A FIGHTING FAMILY

Wild Rose claims the champion family in militant patriotism. Four brothers, Martin, Joseph, Frank and John Inda, have enlisted in the Waushara county military company.

The 4 brothers – Martin, Joseph, Frank & John – enlist in the Waushara Co. WI military unit – "Stevens Point (WI) Journal" Saturday 7 Jul 1917 p 1

FIVE OF FAMILY GOING TO WAR

[BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

Wautoma, Wis. — The Waushara county council, of defense, through Chairman E. F. Kileen and Secretary F. S. Durham, started the seventy members to get recruits for the new company, with the result that within six weeks, 135 men had been sworn in, and passed medical examinations, and are intensively drilling as Company L, Fifth infantry. The following officers have been commissioned: Frank E. Teska, captain; Arthur R. Nichols, first lieutenant; Frank A. Inda, second lieutenant.

As Waushara county contains no cities, and recruits had to be drawn from the country, it is considered the best example of organization work in the state, considering the splendid quality of the men and the short time in which they were enlisted. In '61 Waushara county furnished the largest number of troops, according to population, of any county in the state.

When registration came, the county council reached every man in the county and arranged such a perfect system that it was the first county in the state to report complete official returns to the governor.

Frank Inda, Sr., made his home here thirty-eight years ago, coming from Poland to better his condition. Here he raised a large family of boys and girls. When the news reached their farm that Waushara county was organizing a company, they wired an older brother in Minnesota, who was above the registration age, to come home, as the whole family was going to war. Four brothers and a cousin, who makes his home with them on the large farm, have enlisted and the older brother is waiting at home as a reserve to enlist in case any of them fail in the federal medical examination, otherwise to help run the farm. When the arguments of the brothers and enlisting officer and her pleadings failed to get her sweetheart to enlist, a sister of the boys branded him a coward, and cut his acquaintance.

Waushara county gave the company a banquet and raised a mess fund of $750.

Waushara Co. Survivors of Tuscania Meet

Plainfield— The Waushara county survivors of the ill-fated Tuscania gathered at the Legion club rooms in Plainfield on the evening of Feb. 5 at 5:35 p. m. to reenact the tragedy of 15 years ago.

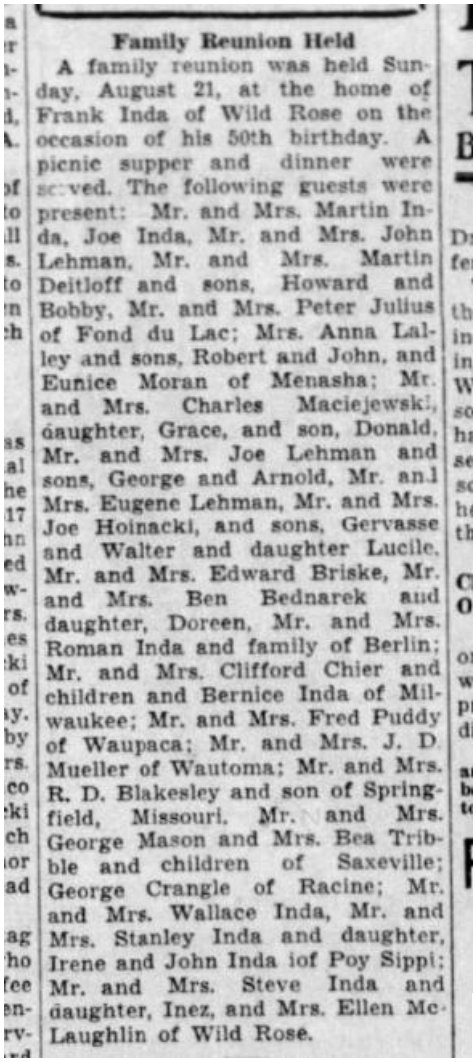

The torpedo struck at the specified time but much differently from the one 15 years ago. A very fine plate dinner was served by the local Legion boys. After dinner the regular business meeting was carried on. A vote was taken to hold the next meeting at Red Granite Feb. 5, 1934, with John McArdle as president and Tom Evans as secretary.

The survivors talked over old times, which were very interesting to the visitors. The rest of the evening was spent in playing cards.

An article from the Milwaukee Journal, Aug. 5, 1917, told of four brothers and a cousin from Wild Rose who served in World War I. It said, "As Waushara County had no cities, the recruits had to be drawn from the country. It is considered the best example of organizational work in the state considering the splendid quality of the men and the short time in which they were enlisted. Waushara County furnished the largest number of troops according to the population of any county in the state."

The article continued, "Four sons of the Frank Inda Sr. family, who reside on a farm east of Wild Rose, all enlisted at once along with a cousin. They were Lt. Frank A. Inda, cook Martin Inda, Sgt. John Inda, Cpl. Joe Inda and a cousin, Frank Formiller, who also was a cook, an unusual instance for Wild Rose to be proud of. Another son, Steve, signed up but the war ended before he was called up."

FIVE RELATIVES ENLIST

The Milwaukee Journal Sunday contained the pictures of five fine appearing young men, members of the Inda family of Waushara county. All have enlisted in the war as members of Company L of the Fifth Wisconsin. Four of the young men are brothers of Mrs. George Mason of this city, and the fifth is a cousin. They have visited their sister here and are quite well known to many of our young people. The story that accompanied the picture is very interesting:

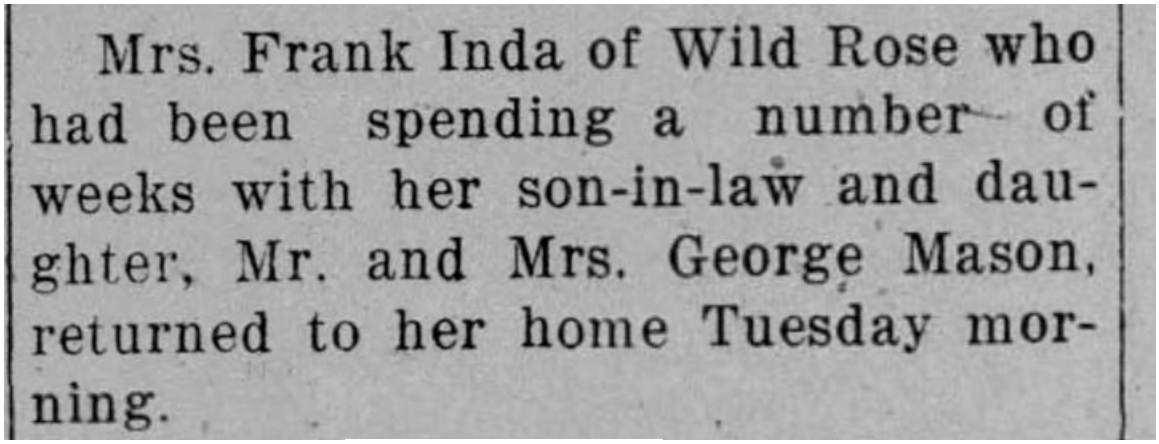

Frank Inda, Sr., made his home here thirty-eight years ago, coming from Poland to better his condition. Here he raised a large family of boys and girls. When the news reached their farm that Waushara county was organizing a company, they wired an older brother in Minnesota, who was above the registration age, to come home, as the whole family was going to war. Four brothers and a cousin, who makes his home with them on the large farm, have enlisted and the older brother is waiting at home as a reserve to enlist in case any of them fail in the federal medical examination, otherwise to help run the farm. When the arguments of the brothers and enlisting officer and her pleadings failed to get her sweetheart to enlist, a sister of the boys branded him a coward, and cut his acquaintance.

Waushara county gave the company a banquet and raised a mess fund of $750.

Maciejewski-Inda

It is with pleasure that we hear of the marriage of Miss Ameli Maciejewski to Frank Inda, both well known in Hartford. The ceremony took place at nine o'clock Tuesday morning at Berlin, Wis.

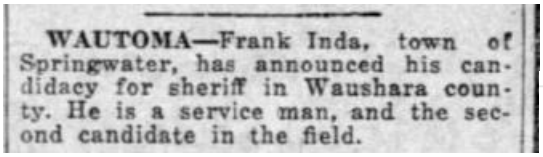

Neither the bride nor the groom has ever resided in Hartford but they have often visited here and have a large circle of friends. The groom served during the World War in the 32nd division as a lieutenent in a machine gun battalion. The bride, who has always lived in Berlin, is almost as well known as though she had resided here. Both are charming young people, and are sure to succeed.

A number of Hartford people attended the wedding, among them being: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mason, and Miss Clara Strubing. Misses Anna and Regina Inda, both well-known here, were also in attendance.

The Press offers its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Inda.
