutgers. Sam B. Johnson of architecture firm in New York City. Sam B. Johnson is soon planning to travel the world as a representative for heating installations.

Biographical and genealogical history of the city of Newark and Essex County, New Jersey

one of the most extensive nurserymen and best known landscape gardeners of Essex county, New Jersey, has greenhouses and offices located in Newark, East Orange and Union, where his name is familiar not only to lovers of the beautiful in the floral line but also to business men in general.

Mr. Hornecker is a German. His ancestors as far back as their history can be traced lived and died in Germany. He was born in Hamburg, August 30, 1851, being a son of Henry and Amelia Hornecker, the former of whom died some years ago in Hamburg, the latter still being a resident of her native land and having attained the advanced age of eighty years. In their family were eight children, of whom two died in infancy and two after reaching adult age. Four are still living, namely: Mary; Ferdinand, a retired merchant; Bertha, a resident of Hamburg; and Charles T., whose name appears at the head of this sketch.

Charles T. Hornecker was educated in the public and private schools of his native place. At the age of thirteen he began working at the landscape-gardening business, and has devoted his time and attention to this occupation ever since, with the result that to-day he stands first among the nurserymen and landscape gardeners of Essex county. At sixteen, believing that he could better his station in life by emigration to this country, he bade adieu to home and friends and native land and took passage for America, embarking in a sailing vessel in June, 1867, and, after a voyage that covered ninety-two days, landing in New York city August 30th. He remained in New York city for several years, or until 1870, when he came to Essex County, New Jersey. He worked for wages till 1874, that year he launched out in business for himself, and has from time to time increased his facilities and extended his business until it has reached its present proportions.

Mr. Hornecker was married in Newark, New Jersey, July 22, 1873, to Paulina Meckeler, a daughter of Michael and Maria Meckeler, of that place; and to them have been born fourteen children. Two died in infancy; one daughter, Augusta, died at the age of seventeen, and the following named survive: Julia, wife of Charles H. Thorne; Frances, wife of David Solkend; and Henry, Bertha, Bernhard, Edward, Halmouth, Caroline, Minnie, Helen and Charles.

While not active in political matters, Mr. Hornecker takes a commendable interest in public affairs, and casts his vote with the Republican party. Fraternally, he is identified with a number of organizations. He is a member of Newark Lodge, No. 85, Knights of Honor; Philip Morse Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Orange, and also the encampment of this order; and Germania Schutztenberg Lewellyn Company, No. 18, of Orange. His family are attendants upon worship at the German Lutheran church.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT AND HELD FOR MURDER.

Charles Hornecker, a florist doing business in Central-ave., in the outskirts of Newark, three weeks ago employed Peter Martin as a laborer. On Saturday Martin was discharged, and he then went to a neighboring grocery-store and borrowed $10. Hornecker arrested the man yesterday and took him to Police Headquarters. On the way there the prisoner was recognized by Charles Vinzelto, who lives near Irvington, as Peter Miller, who had been in his employ five weeks ago and went away suddenly just before Detective Skillman, of Flatbush, L. I., called and said that he wanted Miller for a murder committed at the oil works on Barren Island. It was alleged that Miller killed a fellow workman about three months ago. Vinzelto accompanied the two men to headquarters and positively identified Miller. The prisoner was held and a telegram was sent to the Flatbush officers.

60, HELD AS SHOPLIFTER

Mrs. Pauline Meckler, 60, of 30 Seventeenth street, East Orange, a woman of unusually prosperous appearance, was arrested Saturday afternoon for shoplifting in a Market street department store. When confronted with the charge by Lieutenants Farrell and Ryan, Mrs. Meckler became very indignant and persisted in her innocence, and it was only after a careful search that silk gloves valued at $1 were found in her hand-bag, according to the police. Charles Hornecker, a florist, of 45 South Eighteenth street, furnished $100 bail for the woman's appearance in the First Criminal Court next Wednesday, when she will be examined.

HOTEL GUESTS ROBBED.

Clothing and Other Property Valued at $1,000 Stolen.

Supposed professional hotel thieves at the Willard Hotel Monday and yesterday robbed four guests of wearing apparel and other property valued at approximately $1,000.

W. Roy Murphy of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Walter Grey, Hamilton, Ohio, here attending a convention of florists, were robbed of wearing apparel valued at $250 Monday. They were in adjoining rooms.

Henry Hornecker and Louis M. Anderson, both of East Orange, N. J., occupying adjoining rooms on the third floor of the hotel, were victims of yesterday's raid.

Hornecker told police property taken from his room included wearing apparel and jewelry valued at more than $500, a lady's Bolivia coat valued at $150 being the most expensive article included in the list.

Clothing and jewelry valued at about $500 and a small sum of money were taken from Anderson's room. Duplicate keys were used in the robbery.

"Washington (DC) Evening Star" Wednesday 12 Oct 1927 p 17

During the business session which preceded the dinner, Henry Hornecker of East Orange, spoke on the work of the Florists Telegraph Delivery association, mentioning especially the new $125,000 building just purchased by the organization in Detroit, where all activities will be centralized and which will be devoted exclusively to association work.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Couple

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES SANDERS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders of 41 Gates Avenue, whose golden wedding anniversary will be Tuesday, will be honor guests at an open house to be given at their home Sunday afternoon by their children. Their sons and daughters are Mrs. Leroy G. Decker of West Los Angeles, Calif., Charles Sanders Jr. of Lynwood, Calif., J. Kenneth Sanders of East Orange, and Mrs. Ellis Hendry of Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Hendry and Mr. and Mrs. Sanders Jr. have come from California especially for the occasion. Mrs. Decker visited her parents in June of last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders were married in Newark on Jan. 9, 1900, and lived there until they moved to Montclair in 1912. Mrs. Sanders who was born in Newark, is the former Bertha Hornecker whose family have been florists in East Orange for many years. Her father established a florist business there in 1880. She is a member of Court Unitas, Catholic Daughters of America.

Mr. Sanders conducts a plumbing and heating business in Montclair, and formerly had a similar business in Newark. His family settled in Newark in 1826. He was born in New York. His parents also celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, who have lived in this area all their lives, attend Immaculate Conception Church. They have two grandchildren, Robert Decker and J. Kenneth Sanders Jr.

BRIDE-TO-BE STOLE SILK TROUSSEAU, PIECE AT A TIME

Miss Caroline Hornecker, of This City, Locked Up in East Orange.

TELLS COURT SHE IS TO WED IN THREE WEEKS

Breaks Down and Confesses
When Sleuth Finds Goods
in Her Trunk.

On the eve of her wedding, Miss Caroline Hornecker, 24 years old, of 89 Columbia street, this city, is to-day occupying a cell in the East Orange police station. The alleged theft of silk which Miss Hornecker, according to the police, admitted she had purloined for her trousseau, is responsible for the prospective bride's arrest.

Miss Hornecker for some time has been a clerk in the dry goods store of Olof E. Bugge, of 569-571 Main street, East Orange. Mr. Bugge has been missing quantities of silk and his endeavors to locate the thief had been without result. When the peculations continued to the extent of the loss of $36 worth of goods, Mr. Bugge called in the police.

Detective David Wendel was assigned to the case. He quizzed every employee in the store. Suspicion was directed toward Miss Hornecker. The sleuth gave no intimation of his suspicion. Last night he visited the Hornecker girl's home, and upon searching her room, declares he found the missing silk secreted in the compartment of a trunk. Up to that time Miss Hornecker is said to have stoutly denied any knowledge of the theft.

When the detective drew the silk from the trunk Miss Hornecker, the police say, broke down and confessed her guilt. She was taken to the East Orange police station and locked up on a charge of grand larceny.
